Aaron: That's a fairly new ipad; is it being serviced? If it is not working correctly, please turn it into IT so they can get a replacement one for her right away. I have noticed that she has had problems with that ipad since the get-go. Seems like she got a "lemon."

Sarah: can you help Aaron with that so we can get Commissioner Kafoury up and running again?

Aaron: Marissa has asked us not to get into that habit, but given the circumstances, I don't see that we have any choice. I will have Marina make you a copy from my printed original. yes, I make a paper original! In archive-world, they still want paper! :)
