PROCLAMATION NO. 2017-014

Proclaiming April 30 - May 6, 2017 to be Construction Industry Safety Week in Multnomah County, Oregon.

The Multnomah County Board of Commissioners Finds:

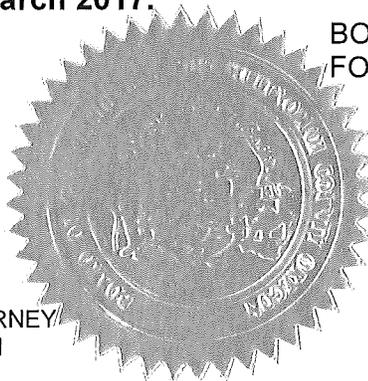

- a. Construction is vital to our strong local economy yet remains one of the most dangerous professions.

- d. No innovation in safety should be proprietary in order to send every worker across the region home safely after every shift.
- e. Local private and public owners in Multnomah County have been national leaders in construction safety.
- f. Stakeholders will enrich the dialogue and accelerate the adoption of best practices.
- g. SafeBuild Alliance, a local non-profit advocating Zero Incidents through Collaboration has encouraged all members of the building community to share and learn in safety from one another.
- h. Every day should include a focus on safety.

The Multnomah County Board of Commissioners Proclaims:

April 30-May 6, 2017 to be Construction Safety Awareness Week.
