

In the Matter of Co-Hosting the 1998 National Association of Counties Convention

WHEREAS, the National Association of Counties (NACo), a non-profit service organization representing more than 40,000 elected and appointed policy making county officials, holds an annual meeting in July and the projected attendance of the 1998 NACo Conference is 5,800, including the members of 19 affiliated organizations which meet in conjunction with the Conference; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Multnomah County will share in the financial responsibilities of co-hosting the 1998 NACo Conference including a proportionate share in funding a coordinator of logistical planning in advance of the Conference.
