Multnomah County Community Health Council Citizen Budget Advisory Committee 2006

The Multnomah County Community Health Council serves as the Health Department's community advisory board and CBAC. It is also the federally-mandated governing body of Multnomah County's system of Community Health Centers. It is an appointed group, including members of the community with an interest in public health, representatives from local health and social service organizations, and most importantly, consumer members who utilize the Health Department's clinical services. The Council works closely with the Director and staff of the Health Department, meeting monthly throughout the year to provide community guidance on a wide variety of public health services, programs and policies affecting Multnomah County residents. One of our most important functions as a Council is to review and monitor Health Department's annual budget.

We believe that Multnomah County's most significant priority should be to ensure the health and well-being of all county residents. Adequately funding to sustain the County's current clinical health system is critical in order to do this. The County's primary care clinics are the front line in supporting our most vulnerable neighbors. As the income gap continues to grow, exacerbating health disparities, our County health clinics become an even more indispensable resource for the community at large.

The Health Department continues to face the daunting task of finding solutions to serve the County's growing under/uninsured population in the face of shrinking revenues. Significant budget constraints could result in distressing losses in clinical capacity, infrastructure, and medication support to our community partners. We suggest that Board decisions take into the account of following considerations:

- We do not want to see the Health Department risk its "federally qualified health center" (FQHC) status and its ability to obtain federal dollars. Federal funding requires that county health centers keep a certain level of care within the clinic system. To qualify for federal funding, health centers must maintain (1) a system of care that ensures access to primary and preventive services, and facilitates access to comprehensive health and social services, (2) quality services responsive to the needs and culture of the target community and/or populations, and (3) effective clinical and administrative leadership and procedures to guide the provision of services and quality improvement programs. The Multnomah Health Department is not currently in danger of losing federal primary care grants, but as the budget cuts deepen, we are concerned about the direction the Department will be forced to take and the impact on our FQHC status. Cutting sites and provider teams will result in lost Medicaid revenue. It is important to understand that cutting provider teams, without cutting building and operating costs, typically results in more revenue lost than costs saved.
- We worry about the community-wide consequences of having to turn newly uninsured clients away, continuing to take care of our patients who have lost their insurance, and cutting services that prevent worsening health conditions. These conditions will need to be treated in a more expensive way later. The community stands to lose more financially when increasing numbers of residents have no chance of accessing health care and end up using emergency room service as their only option.

- We are hearing directly from patients that Medicare Part D is creating a great deal of confusion. It is without question that the changes to the Medicare program are being felt locally. We urge you to keep in mind those who are in danger of losing adequate health insurance, and the reality that many in need are already invisible. Our clinical system should have the ability and financial resources to respond to these rapidly changing needs.
- We strongly advocate against any cutting into the “meat” of clinics. If we do this, we will be shutting out our most vulnerable citizens, many of whom are not able to speak for themselves, and increasing morbidity and mortality rates throughout the county.

In the Council’s opinion, it is critical for the Board of County Commissioners to understand that the needs and challenges of our local citizens are not going away anytime soon. With under/uninsured population increasing and available financial resources decreasing, the Health Department’s fiscal burden can only become heavier. We ask the County to keep pressure on the state to uphold its responsibility to find funding solutions. We urge you to advocate as you can with E-Board for systemic changes of the state’s health care system. Multnomah County simply cannot continue serving its residents without adequate funding and support from both the state and federal government.

From the Council’s perspective, the Department has been a responsible manager of its financial and human resources. Our Council serves as a voice of the community, representing many individuals who directly benefit from the exceptional services currently in place. At our monthly meetings, we hear directly from clients who are continually impressed with the compassion of the health care providers, the technological advances such as Electronic Medical Records at the clinics, and the Department’s commitment to cultural competence. It is our hope that you will continue to focus on the needs of our community’s most vulnerable residents.

Department of County Human Services CBAC

March 12, 2006

Dear Chair Linn & Commissioners,

Our CBAC has again been given the difficult task of reviewing the Program Offers for the Department of County Human Services. All told, there are 88 offers to review that were submitted by the four DCHS Divisions: Developmental Disabilities Services, Mental Health and Addiction Services, Aging and Disability Services, and the Domestic Violence Coordinator's Office. The department is requesting an additional $9 million in County General Funds and the need for these services continues to increase. We are aware of the County's funding shortfall and realize that the challenge of choosing which offers are funded is not an easy one. We do not envy your task.

We want one message to be clear. We are very concerned about the proposed "realignment" of DCHS. We have not seen written material that presents of any compelling rationale for this action. We do not see convincing evidence that the "realignment" will result in increased savings or better services. Further, we are concerned that this additional organizational change will have the opposite effect of diverting attention away from services at all levels of the organization and toward focusing more on the internal bureaucratic reorganization process. We are also worried that this reorganization will result in a further fragmentation of services. Therefore, we recommend that the entire idea be reconsidered.

Since we were not asked to do so, we have not ranked the program offers this year. However, when we reviewed the offers, it became apparent that even though we have been given more data, we still had questions about the efficiency of certain programs. And we did not initially have sufficient information to derive satisfactory answers to those questions. Examples: 1) PO#25105 – Mental Health Services for Transition Aged Youth. This program appeared to serve seven individuals next year at a cost of $159,709. This would total $21,428 per person. 2) PO#25094 – A& D Youth Residential Treatment. This program appeared to target only 21 youths at a cost $299,579. This would total $14,265 per youth. Recently, we learned that these programs were serving slots of individuals and would therefore be providing services to many more people than indicated. So while the outcome and output measures are useful and needed, we urge that the information provided be clearly presented, which it was not in these instances. In the future, all relevant information needs to be provided so that we can understand the costs required in providing a service. We recommend that you continue to push for these kinds of measures along with more frequent reporting. Quarterly reporting would be our recommendation.

We understand that the County has less than "full funding" for all the services provided. In addition, the Chair has promised to open the new jail and give Portland Public Schools $5 million. With all these demands for critical services, a couple of the program offers seemed questionable. Example: PO's#25078A and B - Culturally Competent Mental Health Services. These two offers are requesting a little more than $3.5 million for "expanding current infrastructure and capacity" of providers in various minority populations. This is not buying services for minority clients. These program offers are providing "the ability to build infrastructure and service capacity". We were recently told that developing this infrastructure was necessary in order to deliver services effectively. However, some of us still have doubts about this. In an atmosphere of seemingly endless budget cutbacks, we believe that the focus should be on providing services. We can and should require that all services be provided in a culturally appropriate manner, but we remain uncertain as to whether these kinds of program offers will further that goal.

Finally, we have heard that there was going to be much more emphasis on program offers that collaborated with other County departments. These were to be called Joint Offers. The idea is that Joint Offers would take advantage of common objectives, and be more efficient and effective. Yet we do not see many Joint Offers. We know that there is a lot of crossover between DCHS, DCJ and Health. We were somewhat disappointed that we do not see more effort being placed on working together to serve the client's needs. We recommend that more effort be made in this direction.

Sincerely,

Steve Weiss, Chair

Recommendations for the DSCP CBAC

March 27, 2006

Process: The DSCP CBAC is struggling to rebuild itself, almost from scratch. It currently has only two citizen members, both of whom are fairly new to the committee. Xander Patterson, joined in the summer of 2004, but he has devoted most of his time to working on the budget process with the Basic Living Needs citizen committee and Outcome Team, so his experience with the DSCP is limited. James Woods joined in January, 2006. The committee has held only three meetings, one of which was an orientation. We have interviewed only Kathy Tinkle, the department liaison, and Lorenzo Poe, the department Director. We hope to be able to offer more detailed recommendations next year.

Major Changes in department offers: Most changes are expansions of existing programs and reintroduction of cancelled ones. New offers include

- Diversion Service System that restores the County's preadjudicatory system for youths involved in low-severity offenses;
- Domestic Violence Gang Services;
- Youth Gang Prevention in partnership with DCJ and DCHS.

Recommendations/concerns: The Department of School and Community Partnerships Citizens Budget Advisory Committee is very supportive of the new priority-based budgeting and is pleased that the process is improving both in the quality of the offers and the measures. We are pleased to see that strategies laid out by the Education Outcome Team and by the DSCP Director in his budget transmittal are in close alignment.

Measures – Budget cuts in recent years have diminished DSCP's capacity to measure the effectiveness of its programs. The CBAC would like to see this capacity restored and to see continued improvement in the measures provided in program offers. Performance measures are the basic accounting of social services. They are the register tape, journal and ledger needed to justify the continuation and expansion of programs. The program offer measures have improved significantly over last year, but they still need much improvement.

Desired improvements:

- Measures should include unit costs that are meaningful and, ideally, comparable to other programs. Some should be output oriented ($ per visit, or client served, for example). Others outcome oriented ($ per client successfully served). We recognize that there are all kinds of complications arriving at these measures, but we think it is very valuable to try to develop them.

- Performance measures (outcome accounting) should focus only on the incremental benefit of program offers. The benefits of a program should always be weighed against a baseline, or what would happen if the program did not exist.
- Outcome measurement should not be restricted to easy to measure items. From the moment an outcome objective is stated resources are devoted to achieving that objective. Limiting "outcome accounting" to that which is easy to measure will result in many programs being on-time and on-budget, but achieving little else.
- Like financial accounting, measuring objectives is not inexpensive nor should it be left for untrained, non-professional, staff. Program offer 21001A, DSCP Operations, provides $1,424,036 for "financial accounting" services for all program offers. Equal funding for the more difficult "outcome accounting" is probably a minimum requirement. It is preferable these "outcome accounting" funds be included as a line-item in each offer.

Even improved measures will not necessarily capture all the benefits of certain programs and all the considerations that go into evaluating whether a program warrants funding. We hope the BCC will strive to maintain balance between prevention, intervention, and treatment and bear in mind the unmeasured benefits of prevention as a long-term investment that will improve lives and save the County money far into the future. We especially favor programs that increase high school graduation rates such as 21015 and 21033. Lochner and Morettie have estimated that for each additional student that graduates from high school the costs to society from crime, crime prevention and incarceration drop by $1,170 to $2,100 per year for forty years.

Another unmeasured benefit can be the "spillover" impact of a County program in making private sector markets work better. For example, offer 21038 Standards Based Tutoring, provides services to some students, but its primary effect is to provide cost reducing incentives to the other commercial tutoring services. Similar programs have been effective in energy services and have been a model for public interventions that improve the functioning of markets.

A third unmeasurable the BCC should consider is the synergy or interdependence of certain programs. The existence of one program can make many others more effective. SUN Schools (21031) have an especially important positive impact on other programs such as Touchstone (21032). We feel fully funding SUN Schools should be the County's highest priority in DSCP. We also believe extending Touchstone to a full twelve months will improve this program's results in a cost-effective manner.

Sincerely,

Xander Patterson

DCHS CBAC Testimony

May 30, 2006

Good morning. My name is Steve Weiss. I'm chair of the Department of County Human Services Citizen Budget Advisory Committee. All of you should have received our March 19th letter of recommendations in regard to the FY2007 Budget.

I'm here today to present our CBAC's additional recommendations in the wake of the release of the Chair's Budget on May 4th as well as additional purchases of programs suggested by the Chair as a result of increased revenues. First of all, we note with dismay that County Human Services is one of only two departments that is slated for a decrease in spending in the May 4th budget document. Specifically, the proposed DCHS Budget is $7.4 million less than FY2006, with General Fund appropriations of $5.3 million less than FY06. The 17.6% reduction in General Fund resources is attributable to existing program offers not being funded.

These are some of the most important services within the County for the thousands of people who have disabilities, chronic conditions, are vulnerable, elderly, in poverty and often without family supports. Our CBAC was concerned that the Chair's Budget for 2007 departs significantly from the past commitment to human services in general and particularly to seniors and people with physical, mental health and/or addiction disabilities. While we are pleased that increased revenues have resulted in the Chair's recommending that additional program offers that were not funded in the May 4th budget now be purchased in part or in full, we still have concerns about that process.

I want to discuss some of the specific program offers that we believe need to be fully funded. ADS Community Safety Net-25021A-was ranked high by both the Board and the Outcome Team. This is a program that helps the poorest and frailest seniors and people with disabilities in the County. The program has helped 2,300 people during its first three years and now has a waiting list of 90. Without Safety Net funding, that waiting list will grow even longer.

Mental Health Treatment and Medication for the Uninsured-25063- received a reasonably high ranking. This program hopes to serve 1,220 vulnerable individuals who are uninsured, ineligible for the Oregon Health Plan and at risk of hospitalization in FY07.

ADS Community Access-25020- also received a reasonably high ranking, but is now part of a "savings" package (25905) that will reduce its CGF funding by 28%, or nearly $600,000. This is a network of services program that serves Multnomah County's frail elderly, veterans and the poor. Community Access Services helped 11,454 County residents in 2005.

The Community Engagement Program-25092-received a reasonably high ranking as well, but was made part of a "savings" package (25910) that would reduce its funding by nearly $692,000. This is a recovery program for chronically homeless clients who use a very large amount of public safety and hospitalization dollars.

A&D Community Based Services-25081-addresses the needs of severely addicted persons who often suffer from mental and physical illness. These folks typically experience chronic homelessness and repeated incarceration and hospitalization.

Elders in Action Ombudsman Services-10022-is a program that provides support and assistance for seniors and people with long-term disabilities in the areas of healthcare, housing, and crime and abuse. It's also providing invaluable help to many folks who are trying to make sense of the vastly confusing Medicare Part D Prescription Drug Program.

And last, but not least, ADS Long Term Care Scaled Offer B-25023B-provides service to vulnerable residents at risk of nursing home admission. This critical program works with Community Health Nurses and brings in $210,000 in matching federal dollars.

We note that some of these programs, as well as others that I've omitted mentioning because of time considerations, appear on the Chair's proposed buy-back list that would be utilized if the Commission voted to refinance the renovation of the Sauvie Island Bridge. However, the estimated $5 million in savings that would result from this refinancing would be one-time-only money. We remind you that the County's financial policies state that "it is the policy of the Board that the County will fund ongoing programs with ongoing revenues." We believe that the programs I've mentioned need ongoing funding.

Therefore, our CBAC has taken the unusual step of unanimously voting to join with the Community Justice CBAC in recommending that the County not fund the opening of the Wapato jail. As the Community Justice CBAC stated in their recommendations letter, "The minimum cost of funding a partial opening of the facility would absorb funds that could be used to fund services currently funded by the Itax."

The DCHS CBAC believes that the nearly $3 million that opening Wapato would cost could be put to better use as ongoing funding for the programs that I've described in my testimony. We also note that many of these programs will almost certainly help those who benefit from them from becoming inmates at jails like Wapato.

Finally, our CBAC was pleased to learn that the proposed reorganization of the Department of County Human Services has been moved from a fast track to a more deliberative process. However, we are now even more committed to recommending that this entire proposal be abandoned.

Thank you for allowing me to speak to you.

Performance

How do we measure our performance?

DSCP relies on quarterly and annual output and outcome data for program planning and improvement.

Program data informs:

- Contractors and DSCP staff and Managers on program compliance
- Service providers on effective practices and ongoing challenges
- Community stakeholders on how public funds are making a difference
- Funders about successful program implementation and continuous improvement

We learn what is working and how well we are reaching our targets

Annual review of measures ensures goals and progress toward them are accurate reflections of the services we provide and the outcomes we are striving towards.

A few examples for FY2006:

- 75% of students made gains in standardized reading and math test scores
- 92% of clients had stable housing at exit from case management
- 100% of households receiving energy assistance payments were prevented from shut off

Examples of how we maintain or improve performance in current fiscal climate

DSCP community collaboration and outcome measure alignment:

- SUN Service System, school districts, non profits, and evaluators collaborated on developing outcomes and data collection processes.
- Rent Assistance, HAP and the City of Portland aligned our outcomes with the 10-year plan to end homelessness.
- Homeless Programs, HUD and the City of Portland developed consistent measures of service for homeless programs across jurisdictions.
- Gang Programs, DCJ adopted consistent measures of positive outcomes.

State Impacts – What we Know

- Majority of all funding for DSCP anti-poverty services come from federal and state sources.
- Changing demographics across the State have affected allocation formulas; Multnomah County always loses in these processes. No further reductions of State funds anticipated.
- Federal reductions will continue, impacting us directly and our partners.
- On-going challenge to fund administrative costs with federal/state funds.
- Opportunity to increase advocacy at state and federal level.
