AGENDA ITEM BRIEFING
STAFF REPORT SUPPLEMENT

TO: BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

FROM: Kathy Tuneberg

TODAY'S DATE: May 11, 1998

REQUESTED PLACEMENT DATE: May 21, 1998

RE: Distribution of Proceeds from the Sale of Tax Foreclosed Properties for the Period July 1, 1996 through June 30, 1997

I. Recommendation/Action Requested:

Request Order authorizing reimbursement of the Tax Title Fund and additional Order authorizing distribution of tax foreclosed property sale proceeds to Multnomah County Taxing Districts.

II. Background/Analysis:

The Board must authorize the reimbursement of these expenditures by the Tax Title Fund. The Board must also authorize the distribution of the proceeds, after deducting expenditures. Part of the proceeds from 1996/97 have been set aside to create a reserve of $440,973 which is equal to 1997/98 expenditure budget.

There are several reasons for establishing a reserve to cover future Tax Title expenditures:

- The number of foreclosures is at an all time low, 41 properties last year, and fewer than 35 anticipated this year. About 50% of these properties are non-developable "strips" less than 2,500 square feet with very low values and little revenue potential. As the total number of foreclosures declines the percentage of "strips" increases.
- Revenue provided by contracts for property sold at auction or to former owners is diminishing as the contracts are paid off years before their due dates. This is most likely due to low interest rates, escalating property value, and high employment rate.

- Property sales have been delayed for substantial periods of time due to the resolution of IRS liens and/or title problems. There are approximately 30 properties for which the title has been cleared over the past two years. These properties can be sold as soon as the Board authorizes and could provide substantial revenue to the fund.
- The number of saleable properties transferred to governments and low-income housing programs has also had a financial impact on the fund.

III. Financial Impact:

With the $440,973 reserve established, and sufficient 1997/98 revenue to cover expenditures in the current year, this distribution of $314,889.34 should have no detrimental consequences to the Fund.

However, while the recent estimate of the current year's revenue indicates 1997/98 expenditures are adequately covered, it may be prudent to consider increasing the reserve before any further Taxing District distributions are authorized.

IV. Legal Issues:

The reimbursement of Tax Title expenditures is provided for in ORS 275.275 and 311.390. No other legal issues are known.

V. Controversial Issues:

None anticipated.

VI. Link to Current County Policies:

Maintaining adequate cash flow to cover costs keeps the Tax Title function from requiring General Fund support.

VII. Citizen Participation:

None anticipated.

VIII. Other Government Participation:

All Taxing District in the County receive a percentage of the distribution.

The Multnomah County Board of Commissioners Finds:

- a) Multnomah County, during the period July 1, 1996 through June 30, 1997, has made sales of tax foreclosed real properties which have produced revenues of $1,166,245.25, and the County has incurred the sum of $595,969.70 for administration and maintenance of these properties and that the unexpended balance is $755,862.52
- b) Under the provision of ORS 275.275, refunding to the County's Tax Title Fund all expenditures incurred by the County in the maintenance and administration of such properties, the remaining proceeds from the sale of said properties are to be distributed to the various taxing districts in Multnomah County, Oregon

The Multnomah County Board of Commissioners Orders:

1. Expenditures in the sum of $595,969.70 are to be disbursed to Multnomah County's Tax Title Fund

MEMORANDUM

TO: BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

FROM: Elyse Clawson, Director
Department of Community Justice

DATE: April 10, 1998

SUBJECT: Approval of a Revenue Intergovernmental Agreement between the Oregon Youth Authority and the Department of Juvenile and Adult Community Justice to continue Gang Transition Services.

- I. RECOMMENDATION/ACTION REQUESTED: The Department of Juvenile and Adult Community Justice recommends the Board's approval of an Intergovernmental Revenue Agreement #700358 Amendment #1 with the State of Oregon to provide funding for the continuation of Gang Transition Services in 1998-99.
- II. BACKGROUND/ANALYSIS: This Agreement reflects the continuation of grant funds from the Oregon Youth Authority to Multnomah County for FY 1998/99. The County agrees to provide services directed to decrease youth gang-related incidents and gang membership in the Portland area.

Funding is used to provide services in three areas:

1. The Gang Resource Intervention Team (GRIT) administered by Juvenile Justice Services provides programs to improve on-street monitoring, close supervision of gang youth on probation and provides a 12-week course to assist the gang youth to develop better community skills, a sense of responsibility, anger management and value clarification.
2. The Assessment, Intervention, and Transition Program (AITP) operates a 30-day secure assessment and transition program in the Juvenile Justice Complex for youth at risk of violent crimes.
3. Community-based services for youth at risk of commitment to the OYA Youth Correctional Facility or returning to the community are provided through contracts with community providers.

- III. FINANCIAL IMPACT: This IGA provides $1,435,529 in revenue for FY 1998/99, which represents a 3% increase over last year's revenue. The 1998/99 Proposed Budget included revenues equal to the amount received in 1997/98. A technical amendment will be presented at the time of budget adoption to increase the 1998/99 Budget by the additional 3% provided.

- IV. LEGAL ISSUES: N/A

- V. CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES: N/A

- VI. LINK TO CURRENT COUNTY POLICIES: This Agreement addresses public safety issues as well as meeting gang involved/affected youths' needs through community and internally based programs.

- VII. CITIZEN PARTICIPATION: N/A

- VIII. OTHER GOVERNMENT PARTICIPATION: This Agreement is with the Oregon Youth Authority.

RE: REQUEST FOR DCJ #17 BUDGET MODIFICATION APPROVAL

- I. RECOMMENDATION/ACTION REQUESTED: Approve budget modification DCJ #17 for the Multnomah County Department of Community Justice to add $53,836 Revenue to the Department's Federal/State program.
- II. BACKGROUND/ANALYSIS: This modification adds $27,515 Casey Foundation revenue, $7,573 City of Portland Revenue, and $18,748 Metro revenue to the budget. Each of these revenues increases contracted services and covers its own Indirect Cost. The Casey revenue shifts dollars, budgeted in the new year, to current year in order to cover Defense Trail Assistant contracted services. The City and Metro revenues represent carryover funding from FY96-97 and increase the youth stipends in the Payback program's restitution services.
- III. FINANCIAL IMPACT: Any City and Metro revenue remaining at year end will be carried forward to the new year's Project Payback program. A technical amendment, adding additional Casey Foundation money to FY98-99, will reflect the net change of dollars shifted to FY97-98.
- IV. LEGAL ISSUES: N/A
- V. CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES: N/A
- VI. LINK TO CURRENT COUNTY POLICIES: N/A
- VII. CITIZEN PARTICIPATION: N/A
- VIII. OTHER GOVERNMENT PARTICIPATION: This funding represents state support to individual services needed by adjudicated youth who are in danger of further behavioral issues.

Re: Gresham Transit Oriented Development Policy

Date: May 20, 1998

Representatives from City of Gresham's Planning and community Development Department will be presenting Gresham's Transit Oriented Development (TOD) proposal at the May 21, 1998 board meeting. Gresham's former tax exemption program, which was limited to five years, and applied only to City property taxes and rental housing has expired. City staff are seeking Multnomah County's endorsement of the new proposed ordinance. Highlights of the proposal are detailed below. Please refer to page 5 of the cover fax for a summary of the major provisions of the proposal.

Potential Benefits of Proposed TOD

- Gresham's TOD is a development tool designed to encourage density and development that is transit supportive.
- The proposed TOD would further the goals of Gresham's Downtown and Civic Neighborhood plans by supporting quality mixed-use and for-sale projects in the Downtown District; and mixed-use, mixed-income projects in the Civic Neighborhood.
- Gresham has agreed to add special needs housing to the housing guidelines.
- Encouraging mixed income projects supports the development of affordable housing and is a reasonable strategy to de-concentrate poverty.
- Each project must address crime prevention through environmental design (CPTED), and must include a security program and a maintenance plan.
- In addition to any existing design review or development requirements, each project must also include at least one design element that benefits the general public.

Issues and Questions

- If County approves Gresham's TOD, it will forego revenue from property taxes. Arguments in favor of the exemption note that the higher quality design of developments approved under the proposed TOD will result in higher assessed values that are later brought onto the tax rolls. Will the applicants be required to demonstrate that the exemption is necessary for the projects to be economically feasible?

- The proposed TOD furthers Gresham Downtown and Civic Neighborhood plans, however, it does not specifically address County policy goals. Does the proposed benefit merit foregoing general fund dollars that would be used to serve Multnomah County clients? Should the County require a more direct link with County policy objectives to serve special needs and transit dependent populations (people with disabilities, elderly, large low-income families)?
- Ordinance stipulates that 20% to 40% of the units in each project be affordable for the term of the exemption. Will the low income housing units added as to comply with the exemption continue to exist beyond the life of the exemption?
- The TOD housing criteria indicates that city council may approve "other" projects that further the goals of the Downtown and Civic neighborhood plan districts. The approval process for these other projects is vague and could raise equity issues for projects applying for the exemption.
- Guidelines for mixed-income projects in the Civic Neighborhood stipulate that 60% to 80% of the units must be market rate and that the balance must be affordable to households at 60% of the median income. This housing mix meets the state threshold for low income housing tax credits. Will the proposed mix, however, allow projects in Gresham to be competitive for low income housing tax credits state-wide, given that projects in other jurisdictions permit a higher proportion of affordable units?
- Ordinance establishes a 40% maximum ceiling on the number of affordable units in any given project. Portland's TOD has no maximum ceiling. It appears that low income housing projects that have more than 40% of their units affordable will not be eligible for this exemption. This raises a concern for special needs populations, particularly people with disabilities.
- Gresham's proposal includes a radius of one-half mile from existing or planned light rail stations. Portland's policy covers the area within one-quarter mile. Does transit use data support expanding the radius to one-half mile?
- The proposed draft directs staff to recommend that the ordinance be extended to Central Rockwood within the next year. Should County support require extension of the TOD to Central Rockwood within the next year?
- Market rate variables need to be explored further. In some neighborhoods the market rate allows units to be affordable to residents at less than 100% of the median family income and contributes to Gresham's supply of affordable housing. Would it require a significant decrease in rent to make development in areas with a lower market rate affordable to those at 60% of the median family income? Are the rent savings for residents significant enough to merit the exemption?

Projected Costs

- The amount of property tax exempted or revenue forgone will vary depending on the number of units approved under the program.

- Based on Gresham's estimated property tax revenue impacts for the proposed 19 year duration of the program, the maximum amount of taxes forgone in any single year is approximately $457,300. This peak estimate is reached in the year 2007.
- Total property taxes forgone during the 19 year period is approximately $4.51 million.
- Forgone revenue for each year differs as new projects receive exemptions and the exemptions of existing projects expire. If we were to average the total amount forgone over the 19 years, the County would be investing approximately $237,600 general fund dollars each year.

Recommendation:

Weigh benefits of supporting Gresham's TOD against the reduction in funds to address County policy goals and priority programs. Seek parity in TOD partnerships between Multnomah County and the cities of Portland and Gresham. Request reasonable amendments to Gresham's proposed TOD.

Gresham Central Apartments
800 NE Roberts

Gresham Central Apartments set a new standard in thoughtful design for multi-family development in Gresham--and specifically as a design for use along the light rail and transit corridors. The 90-unit apartment building is located just blocks from Gresham's downtown, but adjacent to the MAX light rail line. The apartment building's developer realized the importance of being located next to MAX and took the extra steps to enhance the site by building a promenade/pocket park that is open to the public, even though it is maintained by the apartment complex. The developer is also situated the building so that it hides all of the parking inside, creating a pleasing aesthetic for the entire space. These enhancements raise the standards of development in multi-family units not only for Gresham, but for the entire program.

ITEM NO.:

TITLE: PUBLIC HEARING AND FIRST READING OF COUNCIL BILL NO. 23-97 CONCERNING "PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR NEW, TRANSIT SUPPORTIVE MULTIPLE-UNIT HOUSING OR MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT" BY AMENDING ARTICLE 10.50 (PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR NEW, MULTIPLE-UNIT RENTAL HOUSING) OF THE GRESHAM REVISED CODE (GRC)

ITEM: This is a public hearing and first reading of Council Bill 23-97 amending GRC Article 10.50 which allows Council approval of limited 10 year property tax exemption for qualified transit oriented multiple-unit residential or mixed use development. The amendments are necessitated by revisions to the State enabling legislation (ORS 307.600).

Staff recommends approval of the ordinance and first reading of Council Bill No. 23-97. Staff also recommends providing the Council with updates twice a year to help determine if the program is working effectively or needs modification or limitations on the number of projects or should be repealed. Staff also recommends including in the Rockwood Action Plan consideration of extending this program to Central Rockwood within the next year.

RECOMMENDED COUNCIL ACTION: Move to approve the first reading of Council Bill 23-97, based on the standards, findings, conclusions and recommendation stated in the staff report and move to direct staff to monitor the program and report back to Council every six months, and to include consideration of extending the program to Central Rockwood in the Rockwood Action Plan.

COUNCIL GOAL(S) NO.: Goal No. 5: MANAGE GROWTH AND CHANGE CONSISTENT WITH THE GRESHAM 2020 PLAN and Goal No. 8: PARTNER FOR A VARIETY OF JOB AND HOUSING OPPORTUNITIES.

MANAGEMENT PLAN: Core Business Function, Community Development Department (Long Range Planning) - Actively participate in the formulation of the 2040 Regional Framework Plan and develop measures to locally implement the requirements. Objective 2, Create incentive for development of pedestrian/transit friendly housing in downtown and along light rail transit by drafting transit tax exemption ordinance which meets applicable Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) provisions.

BUDGET IMPACT: 1) An application fee will be collected that is sufficient to cover City costs of administering the program as is allowed by ORS 307.600. It is expected that application will be processed by a consultant due to the specialized nature of the application. 2) Exemption of property taxes means revenue is not collected during the exemption period. Attachment 4 is a financial report which details the potential impact. The amount of property tax exempted or revenue foregone will vary depending on the number of units approved under the program. If 1,200 residential units and 200,000 square feet of commercial space receive exemption during the next 10 years, under the assumptions in Attachment 4, the total revenue foregone will be approximately $3,600,000 during the 19-year life of the program. This amount represents less than 1% of the total estimated property tax revenues over the same 19 year span.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR NEW TRANSIT SUPPORTIVE MULTIPLE-UNIT HOUSING OR MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT

Key Findings of Need:

1. Gresham lacks competitiveness in attracting desirable development in Eastside light rail station areas due to scarcity of re-development incentives, such as urban renewal. Property tax exemption is one tool available to Gresham. Portland, which adopted this program in October, 1996 and has used urban renewal around Lloyd Center, has approved the following three projects along the east side MAX line using their similar tax exemption program. It is also likely that similar property tax exemption programs will be adopted for areas along the new west side MAX line. Although the City incentive was ownership of the land "The Round" at Beaverton Central described below is an example of projects happening on the west side but not in Gresham.
 - 1) Russellville (102nd and Burnside) is a 282 unit project with all market rate units. It has a density of 36 units per acre and includes a meeting room for community organizations, public green space and day care center.
 - 2) Hazelwood (NE 122nd and NE Glisan) is a 119 unit elderly congregate care and mixed use development. It is at 68 dwelling units per acre and there is ground floor retail under the units. It is located at a shopping center site between a Safeway and Target store.
 - 3) Floyd Light (106th and Cherryblossom - Gateway District) is a 51 unit development with 40% being affordable units and 60% being market rate units. It includes public open space with covered seating.
 - 4) The Round at Beaverton Central is a mixed-use project that will surround the Beaverton Central Light Rail Station. It includes a civic plaza on both sides of the station, 150 town houses and apartments, a 50,000 square foot theatre center, 230,000 square feet of office and retail and a 100 room hotel. In this case the City incentive comes from owning the land.
2. The City of Portland program applies to the east side MAX line area up to the west Gresham city limits (162nd station). It exempts not just Portland property taxes but other applicable property taxes such as Multnomah County property taxes. Adoption of the program in Gresham would result in Multnomah County supporting not just projects in Portland but also in Gresham.
3. Projects must have an enhanced Crime Prevention Plan created in conjunction with the Police Department. This unique element helps neutralize the impact of foregone City taxes on services by reducing police services otherwise needed for the new development.
4. Projects must include design that benefits the public. Design benefits can include public plazas, community meeting rooms, and on-site day care open to the general public. Projects also must have good connections to transit facilities and have minimum densities that are transit supportive.
5. The proposed program supports redevelopment in Downtown by emphasizing quality mixed use and for-sale projects. It supports development of the Civic Neighborhood by emphasizing quality mixed use, for-sale, mixed income, high density and day care projects. The program also assists projects appropriate for a Regional Center. Under this program the City has more control of design and where these projects are located.
6. The Council may limit approval to those projects they determine support quality transit supportive land uses and which further the goals of the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Plan Districts.

7. Over time the projects, even with property taxes foregone, enhance the City. The public design benefits must extend beyond the life of the exemption. The higher quality design of residential and mixed use developments promoted under the program will result in higher assessed values brought onto the tax rolls. New residential development should result in retail development happening sooner rather than later in the downtown and civic neighborhoods.
8. The proposed program, by granting ten year exemptions and including other jurisdictions' (except education districts) property taxes, would: Increase the quality of developments (as they are tied to the dollar amount of the exemption), make mixed use and structured parking projects more feasible, and allow Gresham to be competitive with developments on the Portland portion of the MAX line.
9. If 1,200 residential units and 200,000 square feet of commercial space receive exemption over the ten years (under the assumption of Attachment 4) the total foregone revenue will be approximately $3,600,000 during the 19-year life of the program. This amount represents less than 1% of the total property taxes estimated to be collected during the same 19-year span.

Likewise, it is fair to assume that non-tax exempt projects will occur sooner, which may offset the taxes exempted by this proposal. An example of this is (using the same assumptions of Attachment 4): A mixed use development in the downtown of 85 residential units and 20,000 square feet of ground floor commercial space granted a tax exemption would have a yearly foregone City property tax revenue of $21,331. If this resulted in the sooner construction of a 50,000 square foot grocery store in the downtown that project would add $15,336 to City property tax revenue.

10. This proposal is one that results in private/public partnerships. The private side benefits by using the property tax exemption to build projects with design features and densities that otherwise they could not do. The public side benefits by locating these projects in the downtown and civic neighborhood and by having greater control of the design and public features of the projects.
11. Gresham's current program, which was limited to five years and applied only to City property taxes and rental housing, has expired. The Gresham Central Apartments, with a pedestrian promenade next to the MAX, was approved under this program.
12. State statutes now allow local jurisdictions to grant limited 10 year property tax exemption for mixed use ground floor commercial and residential housing projects; attached for-sale projects and residential parking structures as well as rental multiple-units projects. Projects must be located in transit oriented or city core areas. Projects under this program must be constructed by July 1, 2006.

Key Actions

- August, 1995. Council passes limited tax exemption intended to stimulate good multi-family development in the core areas of Downtown and Civic Neighborhood. One project, the Gresham Central Apartments, was approved for the limited property tax exemption. A public benefit provided by the 90 unit complex was a pedestrian promenade/plaza adjacent to the MAX line.
- 1995 State Legislation. Updated State statute to include for-sale and mixed use developments as well as rental multiple-unit housing and to extend to transit oriented areas as well as downtown core areas. To be effective July 1, 1997 and extends life of program for 10 years.
- October, 1996. City of Portland adopts ordinance to comply with revised State legislation. Utilizes model ordinance drafted by Tri-Met. Multnomah County endorses ordinance so that County property taxes are also exempt. Applies along east side MAX line up to Gresham City Limits.
- March 17, 1997. Project put on Long Range work program at a joint quarterly meeting. It is to amend 1995 ordinance allowing limited tax abatement (up to 10 years for improvement only) in order to stimulate higher intensity mixed use development and housing in close proximity to light rail transit.

- August 5, 1997. Council discusses three options: 1) continue the program by making technical changes required by State statutes; 2) continue the program, have stronger guidelines on housing and public design benefits and ask for Multnomah County endorsement; or 3) allow the program to expire. The Council passes a motion "To go with Option No. 2 to continue the program, have stronger guidelines on housing and public design benefits and ask for Multnomah County Endorsement."
- August to November, 1997. A Crime Prevention Plan requirement and design checklist drafted by Planning and Police staff. A development with good crime prevention design, a security program and maintenance plan will have less impact on Police Services and is strongly endorsed by the Police Chief. This helps address a concern that because (due to Measure 50) the property tax exemptions are foregone revenue that the program might affect the city's ability to provide police services to these new developments.
- November 4, 1997. A Council hearing was scheduled for this date. There was discussion concerning the housing option for affordable units. The proposal had one housing option that required a minimum of 20% and a maximum of 30% affordable units. A concern had been raised that 30% was too low and that with this provision Multnomah County might not support the ordinance. Without County support only the City portion of property tax can be exempted. Direction was to do further research and a motion was passed to continue the Public Hearing to January 6, 1998.
- January 6, 1998. Due to staff vacancy and new project concerning housing issues this hearing was continued to a date uncertain.
- Since 1-6-98. The proposal for the June 2, 1998 hearing has been revised since the 11-4-97 draft based on additional staff research. Staff discussed issues with State Housing & Community Services Department, researched relevant technical information and reviewed on-ground developments approved under Portland's ordinance. The conclusion is that mixed income developments can work with 60% to 80% of units being market rate and the balance being affordable to households at or below 60% of the median family income. Somewhat higher minimum densities are proposed to push the market as was suggested by Tri-Met. And projects that support the goals of the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Districts are to be emphasized.

ORDINANCE NO.

AN AMENDMENT TO GRESHAM REVISED CODE CHAPTER 10, BUILDINGS AND HOUSING, RELATING TO PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR NEW, TRANSIT SUPPORTIVE, MULTIPLE-UNIT HOUSING OR MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT.

THE CITY OF GRESHAM DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section I. Article 10.50 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is amended as follows:

Article 10.50. PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR NEW,
TRANSIT SUPPORTIVE, MULTIPLE-UNIT RENTAL
HOUSING OR MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT

Commentary

The State enabling legislation (ORS 307.600) for the City's current program allowed the property tax exemption only for locations in City "cores" and only for rental multiple-unit housing. In 1995 the legislation was amended to extend the program to areas located within a light rail station or transit oriented area. It was also amended to apply to multiple-unit "for-sale" as well as rental housing and to apply to ground floor commercial uses and structured parking developed as part of the qualifying multiple-unit housing. (The attached 1997 ORS 307.600 slightly amended the 1995 legislation).

A State legislative finding was that it is "in the public interest to promote private investment in transit supportive multiple-unit housing in light rail station areas and transit oriented areas in order to maximize Oregon's transit investment to the fullest extent possible."

In addition to the changes in the State legislation staff had looked at a model ordinance put together by Tri-Met and a recently adopted City of Portland ordinance which affects their east side light rail up to its border with Gresham.

Section 2. A new section 10.50.015 is added to Article 10.50 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code as follows:

10.50.015. Purpose.

The purposes of this property tax exemption are to encourage transit supportive multiple-unit housing and mixed use projects affordable to a broad range of the general public on vacant or underutilized sites within the City core and within walking distance of light rail or fixed route transit service, and to enhance the effectiveness of the light rail or fixed route transit service. It also requires design, public benefits and a crime prevention plan that efficiently uses and reduces fiscal demands on City facilities and services.

The property tax exemption permitted by this article is intended to benefit projects that emphasize:

(1) The development of vacant or underutilized sites in light rail station areas, transit oriented areas or core areas, rather than sites where sound or rehabilitatable multiple-unit housing exists.

(2) The development of multiple-unit housing, with or without parking, in structures that may include ground level commercial space.

(3) The development of multiple-unit housing, with or without parking, on sites with existing single-story commercial structures.

(4) The development of multiple-unit housing, with or without parking, on existing surface parking lots.

Section 3. A new section 10.50.025 is added to Article 10.50 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code as follows:

Having a purpose statement is a way of relating the City ordinance to the State legislation as it was amended in 1995 as well as to local goals. ORS 307.600.1 & 2 applies the exemption program to "transit supportive multiple-unit housing" in City cores, light rail station areas and transit oriented areas. Also, the ordinance will promote, through provisions such as the Crime Prevention Plan and the proximity to the existing light rail and other transit, more efficient use of existing public facilities and services than might occur with different designs at the same or different locations. For example, increased transit ridership reduces automobile trips and the impact on streets. Also, the crime prevention plan will result in design and security that by reducing crime incidents will reduce the need for Police responses.

ORS 307.600.3 is a list of the types of projects that can qualify for exemption. The list follows below.

ORS 307.600.3.a: development should occur on vacant/underutilized land and preserve sound existing housing.

ORS 307.600.3.b: promotes mixed use retail and housing development.

ORS 307.600.3.c: underutilized sites can be a commercially developed site.

ORS 307.600.3.d: underutilized sites can be an existing parking lot.

10.50.025. Definitions.

For purposes of this article the following mean:

Affordable rent. The rental rate and utilities paid by renter do not exceed 30% of the monthly gross income for a family.

Area median family income. The annual income for the Portland Metropolitan Area for a family of one person (for a studio apartment), two persons (for a one bedroom apartment), three persons (for a two bedroom apartment), or four persons (for a three bedroom apartment) as determined annually by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development or its successor agency.

Light rail station area. An area defined in regional or local transportation plans to be within a one-half mile radius of an existing or planned light rail station.

Market rental rate. The rent stated in the most recent McGregor Millette Report, or its successor, for "seasoned" units for Gresham/Troutdale.

Median purchase price. The sale price listed for a condominium unit or a single-family attached dwelling (whichever is proposed) in Multnomah County as established by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for the purpose of determining FHA loan qualification.

Transit oriented area. An area defined in regional or local transportation plans to be within one-quarter mile of a fixed route transit service.

Section 4. Section 10.50.010 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

10.50.040035. Eligible Property Projects.

To be an eligible project for the property tax exemption provided for by this article, a structure project must meet all of the following criteria:

This definition of measurement of household income is a technical standard used in the City of Portland's Transit Oriented Tax Exemption program and in Gresham's recent housing policy study.

This definition of measurement of area median family income is a technical standard used in the City of Portland's Transit Oriented Tax Exemption program and in Gresham's recent housing policy study.

This definition is in ORS 307.605.2. Much of the Civic Neighborhood and Downtown Plan District areas are in a light rail station area.

This definition of market rental rate is a technical standard suggested by Gresham's recent housing policy study.

This definition of median purchase price is a technical standard used in the City of Portland's Transit Oriented Tax Exemption program and in Gresham's recent housing policy study. Home owner units can be either condominiums or single-family attached dwellings (row houses) which are on their own lot.

Definition is in ORS 307.605.4.

For clarity this existing section is broken into the types of projects (10.50.035) and the location of projects (10.50.055) that can qualify for the exemption.

(1) ~~Be a multiple-unit housing structure having ten or more rental dwelling units that include design elements benefiting the general public as described in this article and approved by the council, including newly construction constructed structures, stories and other additions to existing structures and structures converted in whole or part from other uses, but not designed, used or intended to be used as transient accommodations, hotels or motels. Multiple-unit housing may be in structures which include ground level commercial uses.~~

(2) ~~Be constructed after July 1, 1975, and completed on or before January 1, 1998; and The project may not be designed, used or intended to be used as transient accommodations, hotels or motels.~~

(3) ~~Be located within the described area shown on the attached Map A. The project may or may not include structured parking.~~

(4) ~~Demonstrate that property tax abatement is required to achieve economic feasibility for the residential use intended. For projects which do not include ground level commercial uses, the minimum residential density shall be 35 rental or 24 for-sale dwelling units per net acre; or the minimum density for the land use district, whichever is greater. If the project encompasses different land use districts, the overall project density shall be at least 35 rental or 24 for-sale dwelling units per net acre and meet the minimum densities of each land use district.~~

(5) ~~For mixed use projects containing ground level commercial uses the minimum commercial density shall be a 0.25 floor area ratio and the minimum residential density shall be 20 rental or 18 for-sale dwelling units per net acre; or the minimum density for the land use district, whichever is greater. If the project encompasses different land use districts, the overall project density shall be at least a 0.25 commercial floor area ratio and 20 rental or 18 for-sale dwelling units per net acre and meet the minimum densities of each land use district. Minimum commercial density is only required if the minimum density required for subsection (4) above is not met.~~

(6) ~~The project shall meet the approval criteria of 10.50.045.~~

ORS 307.600 allows the program to be for both rental and for-sale units.

Added language is from the definition of multiple-unit housing in ORS 307.605 and provides the housing added to an existing structure can be qualified for the property tax exemption.

Ground level commercial is allowed by ORS 307.600.3.

Requirement of ORS 307.605.3.b.

Parking as part of the project allowed by ORS 307.600.3.

ORS 307.610.4.e requires the City to set standards and guidelines for a "minimum number of units." The proposed standards set a minimum density threshold that is needed to be transit supportive and to support the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood goals for higher density residential and mixed use development. Tri-Met's Planning and Design for Transit Handbook (January 1996) suggests a feasible minimum density of 30 dwelling units per acre, 0.5 floor area ratio for commercial and 1.0 floor area for office. Tri-Met also suggests that a minimum of 24 dwelling units per acre is transit supportive near light rail stations. The Gresham Central Apartments, which were granted tax exemption under the old program, are at 32 dwelling units per acre. The slightly higher proposal of 35 dwelling units per acre (for rentals) is suggested because the tax exemption should work as an incentive for higher density than market alone might achieve. A lower number of 24 dwelling units per acre is suggested for for-sale projects as often those units are larger and thus at a lower density. The proposed mixed use minimum for commercial and residential densities will achieve similar densities as the stand alone residential projects with the fewer households replaced with employment. The proposed density standards are similar to those required under Portland's transit oriented tax exemption program.

Cross reference to the approval criteria.

(7) The eligible project shall be constructed, added or converted after May 5, 1998, and completed on or before January 1, 2006.

Section 5. Section 10.50.050 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

10.50.050045. Approval Criteria.

An application may be approved only if the reviewing body finds that the eligible project:

(1) Includes a Crime Prevention Plan which has been reviewed and recommended by the Police Department. The Crime Prevention Plan shall incorporate components to enhance safety and security as detailed in the Crime Prevention Plan Criteria and Standards Checklist Document. The Document shall be maintained in the Police and Community Development Departments and shall be used as the basis for and to assist in the development of the Crime Prevention Plan. The Crime Prevention Plan shall be in addition to requirements of the Standards volume of the Community Development Plan. The Crime Prevention Plan shall include project design which incorporates enhanced Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED); a project security program which provides for enhanced security on site and on adjacent public streets and transit facilities; and a maintenance plan for continued success of the Crime Prevention Plan; and

(12) ~~The construction~~ Includes one or more design elements specified in and complies with section 10.50.040085; and

(23) ~~The construction project w~~Will, at the time of completion, conform with the provisions of the Gresham Community Development Plan, and other applicable ordinances. Applicable permits shall be obtained before the tax exemption takes place; and

(4) Demonstrates that property tax exemption is required to achieve economic feasibility for the residential or mixed use, taking into account the additional costs incurred

The 1995 State legislation extended the date of this program (ORS 307.691).

This provision requires the developer to work with the Police Department to develop a Crime Prevention Plan. A Crime Prevention Plan will include both Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) features, an active security program and a maintenance plan. A separate document (which is included in the hearing packet) has detailed criteria and a checklist of possible design, management and maintenance responses that an applicant can include in their Crime Prevention Plan. The document will be used as a template for the Crime Prevention Plan and to evaluate specific proposals and highlight missing features. The document incorporates current techniques in Crime Prevention as reported in reference materials such as Safe Cities, Guidelines for Planning, Design and Management (Gerda R. Wekerle & Carolyn Whitzman, 1995) and Physical Environment and Crime (U.S. National Institute of Crime, May, 1996).

Having a Crime Prevention Plan that uses appropriate site design and building management is intended to increase security and decrease crime. This in turn will decrease police resources that would otherwise be expected for the new residential and mixed use development that is encouraged under this tax exemption program

This references the design elements which is a requirement of ORS 307.605.3.c.

ORS 307.650(2) requires that the project is, or will be, at the time of construction, in conformance with all local plans and planning regulations, including special or district-wide plans that are applicable at the time the application for tax exemption is approved. Obtaining permits will be a condition of approval.

ORS 307.610.3 requires a determination that multiple-unit housing which meets the qualifications regarding required design and by the design elements, crime prevention plan and housing facilities required in return for the exemption incentive allowed by the article; and

(5) Includes housing that complies with article 10.50.095; and

(6) Is physically or functionally related to a light rail line or mass transportation system and enhances the effectiveness of a light rail line or mass transportation system; and

(7) Justifies the elimination of, or provides a plan for the relocation of existing sound or rehabilitable housing, if any; and

(38) ~~The applicant shall comply~~ Complies with all requirements of this article.

Section 6. A new section 10.50.055 is added to Article 10.50 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code as follows:

10.50.055. Eligible Sites.

Eligible sites must be within the described area shown on the attached Map A and within the following land use districts:

public benefits would not otherwise be built in the designated area without the exemption. The added language clarifies that the intent is to promote not just the housing but the housing with design and public benefits. An applicant does not have to prove that a certain number of units can only be built if the exemption is granted but that the certain number of units with the design and housing elements required by this Article can only be built with the exemption.

References the requirement that the program provide housing for a broad range of the general public in ORS 307.600.4.

This language is in ORS 307.605.3.d. and stresses the development is supportive of transit.

This is a requirement in ORS 307.610.4.a.

The City's current regulations apply to the City's "core" – the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Districts – as was provided for in the State legislation. The 1995 State legislative amendments extended the program to light rail stations and transit oriented areas. The Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Districts are designated as a Regional Center on the Region 2040 Growth Concept Map. Both areas are served by light rail stations and by transit streets. Two new areas are added to Map A: HDR-60 parcels on the north side of Division Street and TD parcels on the east side of Eastman Parkway. The sites are located on transit streets and are within 1/4 mile of a light rail stop and are also within the 2040 Regional Center designation. Both Districts are transit supportive. The HDR-60 allows high density residential (60 units per acre) and ground floor commercial uses. The TD allows high density residential (42 units per acre) and high density commercial (1.0 Floor Area Ratio).

(1) In the Downtown Plan District except that sites in the DR-12 subdistrict are not eligible.

(2) In the Civic Neighborhood Plan District.

(3) In the Transit Development District.

(4) In the High Density Residential-60 District.

The city shall periodically review the areas eligible for the exemption granted to transit supportive development in response to transportation and/or comprehensive planning and policy initiatives which indicate the need to encourage desired development in other light rail station areas or transit oriented areas as defined in this article.

Section 7. A new section 10.50.065 is added to Article 10.50 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code as follows:

10.50.065. Pre-Application Conference.

(1) A mandatory pre-application conference is required prior to submission of an application.

(2) The applicant shall submit to the manager the following:

(a) Pre-application conference fee established by council resolution.

Map A includes all of the Downtown Plan District. This section excludes the DR-12 subdistrict because the maximum 12 units per acre density allowed in this subdistrict is not enough to be considered transit oriented. This amends the existing Map A which included DR-12.

Map A includes all of the Civic Neighborhood District. The current Map A includes all of the Civic Neighborhood District.

Map A is amended to include the following TD parcels that are located on the east side of Eastman Parkway: 1S3E4DD #100, #101, #200, #300, #400, #500, #600, #700, #800, #900, #1000, #1100, #1200, #1300, #1400, #1500, and #1600. These parcels are contiguous and located within 1/4 mile of a light rail stop and within the 2040 Regional Center designation.

Map A is amended to include the following HDR-60 parcels that are located on the north side of Division Street: 1S3E3CD #1400, #1600, #1601, #1602, #1603, #1700, #1800, #1900, #2600, #2700, and #2800. These parcels are contiguous and located within 1/4 mile of a light rail stop and within the 2040 Regional Center designation.

ORS 307.610.2 allows new areas to be added. In the future areas within Central Rockwood (for example, around the light rail stops) could be added.

A pre-application conference would be mandated because the exemption process is rather unique and complicated.

Rather than specify fees in the Article the fee will be specified by separate council resolution. This is the City's standard practice for fees and allows the fees to be adjusted without amending the Article.

(b) Ten copies of a preliminary site plan, drawn to scale, including existing structures and the major features and dimensions of the proposed development and its location.

The map requirement is similar as is required for a development pre-application conference.

(c) Ten copies of a narrative statement describing the proposal. Useful information to include would be:

The section requires a narrative and lists those items that would be useful in obtaining City feedback but recognizes that an applicant may not know what they want to do and may be "off the street."

(i) the number, size and type of individual dwelling units;

(ii) the size of structured parking, if any;

(iii) the size and type of ground floor commercial, if any;

(iv) a preliminary pro forma showing expected rents or purchase prices of the dwelling units;

(v) a description of the design elements proposed;

(vi) its physical and functional connection to the nearest transit service;

(vii) any additional information that would demonstrate the eligibility of the project for the property tax exemption.

(3) The conference shall be held within 20 days of the request, if all of the requirements of subsection (2) above are met.

20 days is the timeline for development permit pre-application conferences.

(4) The purpose of the pre-application conference is to acquaint the applicant with the provisions of this article. Prior to the meeting, the manager shall review the information provided and contact, for the purposes of facilitating the application process, other agencies which may be affected by, or have an interest in, the proposed development.

A pre-application conference is an identification of issues and is not a review. Other agencies that might benefit the project at pre-application time could include Tri-Met, DES, and Housing.

(5) The manager shall provide the applicant a written summary of the conference within 30 working days of the conference. The summary shall include the recommendations designed to assist the applicant in the preparation of the exemption application.

Section 8. Section 10.50.020 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

10.50.020075. Application Procedure.

A person seeking an exemption under this article, shall apply to the manager not later than ~~September~~ February 1 of the calendar year immediately prior to the first assessment year for which the exemption is requested. The application for the exemption shall be on forms prescribed by the manager and include the applicable fee and deposit established by council resolution and ten copies of the following information:

(1) The applicant's name, address and telephone number;

(2) A legal description of the property and property account number;

(3) A description of the existing use of the property, including a justification for the elimination of, or a plan for the relocation of existing sound or rehabilitatable housing located on the property;

(4) A site plan and supporting drawings, drawn to a minimum scale of one inch equals 50 feet, which shows the development plan of the entire project, streets, driveways, sidewalks, pedestrian ways, off-street parking and loading areas, location, dimension and elevation of structures, use of land and structures, and major landscaping features and design of structures;

(5) A description of the project, setting forth the grounds supporting the requested exemption and consistency with the approval criteria of 10.50.045, including the number, size, and type of dwelling units, including bedroom mix; intended occupancy of the units; type of construction; expected rents or purchase prices of the dwelling units; and other uses of the structure if a

The data requirements are intended to provide the information that will be necessary to show compliance with the approval criteria. The deadline is set by ORS 307.640.

Rather than specify fees in the Article the fee will be specified by separate council resolution. This is the City's standard practice for fees and allows the fees to be adjusted without amending the Article.

ORS 307.600.4 amended the State legislation so that for-sale units are an eligible form of housing.

ORS 307.600 added parking as an eligible improvement.

mixed-use structure is planned or if structured parking is planned; and any additional information that would demonstrate the eligibility of the project for the property tax exemption, including its physical or functional connection to the nearest transit service;

(6) The Crime Prevention Plan recommended by the Police Department;

(67) A description including drawings of the public benefits design elements which the applicant proposes to include in the project;

(78) Information on the construction costs, sources of financing for the housing, operating cost and income analysis and other information required by the city to demonstrate the applicant's economic need for the tax exemption including a copy copies of any bank letter of all financing commitments relating to the project; and

(89) Any other information required by state or local law or requested by the city.

Section 9. Section 10.50.030 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is repealed as follows:

10.50.030. Application Fee Repealed.

~~Concurrent with the submission of the application, an application fee of $1,200 shall be required. In addition to the application fee, the applicant may be required to pay such other reasonable costs, including appraisal costs, incurred by the county assessor in processing the application. The manager shall collect any additional cost and pay the assessor the additional costs.~~

ORS 307.605 added a requirement for the physical or functional connection when the project is within a light rail station area or transit oriented area.

Design elements are required by ORS 307.605. and 307.610.

Rather than specify fees in the Article the fee will be specified by separate council resolution. This is the City's standard practice for fees and allows the fees to be adjusted without amending the Article.

Section 10. Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

10.50.040085. Public Benefits Design Elements.

A project must include one or more of the following design elements benefiting the general public. Design elements required under the Gresham Community Development Plan regulations cannot be used to satisfy this standard. In order to qualify for the exemption in this article, an applicant must agree to include in the project a public benefit which may consist of, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:

~~(1) Rental units at rental rates which are accessible to a broad income range of the general public;~~

~~(2) Parks and recreational facilities or publicly accessible open spaces such as a landscaped plaza or public urban plaza; or~~

~~(3) Open spaces; Public common office space or~~

~~(4) Public meeting rooms for community organizations; or~~

~~(5) On-site day care facilities available to general public; or~~

~~(6) Facilities supportive of light rail transit use such as, but not limited to, plazas, shuttles and improved pedestrian access; Transit facilities and transit or pedestrian design elements such as benches, bus shelters, directional signs, or an off-site improved public walkway connecting the project to the nearest transit stop or station; or~~

~~(7) Ground floor service or commercial use which is permitted and needed at the project but not available for economic reasons; serves project residents, neighboring residents and employees, transit riders and visitors. If in a structure separate from the multiple-unit housing the service or commercial use must be on the~~

ORS 307.610.4 requires the City to promulgate standards and guidelines governing the basic requirements for, among other things, design elements. ORS 307.650.1 states "include one or more of the following design elements benefiting the general public." What follows are those listed design elements and basic guidelines or examples to provide direction for the applicant and the Council.

The language "parks and recreational facilities and open spaces" is in ORS 307.650.1. The downtown and civic neighborhood areas can benefit from public open space areas.

The language "common meeting rooms" is in ORS 307.650.1. Public common office spaces or rooms can be used by community groups, charitable groups, etc. and support the vitality of the neighborhood.

The language "day care facilities" is in ORS 307.650.1. On-site day care which is open to the general public supports mixed use development which is appropriate for a transit oriented area. It also supports households living at the site by reducing travel time and costs associated with off-site day care.

The language "transit amenities and transit or pedestrian design elements" is in ORS 307.650.1. These types of facilities make it easier to reach and use transit and thus encourage transit use.

Mixed use residential and commercial projects are either vertically mixed or horizontally mixed. A vertical mix means that they are in the same building with the ground floor on the bottom and residential above. A horizontal mix means that residential and commercial are in separate buildings. The buildings can be side by side or connected by a pedestrian facility to help ensure same site and clearly integrated with the multiple-unit housing and connected to multiple-unit housing by a pedestrian facility. The proposed use must be a transit supportive use and shall not be an auto-dependent use or drive through use. Transit supportive use, auto-dependent use and drive through use mean as defined in Section 1.0500 of Volume 4 of the Gresham Community Development Plan. Floor area of ground floor commercial uses in a separate structure than can qualify for the property tax exemption shall be no more than a floor area equal to 0.5 of the residential floor area; or

~~_____ (8) _____ Dedication for public use; or~~

~~(96) Other design elements benefiting the public benefits approved by the planning commission and the council.~~

The council shall specify the design elements benefiting the public benefit which is to be included in the proposed project. If the applicant fails to agree to include the design elements benefiting the public benefit as specified by the council, the application shall be denied. The council shall also find that the public benefits from the project extend beyond the period of the exemption.

Section 11. A new section 10.50.095 is added to Article 10.50 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code as follows:

10.50.095. Housing

A purpose of this Article is to ensure the construction, addition or conversion of dwelling units at rental rates or for-sale rates which are accessible to a broad range of the general public. In addition, it is intended to stimulate developments that further the City's visions of the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Plan District areas as mixed use, pedestrian oriented and transit supportive districts. The City's 2020 Vision envisions these areas as mixed use residential and commercial with a high density downtown core. And it is intended to help advance the area that the commercial is clearly integrated with the residential. Projects can have both vertical and horizontal mixing. Qualifying commercial uses in separate structures should be similar to what would occur in a vertical mixed use development. Hence, the uses shall not be auto-dependent such as a car wash or a drive through use such as a drive through fast food place. The limit on how much commercial floor area can qualify for the property tax exemption when in a separate structure is directly related to the residential floor area and is similar to the floor area that might occur when the commercial and residential are in the same structure.

This language from the existing City ordinance provides no guidance. Dedication to accomplish one of the design elements listed in the section would be implicitly included in determining the public benefit calculation.

This allows market changes in which other design elements that also have a public benefit can be proposed and approved by the Council. As will be noted later in this document it is suggested that Planning Commission action is not needed.

ORS 307.610.4. requires that the city "shall promulgate standards and guidelines to be utilized in considering applications and making determinations to establish basic requirements" for a number of listed items. That the public benefit extend beyond the period of exemption is one of those requirements (ORS 307.610.4.d).

Required by ORS 307.600.4 and by 307.610(4)(c).

The State statute requires that the program result in development of units "accessible to a broad range of the general public." It also requires establishing guidelines and standards for governing basic requirements for "rental rates or sales prices." [ORS 307.600.4 and by 307.6510(4) (c).]

The area affected by this Article (as shown on Map A of the Article) encompasses the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Plan Districts. The Plan districts were the result of an intensive planning as a Region 2040 Growth Concept regional center. As a regional center, the area is the focus of compact development and a high quality transit service and multimodal street network. The recommended density of housing and employment is 60 persons per acre.

In order to accomplish these purposes, the following project descriptions shall provide guiding principals for proposed projects to address:

(1) In eligible sites (section 10.50.055) in the Downtown Plan District the following projects shall be emphasized.

(A) Mixed use projects that include ground floor service and commercial uses and residential housing that are consistent with the ground floor commercial design features of section 10.50.085.

(B) Home ownership projects that contain dwelling units for individual purchase. Such projects will include within the project and for the term of the exemption at least 20% of the units available at an initial purchase process. A primary purpose of the Downtown Plan District was to carry out the 2020 Vision and Final Gresham 2020 Action Plan. An objective was to "provide for mixed-use zoning promoting residential use within commercial buildings" with a guiding principal to "Permit and encourage the mixing of residential and commercial uses in all areas." The Civic Neighborhood Plan District, also inspired by the 2020 Vision, is planned as a super-block that will "maximize potential transit ridership through an appropriate mix and density of uses." Land use objectives included development at densities that can capitalize on the light rail and bus services with a compatible mix of land uses and with a civic urban character. The two plan districts are consistent with the fact that the Map A area is one of nine planned regional centers in the Portland Metro area.

Below are a number of project descriptions that promote a variety of housing types and features for a "broad range of the general public." Additionally these projects will advance redevelopment of the Downtown and development of the Civic Neighborhood. Over time, as these transit oriented areas develop, these provisions should both encourage a mix and be flexible in allowing needed housing.

Some of these guidelines have been adapted from the City of Portland which adopted a Transit Oriented Tax Exemption program along the east side light rail up to its border with Gresham in October, 1996.

In the Downtown emphasized projects are mixed use commercial and housing and for-sale housing.

Mixed use projects include rental and/or for-sale housing and ground floor commercial uses. It is authorized by the State statute and is a goal of the Downtown Plan District. There have been a number of successful mixed use developments constructed on east side Portland in the last few years. One example is Belmont Dairy (SE Portland) that includes affordable rental units (for 60% or less of median family income), market rate units, structured parking and 26,000 square feet of ground floor commercial including a grocery store.

A change to the State statute in 1995 was to allow for-sale attached units be qualify for the exemption. The provision encourage a mix of incomes by requiring some the units to be affordable to households at or below 100% of the median family price which does not exceed 95% of the median purchase price for a condominium or single-family attached dwelling (row house) unit in Multnomah County. The unit must be sold to a household earning no more than 100% of the area median family income for a family of four as established by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, or its successor agency, during the year of sale. In order to qualify for the tax exemption, such units must be owner-occupied during the term of exemption. Should any unit become available during the term of exemption, it must be sold to a household earning no more than 100% of the area median family income during the year of sale in order to retain its property tax exempt status.

(C) Special needs housing projects with units dedicated during the term of the exemption by covenant to households which include persons with special needs, such as mentally or physically disabled or other categories of persons as defined by the Federal Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988 (or successors).

(2) In eligible sites (section 10.50.055) in the Civic Neighborhood Plan District and the High Density Residential-60 and Transit Development Districts the following shall be emphasized.

(A) Mixed use projects that include ground floor service and commercial uses and residential housing that are consistent with the ground floor commercial design feature of section 10.50.085.

(B) Home ownership projects that contain dwelling units for individual purchase. Such projects will include within the project and for the term of the exemption at least 20% of the units available at an initial purchase price which does not exceed 95% of the median purchase price for a condominium or single-family attached dwelling (row house) unit in Multnomah County. The unit must be sold to a household earning no more than 100% of the area median family income for a family of four as established by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, income. This provision is consistent with the City's Home Ownership Housing Policy. It is similar to a provision in Portland's ordinance.

Tri-Met's model ordinance noted that the for-sale housing would have a maximum purchase price of $111,000 for a family of four in 1996-7.

Special needs housing is promoted by the Housing Policy. An example of a special needs project is Gresham Supportive Housing, a 23-unit apartment serving severe mobility impaired residents, typified by quadriplegia and paraplegia. They are located a block from the downtown MAX station so that residents would have access to the light rail line.

Projects in the Civic Neighborhood and high density parcels in the Regional Center shall emphasize a variety of projects that should result in a wide range of available housing. Projects emphasized are mixed use, for-sale, mixed income; higher density and residential with on site day care.

Mixed use projects include rental and/or for-sale housing and ground floor commercial uses. It is authorized by the State statute and is a goal of the Civic Neighborhood Plan District. A project approved under Portland's transit oriented exemption program is the Hazelwood development. It is providing 119 mixed income elderly housing units over ground floor retail. The housing units are located between a department store and grocery store. Tenants are able to take an elevator to the ground level and travel under a covered walk to the stores.

A change to the State statute in 1995 was to allow for-sale attached units to qualify for the exemption. The provision encourages a mix of incomes by requiring some the units to be affordable to households at or below 100% of the median family income. This provision is consistent with the City's Home Ownership Housing Policy. It is similar to a provision in Portland's ordinance.

or its successor agency, during the year of sale. In order to qualify for the tax exemption, such units must be owner-occupied during the term of exemption. Should any unit become available during the term of exemption, it must be sold to a household earning no more than 100% of the area median family income during the year of sale in order to retain its property tax exempt status.

(C) Special needs housing projects with units dedicated during the term of the exemption by covenant to households which include persons with special needs, such as mentally or physically disabled or other categories of persons as defined by the Federal Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988 (or successors).

(D) Mixed income rental projects that include a mix of both market rate and assisted units. In a mixed income rental project a minimum of 60% but no more than 80% of the units shall be market rate units. The balance on the units shall for the term of the exemption include units for rent at rates which are affordable to households earning 60% or less of the area median family income or 10% below the market rental rate, whichever is less. The units must be rented to households whose incomes do not exceed 60% of the area median income upon initial occupancy of the unit. Subsequent monitoring of the incomes of these households is not required until the affordable unit again becomes available for rent, at which time it must be rented to an income qualified household earning 60% of the area median family income for the remaining term of the property tax exemption, unless another unit has subsequently been rented at an equivalent affordable rate to a qualified household so that the project continues to comply with all provisions of this article.

(E) Mixed rental units and units for individual purchase projects follow the guiding principals for rental and home ownership as provided in subsections (B) and (C) above;

(F) Higher density residential projects that have a unit per acre density of at least 50 units per net acre

Special needs housing is promoted by the Housing Policy. An example of a special needs project is Gresham Supportive Housing, a 23-unit apartment serving severe mobility impaired residents, typified by quadriplegia and paraplegia. They are located a block from the downtown MAX station so that residents would have access to the light rail line.

Mixed income projects have both market rate units and affordable units. Projects that have 60% to 80% market rate with the balance being affordable to households at or less than 60% of the median family income can take advantage of State tax credit programs. Mixed income housing developments can help avoid concentrations of poverty and provide benefits to lower income households through role models, higher quality housing and amenities and informal job networking. A minimum number of market rate units helps ensure that project will be a successful mixed income project. Recent projects in east side Portland show mixed income projects as being feasible.

Having a minimum and maximum helps ensure that there will be a mix of income ranges within the City's transit oriented areas.

A minimum of 20%, such as Portland's ordinance has, will result in a reasonable number of new affordable units.

Some development may want to have both rental and for-sale units.

Density is transit supportive by providing a customer base for the transit facility as well as for the mixed uses desired in transit oriented areas. A larger number of units should also provide more housing for a broad range of the general public.

Generally the densest developments in Gresham have been 24 to 32 units per acre. Much of the zoning around the rail stations allows 60 units or more per acre. Fifty is a little more than 80% of 60. The 80% figure is suggested by Tri-Met's model

(G) Market rate rental projects that have on-site day care facilities available to the general public. A project that uses this provision for consistency with 10.50.095 shall not use the day care facility to be consistent with the required design elements of 10.50.085.

(3) The Council may approve other projects which the Council finds:

(A) Results in the construction, addition or conversion of dwelling units at rental rates or for-sale rates which are accessible to a broad range of the general public and

(B) Supports the goals of the Downtown or Civic Neighborhood Plan Districts.

(4) All projects must meet the minimum residential and commercial density requirements of section 10.50.035.

Section 12. Section 10.50.060 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

10.50.060105. Review of Application.

(1) Within 60 days from the date the application is filed, the manager shall review the application for completeness, compliance with the approval criteria of section 10.50.050045, economic feasibility and recommend to the ~~planning commission~~ council that the application be approved, denied, or approved subject to conditions.

~~(2) Within 60 days of the recommendation of the manager, the planning commission shall review the~~ ordinance and by Portland Ordinance.

This section would only be applicable to the TDM-C, TDH-C and HDR-C in Civic Neighborhood – none of these districts has a maximum density and the CUC and DT in the Downtown District – the CUC has no maximum and the DT has a 60 dwelling unit per acre maximum and the HDR-60 which has a 60 dwelling unit per acre maximum.

On-site day care assists households in obtaining work and education by reducing travel time and costs of day care. On-site day care can satisfy either housing or design elements but not both.

They may be other projects that are not described above but which will both promote the objective of dwelling units accessible to a broad range of the general public and the goals of the Downtown or Civic Neighborhood Districts. The provision will allow the Council the flexibility to recognize and approve projects that are innovative and unique.

This a cross reference to the minimum density requirements of all projects.

Generally the Planning Commission is involved in land use decisions. This Article is not a land use decision. Originally it was suggested that the Planning Commission review the application to determine if it would likely meet land use standards. This step can be accomplished by staff recommendation and by requiring (see 10.50.035.2 earlier) that permits be obtained before the development can proceed and the exemption applied. Eliminating the Planning Commission step will save time and resources for the applicant and City staff and leave more time for the Planning Commission to deal with Planning policy issues.

~~application to determine whether the proposed development is consistent with the Gresham Community Development Plan. A recommendation shall be forwarded to the council that the application be approved, denied, or approved subject to those conditions necessary to achieve the purposes of this article.~~

(32) The council shall review the application within 180 days of the date of application and approve, deny, or approve subject to conditions. Copies of the application shall be supplied to the council at least 14 days prior to council consideration. Final action upon the application shall be in the form of a resolution that shall include: the owner's name and address; a description of the subject multiple-unit housing; the legal description of the property and the county assessor's property account number, and all conditions imposed and upon which approval of the application is based.

(43) If the application is denied, a notice of denial shall be sent to the applicant, at the applicant's last known address, within 10 days following the denial. The notice shall state the reasons for denial.

(54) If the application is approved, the manager shall, on or before the ensuing April 1, file with the county assessor a copy of the ordinance or resolution approving the application.

Section 13. Section 10.50.070 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

10.50.070115. Exemption Duration and Exclusions.

~~Except as provided for under section 10.50.080, multiple-unit housing.~~ (1) An eligible project for which an exemption has been approved under this article shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation for ~~no more than 10~~ successive years. The total duration for tax exemption shall not exceed 10 successive years.~~

Section 15. Section 10.50.090 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

This language is from ORS 307.630.3.b.

This existing language provided for a five year tax exemption period with additional five years if the applicant demonstrated an economic need. ORS 307.630.1 allows the exemption from ad valorem taxation for no more than 10 years.

Deleting this section provides for a ten year exemption period. A straight ten year program is proposed because it provides more certainty for a developer and thus the incentive to use this program as envisioned; the five year renewal causes unnecessary administrative costs both for the City and for the developer; and a ten year period (as opposed to five) means that the applicant will need to provide more benefit to the public.

(1) The notice shall state the reasons for the proposed termination, and shall require the owner to appear before the council at a specified time, not less than 20 days after mailing the notice, to show cause, if any, why the exemption should not be terminated.

(2) If the owner fails to appear and show cause why the exemption should not be terminated, the manager shall further notify every known lender and shall allow the lender a period of not less than 30 days, beginning with the date that the notice of failure to appear and show cause is mailed to the lender, to cure any noncompliance or to provide assurance that is adequate, as determined by the council, to assure the council that the noncompliance will be remedied.

(23) ~~If the owner does not fails to appear or appears and fails to show cause why the exemption should not be terminated, and a lender fails to cure or give adequate assurance that any noncompliance will be cured,~~ the council will adopt a resolution terminating the exemption. (34) If the owner does not seek review of the termination of an exemption pursuant to ORS 34.010 to 34.100, upon final adjudication, the county officials having possession of the assessment and tax rolls shall correct the rolls in the manner provided for omitted property under ORS 311.216 to 311.232, to provide for the assessment and taxation of any property for which exemption was terminated by the city or by a court, in accordance with the finding of the city or the court as to the tax year in which the exemption is first to be terminated. The county assessor shall make such valuation of the property as is necessary to permit such correction of the rolls. The owner may appeal any such valuation in the same manner as provided for appeals under ORS 311.216 to 311.232. Where there has been a failure to comply with ORS 307.670, the property shall become taxable beginning January 1 of the ~~calendar~~ assessment year in which the noncompliance first occurred. Any additional taxes becoming due shall be payable without interest if paid in the period prior to the 16th of the month next following the month of correction. If not paid within such period, the additional taxes shall be delinquent on the date they would normally have become delinquent if timely extended on the roll or rolls in the year or years for which the correction was made.

(45) The exemption may also be terminated as set forth in ORS 307.675.

Section 16. Section 10.50.100 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered and amended as follows:

10.50.400135. Extension of Deadline.

Notwithstanding the provision of section 10.50.090115, if the city finds that the construction, addition or conversion of the multiple-unit housing was not completed by January 1, ~~1998~~ 2006, due to circumstances beyond the control of the owner, and that the owner has been acting and could reasonably be expected to act in good faith and with due diligence, the city may extend the deadline for completion of construction for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months.

Section 17. Section 10.50.110 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code is renumbered

ORS 307.680. Provides an appeal process prior to placing a development on the tax rolls for non compliance with original approval.

ORS 307.690 and ORS 307.691: extends to 2006 the date by which construction must occur. Construction can be addition or conversion and well as new from the ground up construction.

and amended as follows:

10.50.145. Implementation.

(1) The manager shall establish procedures and prepare forms for implementation and administration of this article. The manager shall require the owner to submit an annual financial and operational report for each approved property tax exemption. The manager shall review each report and provide a summary to the council.

(2) Staff is directed to request formal endorsement from the Multnomah County Board of Commissioners in order that the property tax exemption apply to the ad valorem taxation of the following taxing districts in addition to the City of Gresham: Multnomah County, Educational Service District, Tri-Met, Metro and the Port of Portland.

ORS 307.610(1) provides that the tax exemption would only apply to the City portion of property taxes unless by resolution or ordinance other taxing districts (in Gresham) whose property tax rate when combined with the City's property tax rate is equal to at least 51% of the combined tax rate levied on the property. Combining Gresham and Multnomah County is about 58% of the tax rate of the combined taxing districts.

If endorsed by Multnomah County, ORS 307.610(1) provides that upon request by the City that the property tax exemption shall apply to the ad valorem of all taxing districts. The proposed article would apply the property tax exemption only to those taxing districts that share with Gresham the $10 tax rate cap allowed under Measure 5: Gresham, ESD, Tri-Met, Metro and the Port. The combined estimated permanent tax rate is $10.01 (1997-98 representative property tax rate).

The K-12 School Districts and MHCC would not be included in the property tax exemption. The school districts have a separate cap under Measure 5. The estimated permanent tax rate for K-12 schools in Gresham is $6.43 and for MHCC is $0.57 (1997-98 representative property tax rate).

The City of Portland's transit oriented tax exemption program was endorsed by Multnomah County and the tax exemption does apply to all taxing districts.

Section 18. A new section 10.50.155 is added to Article 10.50 of Chapter 10 of the Gresham Revised Code as follows:

10.50.155. Continuation of Prior Exemption.

Any project granted an exemption prior to July 16, 1998, shall not be affected by the amendments to Article 10.50

The language is required by ORS 307.691 and describes that an already approved project is and will continue to be subject to Article 10.50 as it and shall be subject to provisions in effect at the time the exemption was granted, and for this purpose those provisions of Article 10.50 (Ord. No. 1370) shall continue to be in effect and shall continue to apply to the project and exemption as if the amendments made to Article 10.50 on July 16, 1998, were not in effect.

STAFF REPORT COUNCIL HEARING

To: City Council

From: Jonathan Harker, AICP, Long Range Planner III J2H

Hearing Date: June 2, 1998

Report Date: May 14, 1998

RE: Property Tax Exemption for New, Transit Supportive Multiple-Unit Housing or Mixed Use Development.

Proposal: To amend Gresham Revised Code (GRC) Article 10.50 concerning property tax exemption for multiple-unit housing.

Recommendation: Staff recommends approval of the proposed amendments.

The 1995 Oregon Legislature passed a bill revising ORS 307.600 to allow cities to grant limited ten year property tax exemptions for transit oriented residential and mixed use development. In passing this bill, the Legislature determined "that it is in the public interest to promote private investment in transit supportive multiple-unit housing in light rail station areas and transit oriented areas in order to maximize Oregon's transit investment to the fullest extent possible and that cities and counties of this state should be enabled to establish and design programs to attract new development of multiple-unit housing, and commercial and retail property, in areas located within a light rail station or transit oriented areas."

In essence this legislation allows Gresham to provide an incentive for high quality multi-family and mixed use development in the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood District areas.

In October, 1996 the City of Portland adopted an ordinance based on the revised ORS 307.600 and has applied it to the light-rail stations and pedestrian districts east of the Central City to the Gresham border. The ordinance was based in part on a model ordinance drafted by Tri-Met. Portland's ordinance was endorsed by the Housing and Community Development Commission and by the Tri-Met Board of Directors. Portland's ordinance was also endorsed by the Multnomah County Commissioners. This endorsement means that property tax levied on a property by all taxing districts, not just Portland, is exempted. This is allowed under ORS 307.600.

In response to the State legislation, which amended ORS 307.600 - .690, City staff has drafted amendments to GRC Article 10.50 – Property Tax Exemption for New, Multiple-Unit Rental Housing. These amendments continue and expand a program that allows the Council to grant limited tax exemption for multiple-unit residential and mixed use developments in the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood districts. The proposal will require approved developments to include a Crime Prevention Plan, design elements that benefit the general public and good connections to the transit. A variety of housing projects are emphasized including mixed residential and ground floor commercial; home ownership housing; mixed income housing; higher density housing and housing with on-site publicly accessible day care.

Attachment 2 is the proposed changes to Article 10.50, Gresham Revised Code. Adjacent to each proposed change is a commentary column with an explanation of the change. The proposal reflects the revised ORS 307.600 as well as local concerns on crime prevention, housing policy, the impacts of Measure 50 and the goals of the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Districts and the City's 2040 Regional Center. The City of Portland's program and a Tri-Met model ordinance were utilized in drafting the proposal.

What follows below are the key issues and elements concerning the proposal.

Current Article 10.50

In August, 1995 the City enacted GRC Article 10.50. Article 10.50 allows the Council to approve an exemption to the City portion of property taxes for the improvement value of multiple-unit rental housing in the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood areas. Main provisions for the current Article 10.50 are:

- Council approval requires that the applicant demonstrate that the exemption is required to achieve economic feasibility for the project.
- That the project provide one or more of the following public benefits: Rental units accessible to a broad income range of the general public; recreational facilities; open space; public meeting rooms; day care facilities; light rail transit supportive facilities; service or commercial uses permitted and needed but not available for economic reasons; dedication for public use; or other approved benefits. There are no other guidelines for the required public benefits and housing is included as one of the possible public benefits.
- Approved projects must be constructed by January 1, 1998 which means that the program has expired.
- Council may approve the exemption for an initial five year period. An additional five year extension can be approved if the applicant can demonstrate an economic need for the extension.

One project, Gresham Central Apartments (800 NE Roberts), has been approved for the exemption. A public benefit provided by the 90 unit apartment project was a pedestrian promenade and plaza adjacent to the MAX line.

Revised ORS 307.600

Since enactment of GRC Article 10.50 the State enabling legislation (ORS 307.600 - Attachment 7) has been revised. Key changes to ORS 307.600 are:

- Adds for-sale multiple-unit housing, ground floor commercial space (mixed use development) and residential structured parking as improvements that be exempted from property taxes. Previously only the improvements associated with rental housing could be exempted.
- Adds transit oriented areas (such as light rail stations) as areas where the program can be applied (previously only allowed in a City core area).
- Extends the required construction date to January 1, 2006 thus continuing the program.
- The project must show connection and support of transit if in a transit oriented area.
- Technical changes such as noticing requirements and tax year date.

The proposal makes these changes.

City of Portland

Portland has approved three projects and had a pre-application conference for an additional project since they adopted their transit oriented tax exemption program in October, 1996. Three of the projects are located within a ¼ mile of an east side MAX station. The other project is within the Gateway Plan District. The Gateway Plan District is a 2040 Regional Center which is the same designation as Gresham's Downtown and Civic Neighborhood district areas.

Two of the approved projects (Hazelwood and Floyd Light) are considered mixed income for purposes of the transit oriented tax exemption program. A mixed income project includes some housing affordable to households at or less than 60% of the median family income (MFI) with the rest of the housing being market rate rents. The third approved project (Russellville) has all market rate rental units (no units at 60% or less MFI) and on-site child care.

Other public benefits found in these projects include community meeting room; public green space; mixed use (retail and housing) and affordable for-sale rowhouses.

As these projects are at locations similar to the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood areas they are examples of the type of developments that could be approved under this proposal. Below is a summary of each of the four projects.

1. Russellville School Project (approved)

- 102nd and Burnside: within ¼ mile radius of light rail station
- 282 housing units: 36 units per net acre, 106 two-bedroom, 26 three-bedroom
- All market rate units: "Significant percentage" moderate rate units (affordable to families earning less than 80% of median family income); without tax exemption rent for all unit would be $110/unit/month higher which would not be feasible from a market standpoint

- On-site child care facility
 - Meeting room for community organizations
 - Green space open to public (bounded on three sides by public roads)
 - Pedestrian access from project to post office
2. Hazelwood Apartments (approved)
- NE 122nd and NE Glisan: Bus line; within ¼ mile light rail station
 - 119 units congregate care retirement facility: 68 dwelling units per acre; 100% special needs housing: 24 studios, 71 one-bedroom, 24 two-bedroom
 - Mixed income: 40% affordable to 50% or less median family income; Without tax exemption rent would be $100/unit/month higher which is not achievable in the market area
 - Mixed Use: Constructed over small retail shops between national anchor tenants
 - Low (0.5/unit) parking ratio creating low traffic impact
3. Floyd Light Apartments (approved)
- 106th and Cherryblossom: Within Gateway Plan District
 - 51 units: 35 units per acre
 - Mixed Income: 40% at 60% of median family income; without tax exemption affordable units (21) would be $45 unit/month higher and not affordable
 - Public open space with covered seating
4. 60th & Glisan Project (pre-app)
- Within ¼ mile of light rail station
 - 172 units senior affordable rentals (60% median family income)
 - 56 units market rate rental
 - 60 units family affordable rental (48 at 60% MFI & 12 at 30% MFI)
 - 2,700 square foot day care facility
 - 24 for sale row houses (not to exceed 95% condo median sales prices & sold to 100% median family household)

Crime Prevention Plan

Under the proposal a Crime Prevention Plan will be required for all projects. The Crime Prevention Plan will need to meet criteria so that the development is designed to avoid dangerous situations, increase visibility and increase being helped. The plan must include provisions for enhanced Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED), a security program and a maintenance plan. Each plan must utilize a checklist of “state of the art” provisions that detail lighting, sightlines, entrapment areas, informal surveillance, signage, interiors, project security and maintenance. The Crime Prevention Plan is developed by the applicant and the Police Department and must be recommended to the Council by the Police Department. A Crime Prevention Criteria and Standards Document is Attachment 5 of Council agenda packet.

A Crime Prevention Plan addresses a concern about the City’s ability to provide police services. Property taxes collected for new development help pay for police services that might be needed at the new developments. Due to Measure 50 the amount of property tax exempted by this program is not collected. A development that implements a Crime Prevention Plan has value for the community by prevention of crimes and will lessen the normal impact on police services by reducing the need for police response incidents. See Attachment 6 of this Council agenda packet from the Police Department.

Design Elements

Each project must include one or more design elements that benefit the general public. These features are required by ORS 307.600. It also requires the City to establish standards and guidelines for these features. The proposal provides more description than the current Article 10.50. The design elements are:

- They are in addition to any design review or other development requirement.
- Parks, public open spaces such as landscaped plaza or public urban plaza.
- Public meeting rooms or offices.
- On-site day care open to general public.
- Transit or pedestrian access facilities.
- Ground floor commercial use which serves residents, neighbors and transit riders.
- Other design elements benefiting the public determined by Council.

Housing

ORS 307.600 requires that the program results in development of housing that is accessible to a broad range of the general public. The current Article 10.50 includes in the list of public benefits (design elements) that an application must choose from: "Rental units at rental rates which are accessible to a broad income range of the general public." The proposal instead requires an application to follow project descriptions that serve as guiding principles for meeting City goals for the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood districts and the area as a Region 2040 regional center. The projects emphasized are:

In the Downtown Plan District:

- Mixed use projects of residential with ground floor commercial that serves residents, neighbors, transit riders and visitors.
- Home ownership housing with at least 20% of the units affordable to households earning 100% or less of the median family income.
- Special needs housing projects for households which include persons with special needs such as mentally or physically disabled or as defined by the Federal Fair Housing Act.

In Civic Neighborhood and Other Affected Areas:

- Mixed use projects of residential with ground floor commercial that serves residents, neighbors, transit riders and visitors.
- Home ownership housing with at least 20% of the units affordable to households earning 100% or less of the median family income.
- Mixed income projects where 60% to 80% of the rental housing is market rate and the balance is affordable to households earning 60% or less of the median family income.

- Projects with residential density of at least 50 units per acre.
- Market rate rental projects with on-site day care open to general public.
- Special needs housing projects for households which include persons with special needs such as mentally or physically disabled or as defined by the Federal Fair Housing Act.

The Council may approve other projects that result in residential units accessible to a broad range of the public and which further the goals of the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood Plan Districts.

The provisions should result in a variety of housing projects resulting in units for a broad range of the general public. The provisions allow for additional affordable housing units, home ownership units and units as part of a mixed use development. It will help achieve a mix of incomes in Gresham's transit and pedestrian Downtown and Civic Neighborhood districts.

Mixed-income Developments

Mixed income development is one of the housing projects that are emphasized. Mixed income projects have 60% to 80% market rate and 20% to 40% affordable to households with incomes at or less than 60% of the median family income. Three questions have been raised about having a maximum number of affordable units allowed under this project description: 1) why have any maximum, 2) will a maximum prevent use of certain State tax programs and 3) if there is a maximum what should be the proper percentage?

Having a minimum/maximum allowance of affordable units encourages mixed-income housing development. A recent (1997) issue of *Cityscape*¹: A Journal of Policy Development and Research focused on mixed-income housing. It reviewed successful mixed income projects and recent literature. Key points of these articles include:

- Mixed-income housing is a deliberate effort to construct a multifamily development that has a mixing of income groups as a fundamental part of its financial and operating plans.
- Mixed-income housing attempts to attract higher income households to developments that are also occupied by poor households. It has become a strategy responding both to the growing awareness of the social problems connected to concentrated poverty and to the economic burden of warehousing the very poor in large developments.
- Proponents of mixed-income housing have a belief that it is preferable to housing in which large numbers of low-income residents are clustered together. It can be seen as a tool to address issues of the "culture of poverty." Benefits of a mixture of incomes may include:
 - * The behavior pattern of some lower income residents will change because they will emulate their higher income neighbors. This quality of living environment will lead to upward mobility.

¹ Cityscape is published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and "strives to share HUD-funded and other research on housing and urban policy issues with scholars, government officials, and other involved in setting policy."

- * Non-working lower-income tenants will find jobs because they will observe social norms of people going to work or school and because they will have an informal job network with employed neighbors.
- * Crime rate will fall because higher income households demand a stricter and better enforced set of community ground rules.

The article also suggested what makes successful mixed income development. One conclusion is that mixed-income housing works best when it emphasizes the basics of real estate development and management:

- Location. People who rent market rate units are most influenced by location.
- Design quality. Superior design is critical to success.
- Excellent management and maintenance. Successful projects were professionally managed.
- Financial viability. Projects require a great deal of time in the predevelopment process in order to secure financing from a range of sources and ensure the project's long term viability.
- Mixed-income housing will work only where there are sufficient units aimed at the higher income population to create a critical mass.
- Mixed-income housing works best when the income mix is not emphasized in marketing and there are no differences in the nature and quality of units being offered.

Attachment 9 is a letter from the Oregon Housing Community and Services Department. Two important points the letter makes are:

1. Tax exempt bond financing and Low Income Housing Tax Credits are only available if at least 40% of units are affordable to households at 60% or less median family income. Or at least 20% of units are affordable to households at 50% or less median family income.
2. For equity and cash flow reasons mixed-income projects will generally do projects with 40% affordable to households at 60% or less median family income.

Conclusions of this research and the additional information from the State are that mixed income projects should be encouraged under this proposal and that a minimum of 20% to a maximum of 40% provides the best flexibility in accomplishing mixed income developments. The letter indicates support of the proposal.

Other Changes

- Maintains the program applying to the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood districts and adds contiguous High Density Residential (HDR)-60 parcels on the north side of Division and contiguous Transit Development (TD) parcels on the east side of Eastman Parkway. The parcels are located near light rail stops and transit streets and with the Downtown and Civic Neighborhood districts are part of the 2040 Gresham Regional Center. The sites are shown on Map A included as part of Attachment 2.

- Eliminates Planning Commission hearing as program is not a land use action. A condition of approval will be obtaining all required permits.
- Must demonstrate that the property tax exemption is necessary to achieve the proposal including the costs due to requirements of the program. This means that the amount of the tax exemption goes into the value of development.
- Changes the current five year exemption period with an additional five years allowed when the applicant demonstrates an economic need with a ten year exemption period as provided for in the ORS.

Extending the Exemption Beyond the City Portion

Currently the exemption applies only to the property tax levied by the City. The exemption can be applied to property taxes levied by other taxing districts when the tax rate of the City added to the tax rate of any taxing district that formally endorses the program equals at least 51% of the combined tax rate of all property tax levied on the property.

The proposal includes asking for formal endorsement by Multnomah County which would achieve the 51% figure. Multnomah County has endorsed the Portland transit oriented tax exemption program which applies to Portland light rail stations up the Gresham border. The proposal specifies that the tax exemption would apply, in addition to Gresham, only to the property taxes levied by Multnomah County, Educational Service District, Port, Tri-Met, and Metro. These are the taxing districts which are included in the Measure 5 $10 cap. Exemptions would not be given for the property tax levied by K - 12 school and Mt. Hood CC districts.

The 1997-98 representative property tax rates as provided by the Tax Supervising and Conservation Commission are City of Gresham $4.04, Multnomah County $4.89, Education Service District $0.46, Metro $0.39, Tri-Met $0.16 and Port of Portland $0.07 for a total of $10.01. Adding the County and others would provide a greater incentive and thus a more effective program. Additionally, because the value of the exemption goes into the development its value to Gresham is enhanced.

The 1997-98 property tax rates for the two districts for which an exemption would not be given are Gresham-Barlow School District $6.43 and Mt. Hood Community College $0.57.

Portland, in adopting their program, made a finding regarding the State statute requirement that the property tax exemption is necessary to promote the type of desired development near transit facilities. They noted a lack of development along targeted light rail station along the east side MAX corridor. They also did pro-forma studies that showed, even with the property tax exemption, gaps between costs and rents when development included affordability set-asides or when a day care facility was included. Their conclusion was that "The property tax exemption was not in itself sufficient to fund the type of desired higher density project without additional public or private subsidies in the current market. The tax exemption, however, is one of the incentives the City can provide to make some of the projects more economically feasible." As noted earlier Portland's program exempts all the allowed property tax levied on an approved project.

Metro Regional 2040 Growth Concept

The area encompassed under the proposal (Map A in Attachment 2) is designated as a Regional Center. A regional center is defined in the Urban Growth Management (UGM) Functional Plan as "the focus of compact development, redevelopment and high-quality transit service and multimodal street networks" and has a guideline density of 60 persons per acre. The elements required for any project that is approved for the property tax exemption will ensure the type of desired development so that this incentive program will help carry out Metro Regional 2040.

Community Development Plan and 2020 Vision

The proposal support both the Downtown Plan District and the Civic Neighborhood Plan District. Objectives for both of these districts were to reduce automobile trips by capitalizing on transit opportunities, encouraging more intensive development near the light rail stations, and encouraging a mix of residential and commercial uses. The transit oriented tax exemption proposal is intended to result in developments that will increase and enhance the use of transit and the mix of residential and commercial uses.

The City has recently adopted a Central Rockwood plan. Central Rockwood includes a 2040 Growth Concept town center and several light rail station areas. The City is now engaged in a Rockwood Action Plan to formulate strategies to achieve the goals of the plan. Included in this action plan will be consideration of extending this transit oriented tax exemption program to the Central Rockwood area. This consideration is expected to happen within the next year.

Vacant and Underutilized Sites

The State statute provides that the program shall emphasize the development of vacant or underutilized sites in light rail station areas, transit oriented areas or core areas, rather than sites where sound or rehabilitable multiple-unit housing exists. Tri-Met has identified vacant and underutilized development opportunity sites in its light rail station area development profiles.

Measure 50

Amending Article 10.50 has been complicated by Measure 50. Before the measure the dollar amount of exempted taxes was collected by the City by raising rates of non-exempt properties. The City collected the same amount of property tax dollars with or without the exemption program. Measure 50 changed this. Because there is a cap on assessments the tax rate cannot be increased to collect the revenue that is exempted. The City will not be able to collect the property tax dollars that are exempted. A detailed financial report is included as Attachment 4 to the Council agenda packet.

Policy Issues

At an August 5, 1997 Council meeting staff outlined basic policy issues concerning the proposal and asked for direction as outlined in the policy issues below. The direction by Council was to continue the program, have stronger guidelines on housing and public design benefits and ask for Multnomah County endorsement.

- Should this program be extended so that other new projects can be approved? This requires amending the Article to have a required construction date of July 1, 2006.
- Measure 50 means that exempt property tax will not be collected by the City unlike before Measure 50 when exempt taxes could be collected by increasing tax rates. An assumption of the program is to ensure that a desired range of residential and mixed use development at densities and with design benefiting the public occur in the City's core and transit oriented areas. Without the exemption program such development may not occur.
- The State statute requires the City to have standards and guidelines concerning sale and rental rates accessible to a broad range of the general public. One way to do this is to have inclusionary housing provisions for a range of housing such as for affordable housing, special needs housing, family size housing, higher density housing and mixed use development. Both minimums and maximums can be considered to ensure a "mix."
- If the program is continued should it include providing for for-sale units, mixed use developments and residential structured parking?
- In the future, after the Central Rockwood Plan is adopted, should Central Rockwood transit oriented areas in Central Rockwood be considered for this program?

The proposal addresses these policy issues as was directed by the Council.

Next Steps After Council Adoption

- Staff recommends that once the ordinance is adopted that the City gain formal endorsement from the Multnomah County Board of Commissioners.
- Staff recommends monitoring the program via periodic Council Memorandums updating the Council on applications and developments done under this program. The purpose of the monitoring is to help determine if the program is working, needs modification, needs a quota limiting the number of approved projects or should be eliminated.
- Consideration of extending the program to Central Rockwood will be an element of the Rockwood Action Plan.

Other Correspondence

1. Attachment 8 is two memorandums from Tri-Met. They were in response to an earlier November 4, 1997 draft. Tri-Met supports adoption of the proposal but raised a few concerns:
 - The proposal requires a minimum 24 dwelling units per acre density. Tri-Met recommends 30 or 35 dwelling units per acre minimum for the proposal and notes that the market will produce 24 dwelling units per acre without subsidy. Staff response: Staff agrees that the program is an incentive for higher densities and recommends 35 dwelling units per acre for stand alone rental projects and 24 dwelling units per acre for sale projects. All of the projects approved under Portland's program have been at least at 35 dwelling units per acre. For sale projects are proposed for a lower density minimum as those units are often larger and thus may not be able to accommodate the higher density and as noted by Tri-Met 24 dwellings units per acre is transit supportive.

- Affordable Housing. Tri-Met support mixed-income housing but suggests that the 30% maximum might be too low. Staff response: The current proposal raises the maximum to 40% so that 60% to 80% will be market rate thus ensuring mixed income projects.
 - Child Care. Tri-Met suggests that child care be one of the options to satisfy housing criteria. It noted that the Russellville project (described earlier in this report) would not have been approved under the November 4, 1997 draft. Staff response: This proposal adds day care as a housing option. Day care supports households by reducing travel time and costs associated with off-site day care. This can be important for training and work opportunities. This proposal also allows day care to be a public design benefit if another housing option is proposed. This provides greater flexibility than the first draft.
2. Attachment 10 is a letter from Carolyn Piper of Human Solutions. This was in response to the November 4, 1997 draft. The concern was that a maximum percentage of affordable units would affect non-profit developers use of low income tax credits. Staff response: The maximum has been raised to 40%. According to the letter from the State (Attachment 8) low income tax credits are available at 40%. Projects currently approved in Portland could all be approved under Council Bill 23-97.

Conclusion

The proposed amendments to Article 10.50 are consistent with revised ORS 307.600, the Community Development Plan, the 2040 Growth Concept and with the direction provided by Council.

Recommendation

Staff recommends adoption of the proposed amendments to GRC Article 10.50.

RE: Financial Report Concerning Property Tax Exemption for New, Transit Supportive Multiple-Unit Housing or Mixed Use Development (Amended GRC 10.50)

What follows is financial report produced by Charles Kupper. Mr. Kupper is an economist and a principal of SPENCER & KUPPER. SPENCER & KUPPER is a private planning and development service business.

The purpose of the report is explain how the program would operate under the recently passed Measure 50; the potential financial impact of the exemption and how that potential relates to City property tax revenue.

The report has be reviewed by the Financial & Information Technology Department (principal reviewers Terry McCall, Director and Jay Guo, Budget Analyst) and by the Community Development Department (principal reviewer Jonathan Harker, Community Planner). City staff agrees with the assumptions and conclusions presented in the report.

PLEASE NOTE: Since this report was prepared in October of 1997 Gresham's permanent tax rate has been established as $3.62 per thousand. The figure used in the attached report was $3.49. Replacement tables will be provided at the June 2nd hearing. As collected property taxes are also at the higher rate the potential amount of forgone revenue would still represent less than 1% of the total estimated property tax revenue.

Also in the staff report (Attachment 3, page 8) the tax rate that can be exempted is reported as $4.04 per thousand. The $0.42 difference is bond debt paid by property taxes. This amount would be collected by the City spread out among all other property tax payers.

Re: Gresham Property Tax Exemption Program

BACKGROUND OF THE TAX EXEMPTION PROGRAM

Gresham's property tax exemption program is authorized by State of Oregon legislation (ORS 307.600). Legislation authorizing property tax exemption for multi-family housing in "core" areas was first approved in 1975, but initially was limited to Portland and Eugene. In 1995, the tax exemption legislation was expanded to allow tax exemptions for Transit Oriented projects. Portland has had the most experience with this property tax exemption program. To date, 26 projects, providing 3,723 housing units have received tax exemptions under Portland's Downtown Housing program. Currently, nine projects, totaling 1,068 housing units, are receiving exemptions under the Downtown program. There are three projects with pending applications under Portland's new Transit Oriented exemption program, and two, totaling about 800 units, are expected to be approved soon.

The Gresham City Council adopted a property tax exemption program for multi-family rental housing on August 16, 1995. The stated purpose of this program was to encourage the new construction of low, moderate, and middle-income rental housing in areas of the central City where the price of land discouraged new housing production, or where City policy encouraged housing production. Since the exemption program was adopted, one multi-family housing project has applied for, and received the exemption benefit. That project is Gresham Central Apartments. Gresham Central is a 90 unit market rate housing development at NE Roberts and NE Hood Ave. The project was opened in September, 1996. The developers of a project currently in the planning stage in the Gresham Civic Neighborhood have stated their intention to apply for the property tax exemption. The project as planned will contain 400 rental units.

THE EXEMPTION PROGRAM UNDER BALLOT MEASURE 50

The tax relief granted to eligible properties under the tax exemption program is provided by exempting from taxation the value of building improvements on those properties. Prior to the passage of Ballot Measure 50, changes in overall property values in a community caused changes to the property tax rate. Unless that tax rate exceeded $10 per thousand, no governmental revenues were lost. Under Measure 50, which essentially converts Oregon to a tax rate system, reductions or exemptions to property values can result in revenue losses. The property tax exemption program will result in reductions to total property valuation in Gresham during the life of the exemption program.

The purpose of this report and the following data is to provide information to the City Council about potential impacts and benefits of carrying out the tax exemption program under the property tax system created in Ballot Measure 50.

AN ESTIMATE OF PROPERTY TAX REVENUE IMPACTS

a. Introduction

As noted above, under Measure 50, reduced property values result in lower property tax revenues. By granting exemptions which limit taxable values, a taxing body foregoes revenue which otherwise might be available to it. The following data is City staff's estimate of the potential property taxes foregone by the City of Gresham if the tax exemption program is continued.

b. Factors and assumptions used in estimating revenue foregone

The estimate of property tax revenues foregone as a result of offering property tax exemptions is based upon several factors. Those factors are listed below, along with the assumption used by staff in doing its revenue impact analysis.

1. The estimated number of housing units and commercial space eligible for the exemption.
(Assumption - Metro data and City staff estimates indicate that a total of 2,926 housing units, and 500,000 square feet of commercial space are potentially eligible for the exemption.)
2. The estimated number of housing units and commercial space which actually will receive the exemption.
(Assumption - Staff estimates that a total of 1,200 housing units, and 200,000 square feet of commercial space will receive the exemption over the next ten years. 960 of the housing units are estimated to be apartments, and 240 units are townhouses.¹)
3. The estimated taxable value of the improvements which will be subject to tax exemption.
(Assumption - The combined average 1997-98 market value for residential units, apartments and townhouses, is estimated at $51,200, adjusted down to take into account effects of reductions imposed before Measure 50. The market value of commercial development is estimated at $88 square footage also adjusted to take before Measure 50 reductions into account.
4. The estimated property tax rate which would apply to the improvements.
(Assumption - Revenues foregone are for the City of Gresham only. It is assumed that the City of Gresham's share of the new combined permanent rate will be $3.49 per thousand.)
5. The estimated phasing of construction of the improvements.
(Assumption - It is assumed that the housing units and commercial space receiving exemptions will be constructed over the ten year period beginning in 1998. The 400 unit project in planning is an exception, not the norm. Portland's program has averaged about 180 units exempted per year. Staff believes an average of 80-90 unit per year is a likely figure for Gresham.)
6. The estimated duration of the property tax exemption on each property.
(Assumption - Each property will receive full exemption for a ten year period. Thus, properties which are granted exemption in year 10 will continue to receive exemption through year 19.)

The results of the assumptions and estimates listed above are shown in graphic form in the figure on the following page. As noted in item b.6 above, the projection period spans nineteen years, to fully account for exemptions granted in the tenth year of the program.

¹ Constraints imposed by eligibility requirements, and by adequately sized building sites in the eligible areas will limit the number of units which qualify for exemption. This figure assumes 900 of the 1,200 units projected to be built in the Gresham Civic Neighborhood in the ten years will take advantage of the exemption and that 300 units built in the downtown area will take advantage of the exemption. Staff also considered the average annual units exempted in Portland's twenty year history with the exemption program. After the 400 unit project mentioned earlier, staff believes an average of about 85 units per year is a likely exemption figure for Gresham's two eligible areas.

c. Estimated Taxes Forgone Graphic

d. Explanation of the Graphic

The graphic shows the estimated total property tax revenue foregone by the City of Gresham only over the forecast period. For instance, in the year 1998, it is assumed that the value of property abated will be approximately $9.44 million. Based upon the estimated permanent tax rate of $3.49 per thousand, the year 1 (1998-99 tax year) revenues foregone by Gresham are approximately $21,331.

In future years, new values added in each year are indexed upward by 3%, while the permanent tax rate remains steady at $3.49. As the graphic shows, the total taxes foregone increase in a relatively constant way each year, peaking out at $351,761 in 2007, year 10 of the program. From 2007 on, values start coming back onto the tax rolls, and the foregone taxes become less in each succeeding year. During the 19 year life of the program, the total property tax revenues foregone by the City of Gresham are estimated at $3,472,501. During the 19 year period, that produces an annual average of $182,763 in property taxes foregone.²

Summary of Graphic Data:

Duration of program period - 19 years

Maximum amount of taxes foregone in a year - $351,761 in year 2007

Total Property taxes foregone during the period - $3.47 million

Average annual amount of taxes foregone during the period - $182,763

² All estimates of revenues foregone are expressed in constant 1997 dollars. No discount rate is used.

Pertinent data on which the figure is based also is shown in tabular form in Appendix A

Discussion of Benefits of Exemption Program

It is comparatively easy to quantify the revenues foregone by adopting the exemption program. One could make different assumptions which would produce higher or lower levels of revenue foregone, but staff believes the assumptions used here represent a realistic case scenario.

The potential benefits of the program are harder to quantify. Many of the benefits of providing tax exemptions are related to community goals, and quality of life, matters to which it is difficult to assign a dollar figure. To try to find some dollar figure benefit, staff looked at ways of estimating the percentage of the estimated 2,926 housing units which would not be built without the benefit of exemption. There was no reliable means of making that kind of forecast. However, it seems possible, even likely, that the exemption program will stimulate the development of more housing units and commercial space than would be built without the program. Portland's Downtown exemption program certainly has had an effect on the level and pace of production of multi-family housing in the core area. The exemption program can create those same effects, and offer these other benefits to Gresham, and its residents:

- Provide an incentive to encourage development at higher densities, consistent with Gresham Civic Neighborhood and Metro 2040 goals.
- Requires development with Crime Prevention (Safe Cities) design features. These features can increase security in these developments, and decrease the need for protective services.
- Provide more housing at higher densities in central Gresham. This will help stabilize the downtown customer base, and encourage the growth of downtown businesses, jobs, and property values.
- Provide an incentive to produce more multi-family housing, and produce it more quickly. This can help keep the supply of housing in balance with Gresham's rapid growth in jobs, and make Gresham a better place to work.
- Accelerate the time frame for construction of the Gresham Civic Neighborhood light rail station, which is tied to levels of housing production.
- Provide more housing close to Gresham's job centers, reducing vehicle miles traveled, and increasing public transit ridership potential.
- Encourage mixed use development in the Gresham Civic Neighborhood and downtown Gresham, consistent with community goals and visions for those areas.
- Encourage developments that meet community objectives for design, affordability, and pedestrian amenities.

The benefits noted above are real, but not easily quantified. To help put the exchange of costs and benefits into perspective, it is helpful to look at the taxes foregone from Figure 1 as a percentage of the total property taxes Gresham might receive during the exemption period. The table on the following page provides that information.

COMPARING TAXES FOREGONE TO TOTAL TAXES COLLECTED.

The Legislative Revenue Office estimates the 1997-98 level of total property values in Gresham at $3.789 billion, adjusted for before Measure 50 effects. At the assumed permanent tax rate of $3.49, these values will produce $13,233,840 in revenue (before delinquencies) for the City in 1997-98. By contrast, the property tax revenue assumed to be foregone in 1997-98 is $21,331. The taxes foregone represent .0016 of total property tax revenues, one-sixth of one percent. The table below illustrates how the foregone taxes relate to estimated total property taxes in Gresham over the projection period.

Year ending June 30	Total Value In City (a)	Revenue at $3.49/1000	Revenue Foregone (b)	% of Rev. Foregone

Recommendations

The previous section listed eight benefits which the tax exemption program can provide to the City. Those benefits are real, but they are primarily quality of life benefits, and not easily quantified. The taxes foregone can be quantified. As the preceding table shows, they represent only a minor portion of the total property tax potential for the City during the period of the exemption program. In addition, there are various controls the City can impose on the program to ensure that taxes foregone do not become a serious problem. It is recommended that the City approve the proposed extension of the City's property tax exemption program.

CRIME PREVENTION PLAN CRITERIA AND STANDARDS CHECKLIST DOCUMENT

ARTICLE 10.50 PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR NEW, TRANSIT SUPPORTIVE MULTIPLE-UNIT HOUSING OR MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT

Purpose: Article 10.50.045(1) of the Gresham Revised Code (GRC) requires all projects approved for property tax exemption allowed under this article to have a Crime Prevention Plan. GRC 10.50.045(1) requires that the Crime Prevention Plan be recommended by the Police Department. Also required is that the Community Development and Police Departments maintain a criteria and standards checklist document to assist the applicant in developing the plan. The document is to outline the components and sections that are to be included in the Crime Prevention Plan and to have a checklist of standards that are details that can be incorporated into the Crime Prevention Plan.

Below are the criteria for the Crime Prevention Plan and a checklist of site and building design elements and active security methods that can reduce opportunities for criminal activity. This document will be provided to an applicant who will then work with the Police Department to develop a Crime Prevention Plan. The Criteria outlines the components and sections that the Crime Prevention Plan is to include. Not all the standards of the checklist will necessarily be part of a Crime Prevention Plan and there may be other details proposed in the Crime Prevention Plan that are not listed. The standards of the checklist reflect the most recent suggestions for Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) and active security methods. It is anticipated that as the state of the art increases that the checklist will be updated.

As a reference the checklist also includes current relevant Community Development Plan site design requirements for multi-family developments. A Crime Prevention Plan is to incorporate details that exceed these already required standards.

The Crime Prevention Plan along with the Police recommendation would be included in the application considered by the Council.

CRITERIA

A. The Crime Prevention Plan shall incorporate the following components to enhance safety and security:

- 1. An awareness of the environment so that the design and layout of the place is understandable. Dangerous situations can be avoided by adequate lighting, clear sightlines, and elimination of entrapment spots; and

2. Visibility by others so that a person using a building or space will not be isolated. In order for people to feel and be safe, it is critical that they know people who might help are “keeping an eye on them”; and
 3. Finding help so that a person can receive assistance from others. This includes the provision of clearly marked avenues of assistance such as emergency exits, alarms and phones and the ability to escape, communicate, or find help when in danger, through improved signage and a more clear site layout.
- B. A submitted Crime Prevention Plan shall include the following three sections:
1. A project design which incorporates enhanced Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) standards. CPTED standards are the physical design features and the management of these design features such as lighting, sightlines and visibility (informal surveillance), which provide for passive security.
 2. A project security program which provides for enhanced security on site, and on adjacent public streets and transit facilities. A security program involves active security with human activities that may or may not involve specialized equipment, such as security patrols, intercoms, and signed emergency telephones or alarms.
 3. A maintenance plan so that design elements continue to be successful after implementation.

STANDARDS CHECKLIST

- A. Lighting – some studies describe lighting as the “single most important CPTED (Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design) security feature. Design review standards for multi-family development includes lighting requirements.

3.1120(A)(8)(d) Except for single family attached dwelling structures, the following areas shall be illuminated during the hours of darkness: driveways; open parking lots and carports; on-site pedestrian circulation walks and walks that connect units to parking spaces, the public street and shared common areas; and entry ways to units and recreation and laundry buildings. Lighting shall be designed so as not to shine directly into residential units by the use of cut-off features. Lighting devices shall be protected by weather- and vandalism- resistant covers.

Lighting is also required for bicycle parking spaces:

3.0321(C)(1) Required bicycle parking must have a minimum lighting level of 3 foot candles.

Enhanced CPTED features for lighting would include:

- Provide pedestrian scale lighting. Pedestrian scale lighting would provide a minimum illumination of 4 foot candles at face height and allow a face to be identified at 15 yards.
- Provide consistent lighting so that there are few or no areas with shadow or glare, in order to reduce contrast between shadows and illuminated areas.
- Provide proper placement for lighting so that it shines on pedestrian pathways and on possible entrapment spaces rather than on the road or driveway or into lower floors of residential buildings.
- Illuminates inset doorways, alcoves, and above- or below-grade entrances. Lights should be placed high enough to prevent being taken out or vandalized.
- Take into account vegetation, including mature trees, and other potential blocks.
- If mixed use development, provide that the ground floor commercial areas mount lights on store fronts to increase pedestrian level street lighting.
- Required Development Standards above include "vandalism-resistant covers." Examples are wired glass or a lantern-style holder.
- The maintenance plan should specify that lighting fixtures will be maintained in clean condition and promptly replaced if burned or broken. There should be signage that tells residents who to call in case of burned-out or vandalized lights.
- If the development includes a parking structure use a white stain on the concrete as a cost-effective way of increasing general brightness which, combined with beam soffits, reflects light increasing uniformity.

B. Sightlines. The inability to see what is ahead along a route because of sharp corners, walls, earth berms, fences, buses or pillars is a serious impediment to feeling and being safe. The ability to see what is ahead and around is known as "visual permeability." Enhanced CPTED features for sightlines would include:

- Essential routes should have clear sightlines. Avoid large columns, tall privacy fences, overgrown shrubbery, and other thick barriers adjacent to pedestrian paths which could shield an attacker. Avoid impermeable landscape screens and long fences that serve to cut off access to means of escaping a place. Instead, use low hedges or concrete planters, small trees, wrought-iron or chain-link fences, transparent reinforced glass or plastic, lawns or flower beds, benches and lampposts. These all denote boundaries while allowing users to see and be seen. Barriers (such as fences) along paths should be visually permeable.

- Avoid sudden changes in grade that reduce sightlines on pathways.
- Avoid sharp corners, especially on stairs or in corridors, where movement can be predicted.
- Avoid hidden or inset entrances.
- Provide good sightlines in stairwells of parking garages, lobby entrances to high-rise buildings and to laundry rooms and storage areas.
- Locate office or superintendent's apartment near the building entrance.
- In spaces or paths where sightlines are impeded, use hardware such as security mirrors to make it easier to see.
- Locate laundry rooms and storage areas near high activity locations such as adjacent to a front door or in a courtyard.
- Avoid landscaping materials that will become a screen or barrier to an unimpeded view along pathways when they mature.
- Avoid landscaping, berms and structural features that impede views into playgrounds, small parks or plazas located adjacent to the sidewalk.
- Locate playgrounds to enhance the number of units with natural surveillance of the playground.
- Use low growing plant species (36 inches maximum height) next or near (with 48 inches) ground floor windows and entry door.
- Use barrier plants (prickly, spiny, thorny) under ground floor windows.

C. Entrapments. Entrapment spots are small, confined areas, adjacent or near a well-traveled route, that are shielded on three sides by some barrier such as walls or bushes. Examples are elevators, storerooms, fire stairs, dark recessed entrances that may be locked at night, gaps in tall shrubbery, curved or grade-separated driveways, or loading docks off a pedestrian route. Design review standards for multi-family development includes standards related to avoiding entrapment spots.

3.1120(A)8(e) Any individual stair landing may serve a maximum of six units per landing. The area of railings on stair landings shall be a minimum of 50% open. The area of railing is the height of the railing times the length of the railing. This requirement does not apply to single family attached dwelling structures.

(11) Outdoor storage facilities shall be provided for articles such as barbecues, outdoor furniture, etc., except for single family attached dwellings. The storage facility shall be a minimum 6'-0" high and 24 square feet in area. The facility shall be connected to each unit, completely enclosed and capable of being locked.

Enhanced CPTED features for entrapment spots would include:

- Avoid entrapment spots adjacent to a pedestrian path. Avoid elements such as insets adjacent to paths which could serve as entrapments spots.
- If an entrapment area is unavoidable, make sure it is well lit. Consider using aids to sightlines such as convex mirrors.
- Use dead bolts for storage areas off pedestrian routes.
- In parking structures the layout shall consider methods (such as speed bumps) to reduce speed when exiting the structure.

D. Informal surveillance. Informal or natural surveillance creates visibility and increases the opportunity to observe and discourage intruders by the juxtapositions of dwelling interiors with exterior spaces and placement of windows to allow residents to naturally survey exterior and interior public areas of their living environments. Police and other security personnel provide formal surveillance, but cannot see all places at all times. Informal surveillance from adjoining commercial and residential buildings help mitigate a sense of isolation.

Design review standards for multi-family development includes informal surveillance requirements.

3.1120(A)(8)(a) For complexes of twenty or more units, except for single family dwellings: All common areas shall be visible from at least three units. Common areas are shared open spaces, laundry, recreation, pool and similar common facilities, children's play areas, walkways and parking areas. A unit meets this criterion when at least one window of a frequently used room, to include kitchens, living rooms and dining rooms, but not bed or bath rooms, faces the common areas.

3.1120(A)(8)(b) For complexes of twenty or more units, except for single family dwellings: At least four units shall have a unit entrance or at least one window of a frequently used room, to include kitchens, living rooms and dining rooms but not be bed or bath rooms, facing each abutting street right-of-way. There shall be no intervening building between the units and the abutting street right-of-way.

3.1120(A)(15)(b) Blank, windowless walls are prohibited when facing a public street unless required by the Uniform Building Code. Blank walls are discouraged in all other situations. Where the construction of a blank wall exceeds 400 sq. ft. it shall be articulated or intensive landscaping shall be provided. If shrubs and trees are selected, they shall be of a variety that will grow to screen, at maturity, 25 percent or more of the wall area and reach a height at least 50 percent of the wall height.

3.1120(A)(2). Front Facades. All primary ground floor common entries or individual entries of street frontage units shall be oriented to the street, not to the interior or to a parking lot. Projecting features such as balconies, bays and dormer windows are also encouraged for structures facing a street.

Enhanced CPTED features for informal surveillance would include:

- Exceeding the standards stated above and especially providing those elements that are encouraged but not required.
- Providing for informal surveillance as provided above [3.1120(A)(8)(a & b)] for developments that are less than 20 units.
- Providing opportunities for informal surveillance on the street, such as having porches and balconies, small stores (mixed use development) and community gardens.
- Providing places on the street where adults can clean cars, sit on benches, or engage in other casual social and recreational activities.
- Placing building and areas of activity near adjacent transit stops so that the transit stop is not an isolated place.
- Emphasize overlooking (informal surveillance) of the routes to and from parking lots or garages.

E. Signage and other information. Knowing where you are and which way to turn contributes to a feeling of security.

Design review standards for multi-family development includes signage requirements.

(c) An addressing system shall be provided and shall consist of the following:

(i) Building addresses shall be clearly visible from the abutting public street right-of-way or from the abutting driveway, at least 4 inches in height, of a contrasting color to the background to which they are attached and illuminated during the hours of darkness. Building addresses shall be clearly visible on all sides of the buildings.

(ii) For complexes of twelve or more units, except for single family dwellings: there shall be positioned at each driveway, an illuminated representation of the complex which shows the location of the visitor and the unit designations within the complex. The sign(s) shall be free-standing, have a 3'-0" to 5'-6" height, a 7 to 32 square foot area, and be located a minimum of 20 feet back from the property line at the street access point.

(iii) Except for single family dwellings, each individual unit within the complex shall display a unit number or letter which shall be at least 4 inches in height and illuminated during the hours of darkness. Each breezeway shall be posted with appropriate unit numbers for the breezeway.

Enhanced CPTED features for signage and other information would include:

- Locating signs strategically at entrances and near activity nodes such as intersections of corridors or paths.

- Having signs that indicate where to go for assistance or help; location of telephones; location of washrooms; and orient users to nearest busy street.
- Having signs that indicate how and where to report maintenance or vandalism problems.
- Routes that are clearly marked so that users can exit quickly and by the most direct route.
- Access to individual buildings clearly visible from adjacent streets and entrances that are locked.

F. Interior of multi-unit housing. Elements of CPTED can also be applied to the interior of multiple-unit housing. Enhanced CPTED features would include:

- Lighting. Provide adequate lighting of common areas such as corridors, entrances, elevators and stairwells. Avoid areas of shadows using light fixtures.
- Have lobby be visible from interior of building or from street.
- Use transparent materials and security mirrors to improve sightlines.
- Use mirrored interior for elevator or have angled mirror that allows entire interior area to be visible by a person about to enter the elevator.
- Place activity generators, such as party rooms and laundry rooms, near entrances.
- Locking devices. Interior door locks at least one inch dead bolt with four 3" to 4" screws in the strike plate. Eliminate or reinforce glass panels near doors. Equip French doors with bars. Provide pad locks on garden gates. Change door locks every time there is a change in tenants (this provision should be part of the maintenance plan).
- Use a 'Charlie Bar' on all sliding glass doors.

G. Project security program. An active security program refers to human activities that may or may not involve specialized equipment. Security personnel, especially at night, should be emphasized.

- Security personnel. The visible presence of uniformed officers is one of the best crime prevention methods. Have security personnel who stay on the property and do appropriate walk throughs.
- Have superintendents, maintenance staff, or residents patrol halls, parking garages or lots, and other common areas. Train in how to report maintenance problems and how to respond to emergencies. (This provision should be included in the maintenance plan.)

H. Maintenance. A maintenance plan outlines how design features will be maintained as well as how management will work with residents, the Police Department and the Community on crime prevention. Elements that can be included in a Maintenance Plan are:

- Be responsive and prompt to repair requests. This is an especially critical element:
- Prominently post a phone number to call to report a maintenance emergency such as a broken lock, window or door.
- Promptly remove from walls and sidewalks any sexist, racist or homophobic graffiti.
- Ensure that litter is picked up.
- Management could have explicit security policies that allow for improving the quality of the environment and fostering a sense of common purpose. This would include a communication plan between the residents and management.
- Provide a meeting space (such as a recreation room) so that the residents can organize and involve themselves in defining problems and creating solutions.
- Have an apartment watch meeting at least one a year. Once every six months is better because of turnover of residents.
- Maintain lighting fixtures in clean condition and promptly replaced if burned or broken. Development agreements should state who is responsible for maintenance of lighting. A public notice indicating who to call in case of burned-out or vandalized lights helps maintain lighting fixture.
- Regularly update management plan – the plan should include a risk audit and proposed CPTED and active security measures.

I. High risk areas. Certain high risk areas may warrant exceptional elements.

- Possible entrapment areas can be covered by video cameras.
- Providing a concierge in apartment lobby.
- The use of surveillance hardware such as an adequately signed telephone, emergency telephone, alarm or panic button; covering isolated areas with video camera; and having staff who monitor video surveillance equipment trained to respond to emergencies may in some cases be warranted.

GRESHAM POLICE DEPARTMENT
MEMORANDUM

TO: Mayor Gussie McRobert
Members of the City Council

DATE: October 9, 1997

FROM: Bernie Giusto
Chief of Police

SUBJECT: Amendments to GRC 10.50.045 (1)

Recently the Community Development Department and the Gresham Police Department teamed up to accomplish two tasks. First, to better define "the public interest" relating to tax properties applying for tax abatement and second, to focus real estate developers on public safety issues within multi-family developments.

In developing Chapter 10.50.045 of the GRC the police department was instrumental in providing advice and setting clear standards for developers who will be required to include a crime prevention plan as part of the development application. This portion of the application will be reviewed and approved by the Gresham Police Department. The purpose of this plan is to reduce the number of on-site police responses required at an individual development. The police department will be encouraging developers to focus on things such as on-site security patrols and facility designs such as pedestrian level lighting, and parking lots within clear view of residents.

I believe this amendment is a meaningful step forward in helping to balance the need to have properties developed that qualify for tax abatement while at the same time encouraging and working with developers to reduce the need for police services at these sites. This can truly be seen as being in "the public's interest."

I believe the staff work by Community Planner Jonathan Harker and Community Safety Specialist Joe Anderson will prove to be of measurable benefit to the City in the years to come. I whole heartily support this amendment and recommend that it be made part of the GRC.

1997 Oregon Revised Statutes

(Multiple-Unit Housing in Core Areas, Light Rail Station Areas and Transit Oriented Areas)

307.600 Legislative findings.

(1) The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to stimulate the construction of transit supportive multiple-unit housing in the core areas of Oregon's urban centers to improve the balance between the residential and commercial nature of those areas, and to ensure full-time use of the areas as places where citizens of the community have an opportunity to live as well as work.

(2) The legislature also finds that it is in the public interest to promote private investment in transit supportive multiple-unit housing in light rail station areas and transit oriented areas in order to maximize Oregon's transit investment to the fullest extent possible and that the cities and counties of this state should be enabled to establish and design programs to attract new development of multiple-unit housing, and commercial and retail property, in areas located within a light rail station area or transit oriented area.

(3) The legislature further finds that the cities and counties of this state should be enabled to establish and design programs to attract new development of multiple-unit housing in light rail station areas, in transit oriented areas or in city core areas by means of the local property tax exemption authorized under ORS 307.600 to 307.691. The programs shall emphasize the following:

(a) The development of vacant or underutilized sites in light rail station areas, transit oriented areas or core areas, rather than sites where sound or rehabilitable multiple-unit housing exists.

(b) The development of multiple-unit housing, with or without parking, in structures that may include ground level commercial space.

(c) The development of multiple-unit housing, with or without parking, on sites with existing single-story commercial structures.

(d) The development of multiple-unit housing, with or without parking, on existing surface parking lots.

(4) The programs shall result in the construction, addition or conversion of units at rental rates or sale prices accessible to a broad range of the general public. [1975 c.428 s.2; 1995 c.596 s.1]

307.605 Definitions. As used in ORS 307.600 to 307.691:

(1) "Lender" means any person who makes a loan, secured by a recorded mortgage or trust deed, to finance the acquisition, construction, addition or conversion of multiple-unit housing.

(2) "Light rail station area" means an area defined in regional or local transportation plans to be within a one-half mile radius of an existing or planned light rail station.

(3) "Multiple-unit housing" means newly constructed structures, stories or other additions to existing structures and structures converted in whole or in part from other use to dwelling units that meet the following criteria:

(a) The structure must have a minimum number of dwelling units as specified by the city or county pursuant to ORS 307.610(4).

(b) The structure must not be designed or used as transient accommodations, including but not limited to hotels and motels.

(c) The structure must have those design elements benefiting the general public as specified by the city or county pursuant to

1997 Oregon Revised Statutes

ORS 307.650.

(d) If in a light rail station area or transit oriented area, the structure must:

(A) Be physically or functionally related to a light rail line or mass transportation system; and

(B) Enhance the effectiveness of a light rail line or mass transportation system.

(4) "Transit oriented area" means an area defined in regional or local transportation plans to be within one-quarter mile of a fixed route transit service. [1975 c.428 s.1; 1979 c.425 s.1; 1989 c.1051 s.1; 1995 c.596 s.2]

307.610 Applicability of ORS 307.600 to 307.691 generally; city or county to designate areas; public hearings; standards and guidelines for considering applications.

(1) ORS 307.600 to 307.691 apply to multiple-unit housing constructed, added to or converted in cities or counties that adopt, after a public hearing and determination pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, by resolution or ordinance, the provisions of ORS 307.600 to 307.691. The tax exemption provided by ORS 307.600 to 307.691 only applies to the tax levy of a city or county that adopts the provisions of ORS 307.600 to 307.691, except that the tax exemption shall apply to the ad valorem tax levy of all taxing districts when upon request of the city or county that has adopted the provisions of ORS 307.600 to 307.691, the rates of ad valorem taxation of taxing districts whose governing boards agree by resolution to the policy of providing tax exemptions for multiple-unit housing as provided in ORS 307.600 to 307.691, when combined with the rate of taxation of the city or county that adopts the provisions of ORS 307.600 to 307.691, equal 51 percent or more of the total combined rate of taxation levied on the property which is tax exempt under ORS 307.600 to 307.691.

(2) The city or county shall designate an area within which it proposes to allow exemptions provided for under the provisions of ORS 307.600 to 307.691. Core areas, light rail station areas or transit oriented areas may be designated by a city. A county may designate areas as light rail station areas or transit oriented areas but may not designate areas as core areas. A city or county from time to time may, by amending its resolution or ordinance, add or withdraw territory from the area originally designated as a light rail station area or a transit oriented area, but any area added must be within the boundaries of the area as limited by ORS 307.605 (2) or (4).

(3) The city or county shall, prior to passage of a resolution or ordinance electing to utilize the provisions of ORS 307.600 to 307.691, hold a public hearing in order to determine whether multiple-unit housing meeting the qualifications of subsection (4) of this section would not otherwise be built in the designated area without the benefits provided by ORS 307.600 to 307.691.

(4) Prior to accepting project applications under ORS 307.600 to 307.691, cities or counties shall promulgate standards and guidelines to be utilized in considering applications and making the determinations required by ORS 307.650. The standards and guidelines shall establish policy governing basic requirements for an application, including but not limited to:

(a) Existing utilization of proposed project site, including justification of the elimination of any existing sound or rehabilitable housing.

(b) Design elements.

(c) Rental rates or sales prices.

(d) Extensions of public benefits from the project beyond the period of the exemption.

(e) Minimum number of units. [1975 c.428 s.3; 1979 c.425 s.2; 1983 c.493 s.1; 1989 c.1051 s.2; 1991 c.459 s.72; 1995 c.596 s.3; 1997 c.325 s.27]

307.620 Applicability of ORS 307.600 to 307.691 in cities and certain counties. In any city, or in any county with a population of over 300,000, the exemption shall apply only to multiple-unit housing constructed, added to or converted on land within an area designated under ORS 307.610 (2) or within a designated urban renewal or redevelopment area formed pursuant to ORS chapter 457. [1975 c.428 s.4; 1989 c.1051 s.3; 1995 c.596 s.4]

307.630 Duration of exemption; exclusions from exemption.

(1) Except as provided under subsection (2) of this section, multiple-unit housing that qualifies for exemption under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation for no more than 10 successive years. The first year of exemption shall be the assessment year beginning January 1 immediately following the calendar year in which construction, addition or conversion is completed, determined by that stage in the construction process when, pursuant to ORS 307.330, the improvement would have gone on the tax rolls in the absence of the exemption provided for in ORS 307.600 to 307.691. However:

(a) The exemption shall not include the land or any improvements not a part of the multiple-unit housing, but may include parking constructed as part of the multiple-unit housing construction, addition or conversion.

(b) In the case of a structure to which stories or other improvements are added or a structure that is converted in whole or in part from other use to dwelling units, only the increase in value attributable to the addition or conversion shall be exempt from taxation.

(2) If the multiple-unit housing is subject to a low income rental assistance contract with an agency of this state or of the United States, the city or county may extend the exemption provided by ORS 307.600 to 307.691 through June 30 of the tax year during which the termination date of the contract falls.

(a) The exemption provided by ORS 307.600 to 307.691 shall be in addition to any other exemption provided by law. However, nothing in ORS 307.600 to 307.691 shall be construed to exempt any property beyond 100 percent of its real market value.

(b) If property is located within a core area and within a light rail station area or a transit oriented area, or both, and application for exemption under more than one program is made, only the exemption for which application is first made and approved shall be granted. If property is granted exemption under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 pursuant to an ordinance or resolution adopted by a city, the property shall not be granted exemption pursuant to an ordinance or resolution adopted by a county. If property is granted exemption under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 pursuant to an ordinance or resolution adopted by a county, the property shall not be granted exemption pursuant to an ordinance or resolution adopted by a city. Property shall be granted exemption under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 only once. [1975 c.428 s.5; 1979 c.425 s.3; 1989 c.1051 s.3a; 1991 c.459 s.73; 1995 c.596 s.5; 1997 c.541 s.136]

307.640 City or county to provide application forms; contents of application form; filing deadline; revision of application. An owner desiring an exemption under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 shall first apply to the city or county, whichever is appropriate, on forms supplied by the city or county. The application shall describe the property for which an exemption is requested, set forth the grounds supporting the requested exemption and be verified by oath or affirmation of the applicant. Application shall be made on or before February 1 immediately preceding the first assessment year for which exemption is requested, and shall be accompanied by the application fee required by ORS 307.660. The city or county may permit the applicant to revise an application prior to final action by the city or county. [1975 c.428 s.6; 1991 c.459 s.74; 1995 c.596 s.6; 1997 c.541 s.138]

307.650 City or county findings required for exemption approval. The city or county may approve the application if it finds that:

(1) The owner has agreed to include in the construction, addition or conversion as a part of the multiple-unit housing one or more design elements benefiting the general public as specified by the city or the county, including but not limited to open spaces, parks and recreational facilities, common meeting rooms, child care facilities, transit amenities and transit or pedestrian design elements.

(2) The proposed construction, addition or conversion project is or will be, at the time of completion, in conformance with all local plans and planning regulations, including special or district-wide plans developed and adopted pursuant to ORS chapters 195, 196, 197, 215 and 227, that are applicable at the time the application is approved.

(3) The owner has complied with all standards and guidelines adopted by cities or counties pursuant to ORS 307.610 (4). [1975 c.428 s.7; 1995 c.278 s.37; 1995 c.596 s.7]

307.660 Approval or denial of applications; city or county to state in writing reasons for denial of exemption; application fees.

(1) The city or county shall approve or deny an application filed under ORS 307.650 within 180 days after receipt of the application. An application not acted upon within 180 days shall be deemed approved.

(2) Final action upon an application by the city or county shall be in the form of an ordinance or resolution that shall contain the owner's name and address, a description of the subject multiple-unit housing, either the legal description of the property or the assessor's property account number, and the specific conditions upon which the approval of the application is based. On or before April 1 following approval, the city or county shall file with the county assessor and send to the owner at the last-known address of the owner a copy of the ordinance or resolution approving or disapproving the application. In addition, the city or county shall file with the county assessor on or before April 1 a document listing the same information otherwise required to be in an ordinance or resolution under this subsection, as to each application deemed approved under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If the application is denied, the city or county shall state in writing the reasons for denial and send notice of denial to the applicant at the last-known address of the applicant within 10 days after the denial.

(4) The city or county, after consultation with the county assessor, shall establish an application fee in an amount sufficient to cover the cost to be incurred by the city or county and the assessor in administering ORS 307.600 to 307.691. The application fee shall be paid to the city or county at the time the application for exemption is filed. If the application is approved, the city or county shall pay the application fee to the county assessor for deposit in the county general fund, after first deducting that portion of the fee attributable to its own administrative costs in processing the application. If the application is denied, the city or county shall retain that portion of the application fee attributable to its own administrative costs and shall refund the balance to the applicant. [1975 c.428 s.8; 1995 c.596 s.8]

307.670 Termination of exemption for failure to complete construction or noncompliance; notice.

(1) Except as provided in ORS 307.675, if the city or county finds that construction of multiple-unit housing was not completed on or before the date specified in ORS 307.691, or that any provision of ORS 307.600 to 307.691 is not being complied with, or any provision required by the city or county pursuant to ORS 307.600 to 307.691 is not being complied with, the city or county shall give notice to the owner, mailed to the owner's last-known address, and to any known lender, mailed to the lender's last-known address, of the proposed termination of the exemption. The notice shall state the reasons for the proposed termination and shall require the owner to appear at a specified time, not less than 20 days after mailing the notice, to show cause, if any, why the exemption should not be terminated.

(2) If the owner fails to appear and show cause why the exemption should not be terminated, the city or county shall further notify every known lender and shall allow the lender a period of not less than 30 days, beginning with the date that the notice of failure to appear and show cause is mailed to the lender, to cure any noncompliance or to provide assurance that is adequate, as determined by the governing body, to assure the governing body that the noncompliance will be remedied.

(3) If the owner fails to appear and show cause why the exemption should not be terminated, and a lender fails to cure or give adequate assurance that any noncompliance will be cured, the city or county shall adopt an ordinance or resolution stating its findings terminating the exemption. A copy of the ordinance or resolution shall be filed with the county assessor and a copy sent to the owner at the owner's last-known address, and to any lender at the lender's last-known address, within 10 days after its adoption. 307.675 Termination of exemption upon change to unit ownership or to other than residential or housing use; effect.

(1) If, after application has been approved under ORS 307.600 to 307.691, a declaration defined in ORS 100.005 with respect to the property is presented to the county assessor or tax collector for approval under ORS 100.110 or if the county assessor discovers that the multiple-unit housing or a portion of the multiple-unit housing is changed to a use that is other than residential or housing:

(a) The exemption granted the multiple-unit housing or portion under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 shall terminate immediately, without right of notice or appeal;

(b) The property or portion shall be assessed and taxed as other property similarly situated is assessed and taxed; and

(c) Notwithstanding ORS 311.235, there shall be added to the general property tax roll for the tax year next following the presentation or discovery, to be collected and distributed in the same manner as other real property tax, an amount equal to the difference between the amount of tax that would have been due on the property or portion had it not been exempt under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 for each of the years, not to exceed the last 10 years, during which the property was exempt from taxation under ORS 307.600 to 307.691.

(2) If, at the time of presentation or discovery, the property is no longer exempt, additional taxes shall be imposed as provided in this section, but the number of years that would otherwise be used to compute the additional taxes shall be reduced one year for each year that has elapsed since the year the property was last granted exemption beginning with the oldest year for which additional taxes are due.

(3) The assessment and tax rolls shall show "potential additional tax liability" for each property granted exemption under ORS 307.600 to 307.691.

(4) Additional taxes collected under this section shall be deemed to have been imposed in the year to which the additional taxes relate. [1981 c.697 s.5; 1987 c.158 s.45; 1987 c.459 s.33; 1991 c.459 s.76]

307.680 Review of denial of application or termination of exemption; correction of assessment and tax rolls; owner's appeal of valuation; effective date of termination of exemption.

1997 Oregon Revised Statutes

(1) Review of a denial of an application under ORS 307.660, or of the termination of an exemption under ORS 307.670, shall be as provided by ORS 34.010 to 34.100.

(2) If no review of the termination of an exemption as provided in subsection (1) of this section is affected, or upon final adjudication, the county officials having possession of the assessment and tax rolls shall correct the rolls in the manner provided for omitted property under ORS 311.216 to 311.232, to provide for the assessment and taxation of any property for which exemption was terminated by the city or county, or by a court, in accordance with the finding of the city, county or the court as to the tax year in which the exemption is first to be terminated. The county assessor shall make such valuation of the property as shall be necessary to permit such correction of the rolls. The owner may appeal any such valuation in the same manner as provided for appeals under ORS 311.216 to 311.232. Where there has been a failure to comply with ORS 307.670, the property shall become taxable beginning January 1 of the assessment year following the assessment year in which the noncompliance first occurred. Any additional taxes becoming due shall be payable without interest if paid in the period prior to the 16th of the month next following the month of correction. If not paid within such period, the additional taxes shall be delinquent on the date they would normally have become delinquent if timely extended on the roll or rolls in the year or years for which the correction was made. [1975 c.428 s.10; 1991 c.459 s.77; 1995 c.596 s.10; 1997 c.541 s.141]

307.690 Extension of deadline for completion of construction, addition or conversion. Notwithstanding any provision of ORS 307.670, if the city or county finds that construction, addition or conversion of the multiple-unit housing was not completed by the date specified in ORS 307.691, due to circumstances beyond the control of the owner, and that the owner had been acting and could reasonably be expected to act in good faith and with due diligence, the city or county may extend the deadline for completion of construction, addition or conversion for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months. [1975 c.428 s.11; 1979 c.425 s.5; 1983 c.493 s.3; 1989 c.1051 s.5; 1991 c.459 s.78; 1995 c.596 s.11; 1997 c.325 s.29]

307.691 Completion of construction, addition or conversion of multiple-unit housing before January 1, 2006, required for eligibility for exemption. An exemption for multiple-unit housing shall not be granted under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 unless the construction, addition or conversion is completed on or before January 1, 2006. [1995 c.596 s.13; 1997 c.541 s.143]

Note: Section 14, chapter 596, Oregon Laws 1995, provides:

Sec. 14.

(1) Except as provided in section 13 of this Act [307.691], the amendments to ORS 307.600, 307.605, 307.610, 307.620, 307.630, 307.640, 307.650, 307.660, 307.670, 307.680 and 307.690 by sections 1 to 11 of this Act first apply to exemptions for those structures that are completed in the calendar year 1996 or any calendar year thereafter and first apply to tax years beginning on or after July 1, 1997.

(2) Any exemption granted under ORS 307.600 to 307.691 for a structure completed in the calendar year 1995 or a calendar year prior to 1995 shall not be affected by the amendments to ORS 307.600, 307.605, 307.610, 307.620, 307.630, 307.640, 307.650, 307.660, 307.670, 307.680 and 307.690 by sections 1 to 11 of this Act. ORS 307.600 to 307.690 (1993 Edition) shall continue to apply to the structure and exemption as if this Act were not in effect. [1995 c.596 s.14]

TRI-MET INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

DATE: October 21, 1997
 TO: Jonathan Harker, AICP, Gresham
 FROM: Henry S. Markus, AICP, Station Area Development Coordinator
 SUBJECT: Transit Oriented Tax Exemption Draft Ordinance (10-17-97)

HSM

I have reviewed the materials that you sent me. Good job! I especially liked the crime prevention plan requirement and the Ballot Measure 50 impact analysis. I have the following comments.

Minimum Density -- 24 du/ac is consistent with Tri-Met's "Planning and Design for Transit Handbook"; however, (1) 24 du/ac is assumed to be achievable without public subsidy and (2) Portland's minimum is 35 du/ac based on discussions with Metro prior to adoption of the city's ordinance in October 1996. Increasing Gresham's minimum to 35 du/ac would provide a consistent base density for all eastside MAX station areas. Portland's first eastside application, the Russellville School site at 102nd, is 36 du/ac.

Affordable Housing -- As I read it, projects with more than 20/30% affordable units are only eligible if they qualify under another criteria -- special needs housing, "for sale" housing, three bedroom units, 50 du/ac, or mixed use. Tri-Met supports mixed income housing; however, the city may want the ability to approve a project containing more than 20/30% affordable housing without additional requirements at some point in the future.

Child Care -- Portland's ordinance qualifies a project based on provision of a child care center or funding for child care services in lieu of affordable housing and other alternative requirements. The Russellville School site project uses a child care center as the public benefit to qualify for the tax abatement in Portland. The city may want to consider adding a similar provision to Section 11, page 16 as #9 and deleting Section 10, #3, page 12.

Full Cost Fee Requirement -- Resolution No. 2154, Item, end of line 4 -- Replace "does provide for" with "requires"; under "Budget Impact" on the same page replace "is allowed" with "requires"; also for Council Bill No. 23-97, Budget Impact, replace "is allowed" with "requires". The 1995 state law requires that the fee cover the full cost of administering the program.

RE: Council Bill No. 23-97, "Property Tax Exemption For New Transit Supportive Multiple-Unit Housing or Mixed Use Development"

Dear Mayor McRobert and Members of the City Council:

Tri-Met supports adoption of this incentive for transit oriented development.

City staff did an excellent job on the proposal. For example, the crime prevention plan requirement plows new ground in defining the importance of pedestrian "amenities" to the public welfare.

We would like to share one concern with you. The proposed ordinance only requires a minimum of 24 housing units per acre. The suburban market is providing housing without incentives at 24 units per acre. Portland's October 1996 ordinance, which was endorsed by the Tri-Met Board and the Multnomah County Board of Commissioners, requires a minimum density of 35 units per acre. A variety of studies and projects have shown that up to 35 units per acre can be built without structured parking or parking ratios lower than acceptable in the market place.

Please consider raising the minimum density to 30 units per acre. This would provide a greater benefit to transit while preserving the other public benefits of the proposed ordinance.

Tri-Met appreciates Gresham's continuing leadership in transforming important public goals into real projects.

Very truly yours,

Robert E. Stacey, Jr., Executive Director
Policy and Planning Division

Dear Mr. Harker

I have reviewed Gresham's initial property tax exemption proposal for transit supportive multiple family housing that you shared with me. I had a few concerns about the percentage of affordable units and how it may affect the ability of developers to use tax exempt bond financing and/or federal Low Income Housing Tax Credits.

In paragraph (1) the proposal states "at least 20% of the units but no more than 30% of the units rent for rates which are affordable to households earning 60% or less of median income or 10% below the market rate, whichever is less." Those percentages appear not to be consistent with the IRS requirements for both tax exempt bond financing and LIHTCs. Both of these financing tools require that at least 40% of the project units be affordable to households earning 60% or less of median income OR 20% of the units be affordable to households earning 50% or less of median. Without one or both of these financing tools it would appear to be very difficult to meet your proposed goal.

In paragraph (2), while your proposal at the high end meets the threshold of at least 20% of the units affordable to households at or below 50% of median, without other heavy subsidies, I'm not sure that this mix would be financially feasible. Most of the mixed income projects that use tax exempt financing use the 40% of units at or below 60% of median to two reasons. First, most combine them with LIHTCs, and the project only gets credit for the units below 60% of median. The equity on a project with only 20% of the units affordable is usually not enough to make the project feasible. Second, the income discrepancy between a unit at 50% and one at 60% may have major consequences on the cash flow.

Until recently the majority of tax exempt bond with LIHTCs have been 100% affordable due to the financial consequences indicated above. The 248 unit GSL project on Powell in your city for example, has all the units affordable to households at 60% or less of median. However, we are starting to see developments that have mixed incomes with 40% of the units affordable and the balance of the units ranging from 80% to 100% of median income. A current example is the Buckman Heights project located next to Benson High School in NE Portland. That development will have 144 units with approximately 58 units affordable to people at 60% of median with the balance at market rates. The balance of units above the mandatory affordable percentage may have different requirements depending on who is the issuer of the bonds.

The proposed changes as outlined in the March 4th memo from Jonathan Harker appear to answer the concerns that I saw in the initial proposal. In Jonathan's description of the three projects he indicates that Russelville has no affordable units. That phase of the project does not have tax-exempt funding & is not seeking LIHTCS's.

I applaud Gresham's efforts to include affordable housing into the transit districts. I hope this information will help you in finalizing your ordinance. Please don't hesitate to call me if you have any questions.

Dear Mr. Harker and All,

Human Solutions is a private non-profit agency working to improve east Multnomah County by building affordable housing and providing services to homeless and low income people. We recently won the 1997 Oregon Housing and Community Services Award for Excellence in Housing for our transit zone development, Ankeny Woods.

Gresham is to be applauded for taking very important steps toward assuring that housing affordable to all segments of the community is provided throughout the community. I'm sure you realize that about 40% of the residents of Gresham live at or below 50% of median family income.

I have read your proposed code section 10.50.095 Housing At Rental Rates or Sale Prices Accessible to a Broad Range of the General Public. While it is well intended, there seems to be some information you understandably don't have. This is seen in your proposing a maximum on the percentage of units which can be low income.

Defining a limit of a maximum number of low income units per development might be helpful to for profit developers, but will not work for non-profit developers who rely primarily on low income tax credits (LIHTCs) to fund their projects. LIHTCs are a very competitive funding source. One of the points of competition is the number of housing units in the project for low and very-low income households. Obviously then, any proposed code should include opportunities for non-profit developers who can help meet Gresham needs by providing quality complexes which have mostly low income housing. For financial reasons, for-profit developers are not likely to put in more units than they have to, and non-profits could continue to make use of this important source of funds and comply with your codes also.

I would be happy to provide you with more information if you have questions. Thank you again for your work on behalf of everyone who lives in Gresham.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Carolyn Piper".

I. Recommendation/Action:

Approve resolution authorizing the issuance of Tax and Revenue Anticipation Notes in an amount not to exceed $11,000,000.

II. Background/Analysis:

Under ORS 288.165, the County is authorized to issue TRANS in an amount not to exceed 80% of the amount of revenues the County expects to receive in Fiscal Year 1998/99. The notes represent approximately 7.5% of the County's 1998/99 property tax levy, adjusted for delinquencies, prior year payments, and discounts.

The proceeds from the notes will provide the needed cashflow to the General Fund for the period from July 1, 1998 through November 30, 1998, prior to the collection of property taxes.

Ater Wynne Hewitt Dodson & Skerritt has been selected bond counsel, Regional Financial Advisors has been selected financial advisor, and U.S. Bank Trust has been selected paying agent/registrar. All were selected in accordance with County procurement procedures. The County will issue a Request for Proposal to select the underwriter for the issue.

III. Financial Impact:

The Fiscal Year 1998/99 County budget includes $550,000 to pay the estimated interest on the TRANS.

This TRAN issue meets all the requirements contained in Resolution 95-182, the County's Financial and Budget Policy.

IV. Legal Issues:

Bond Counsel and County Counsel have either reviewed or will review all the necessary documents.

V. Controversial Issues:

I am not aware of any related controversial issues.

VI. Link to Current County Policy:

The "Short-term and Long-term Debt Financing Policy" directs the County to evaluate the feasibility of issuing short-term debt if the financing has been determined to benefit the County.

VII. Citizen Participation:

RESOLUTION NO. 98- 64

WHEREAS, the above-entitled matter is before the Board of County Commissioners of Multnomah County, Oregon (the "County"), upon a showing by the Director, Finance Division, that, prior to the receipt of sufficient monies from tax collections and from other budgeted and unpledged revenues which the County estimates will be received from other sources during the fiscal year 1998-99, there is a need for the County to contract indebtedness, not to exceed in the aggregate its estimated maximum cumulative cash flow deficit as defined in regulations of the United States Treasury, by the issuance of tax and revenue anticipation notes (the "Notes") to meet the County's current expenses for fiscal year 1998-99; and

WHEREAS, it appearing to the Board that Oregon Revised Statutes Section 288.165(3) permits the issuance of tax and revenue anticipation notes in an amount which does not exceed 80% of the amount budgeted which the County estimates will be received during the 1998-99 fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, prior to the sale and delivery of the Notes, provision therefor shall have been made in the County's duly adopted budget which shall have been filed in the manner as provided by law, and ad valorem tax levies upon real and personal property for the fiscal year 1998-99 will be levied and in the process of collection by Multnomah County, Oregon;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

Section 1. Issuance of Notes. The Board of County Commissioners of the County authorizes the issuance and negotiated sale of not to exceed $11,000,000 of its Tax and Revenue Anticipation Notes, Series 1998. The Notes are issued pursuant to Oregon Revised Statutes Section 288.165(3). The Notes shall be issued in denominations of $5,000 each, or integral multiples thereof, as negotiable notes of the County and shall bear interest at a true effective rate not to exceed six percent (6.00%). The County authorizes the Director, Finance Division or the Treasury Manager (the "Authorized Representatives") to determine the principal amount, interest rate, denominations and to determine the Underwriter for the purchase of the Notes, to evaluate the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement, and to execute and deliver an appropriate Note Purchase Agreement. The Notes shall not be issued prior to the beginning of, and shall mature not later than, the end of the fiscal year in which such taxes or other revenues are expected to be received. The Notes issued in anticipation of taxes or other revenues shall not be issued in an amount greater than eighty percent (80%) of the amount budgeted to be received in fiscal year 1998-99.

Section 2. Title and Execution of Notes. The Notes shall be entitled "Multnomah County, Oregon Tax and Revenue Anticipation Notes, Series 1998" and shall be executed on behalf of the County with the manual or facsimile signature of the Chair of the Board of County Commissioners and shall be attested by the Director, Finance Division. The Notes may be initially issued in book-entry form as a single, typewritten note and issued in the registered name of the nominee of The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York in book-entry form. The Notes may be issued without certificates being made available to the note holders except in the event that the book-entry form is discontinued in which event the Notes will be issued with certificates to be executed delivered and transferred as herein provided.

Section 3. Appointment of Paying Agent and Note Registrar. The Board appoints U.S. Bank Trust National Association, through its corporate trust office in Portland, Oregon, as Paying Agent and Note Registrar to the County for the issuance of the Notes.

Section 4. Book-Entry System. The ownership of the Notes shall be recorded through entries on the books of banks and broker-dealer participants and correspondents that are related to entries on The Depository Trust Company book-entry system. The Notes shall be initially issued in the form of a separate, fully registered typewritten note (the "Global Certificate"). The Global Certificate shall be registered in the name of Cede & Co. as nominee (the "Nominee") of The Depository Trust Company (the "Depository") as the "Registered Owner", and such Global Certificate shall be lodged with the Depository until maturity of the Note issue. The Paying Agent shall remit payment for the maturing principal and interest on the Notes to the Registered Owner for distribution by the Nominee for the benefit of the noteholders (the "Beneficial Owner" or "Record Owner") by recorded entry on the books of the Depository participants and correspondents. While the Notes are in book-entry-only form, the Notes will be available in denominations of $5,000 or any integral multiple thereof.

The Authorized Representative has filed with the Depository a Blanket Issuer Letter of Representations, dated March 9, 1995, to induce the Depository to accept the Notes as eligible for deposit at the Depository. The County is authorized to provide the Depository with the Preliminary Official Statement, together with the completed Depository's underwriting questionnaire.

The execution and delivery of the Blanket Letter of Representations and the providing to the Depository of the Preliminary Official Statement and the underwriting questionnaire shall not in any way impose upon the County any obligation whatsoever with respect to persons having interests in the Notes other than the Registered Owners of the Notes as shown on the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent and Note Registrar. The Paying Agent and Note Registrar, in writing, shall accept the book-entry system and shall agree to take all action necessary to at all times comply with the Depository's operational arrangements for the book-entry system. The Authorized Representative may take all other action to qualify the Notes for the Depository's book-entry system.

In the event (a) the Depository determines not to continue to act as securities depository for the Notes, or (b) the County determines that the Depository shall no longer so act, then the County will discontinue the book-entry system with the Depository. If the County fails to identify another qualified securities depository to replace the Depository, the Notes shall no longer be a book-entry-only issue but shall be registered in the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent and Note Registrar in the name of the Registered Owner as appearing on the registration books of the Paying Agent and Note Registrar and thereafter in the name or names of the owners of the Notes transferring or exchanging Notes in accordance with the provisions herein.

With respect to Notes registered in the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent and Note Registrar in the name of the Nominee of the Depository, the County, and the Paying Agent and Note Registrar shall have no responsibility or obligation to any participant or correspondent of the Depository or to any Beneficial Owner on behalf of which such participants or correspondents act as agent for the Registered Owner with respect to:

(i) the accuracy of the records of the Depository, the Nominee or any participant or correspondent with respect to any ownership interest in the Notes,

(ii) the delivery to any participant or correspondent or any other person, other than a Registered Owner as shown in the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent and Note Registrar, of any notice with respect to the Notes, including any notice of redemption,

(iii) the payment to any participant, correspondent or any other person other than the Registered Owner of the Notes as shown in the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent and Note Registrar, of any amount with respect to principal or interest on the Notes. Notwithstanding the book-entry system, the County may treat and consider the Registered Owner in whose name each Note is registered in the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent and Note Registrar as the Registered Owner and absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of payment of principal and interest with respect to such Note, or for the purpose of registering transfers with respect to such Note, or for all other purposes whatsoever. The County shall pay or cause to be paid all principal of and interest on the Notes only to or upon the order of the Registered Owner, as shown in the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent and Note Registrar, or their representative attorneys duly authorized in writing, and all such payments shall be valid and effective to fully satisfy and discharge the County's obligation with respect to payment thereof to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

Upon delivery by the Depository to the County and to the Registered Owner of a Note of written notice to the effect that the Depository has determined to substitute a new nominee in place of the Nominee then the word "Nominee" in this Resolution shall refer to such new nominee of the Depository, and upon receipt of such notice, the County shall promptly deliver a copy thereof to the Paying Agent and Note Registrar.

Section 5. Payment of Notes. If the book-entry system has been discontinued, then the principal of and interest on the Notes shall be payable upon presentation of the Notes at maturity at the corporate trust office of the Paying Agent in Portland, Oregon.

Section 6. Special Account. The County shall establish a Special Account for the Notes. The County covenants for the benefit of the owners of the Notes to deposit into the Special Account not less than 100 percent of all monies received by the County from its ad valorem property tax levy for fiscal year 1998-99, excluding any payments received in respect of delinquent taxes from levies for prior fiscal years until the Special Account holds an amount sufficient to pay principal of and interest on the Notes at maturity; provided that, after payment of the Notes at maturity, any amounts remaining in the Special Account may be used by the County for any lawful purpose. Monies in the Special Account shall not be invested in instruments which mature after the maturity date of the Notes. Monies in the Special Account shall be used solely to pay principal of and interest on the Notes. Additional Notes cannot be issued which will have any claim upon the monies in the Special Account. The Special Account must be fully funded prior to establishing and financing any other special account which is fundable from the 1998-99 ad valorem tax levy.

Section 7. Optional Redemption. The Notes are not subject to optional redemption prior to their stated maturity date of June 30, 1999.

Section 8. Form of Notes. The Notes shall be issued substantially in the form as approved by the County and Note Counsel to the County.

Section 9. Negotiated Sale of Notes and Appointment of Underwriter. The Authorized Representative is authorized to negotiate and execute and deliver, on behalf of the County, a Note Purchase Agreement providing for the purchase of the Notes with an underwriter to be selected by the Authorized Representative.

Section 10. Appointment of Note Counsel. The Board appoints the firm of Ater Wynne Hewitt Dodson & Skerritt, LLP, of Portland, Oregon as Note Counsel.

Section 11. Appointment of Financial Advisor. The Board appoints Regional Financial Advisors, Inc. as Financial Advisor to the County for the issuance of the Notes.

Section 12. Covenant as to Arbitrage. The County covenants for the benefit of the owners of the Notes to comply with all provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which are required for the interest on the Notes to be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes, unless the County obtains an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel that such compliance is not required for the interest payable on the Notes to be excluded. The County makes the following specific covenants with respect to the Code:

- A. The County shall not take any action or omit any action, if it would cause the Notes to become "arbitrage bonds" under Section 148 of the Code and shall pay any rebates to the United States which are required by Section 148(f) of the Code.
- B. The County shall not use the proceeds of the Notes in a manner which would cause the Notes to be "private activity bonds" within the meaning of Section 141 of the Code.

The covenants contained herein and any covenants in the closing documents for the Notes shall constitute contracts with the owners of the Notes, and shall be enforceable by such owners.

Section 12. Notice of Material Events to Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board. Pursuant to SEC Rule 15c2-12(d)(3), the County agrees to provide or cause to be provided, in a timely manner, to the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (the "MSRB"), notice of the occurrence of any of the following events with respect to the Notes, if material:

- a. principal and interest payment delinquencies;
- b. non-payment related defaults;
- c. unscheduled draws on debt service reserves reflecting financial difficulties;
- d. unscheduled draws on credit enhancements reflecting financial difficulties;
- e. substitution of credit or liquidity providers, or their failure to perform;
- f. adverse tax opinions or events affecting the tax-exempt status of the Notes;
- g. modifications to rights of holders of the Notes;
- h. bond calls;
- i. defeasances;

- j. release, substitution, or sale of property securing repayment of the Notes; and
- k. rating changes.

The County may from time to time choose to provide notice of the occurrence of certain other events, in addition to those listed above, if, in the judgment of the County, such other event is material with respect to the Notes, but the County does not undertake any commitment to provide such notice of any event except those events listed above.

Section 13. Preliminary and Final Official Statement. The County shall, if required, cause the preparation of the preliminary official statement for the Notes which shall be available for distribution to prospective investors. In addition, if required, an official statement shall be prepared and ready for delivery to the purchasers of the Notes no later than the seventh (7th) business day after the sale of the Notes. When advised that the final official statement does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements contained in the official statement not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, the Authorized Representative is authorized to certify the accuracy of the official statement on behalf of the County.

Section 14. Resolution to Constitute Contract. In consideration of the purchase and acceptance of any or all of the Notes by those who shall own the same from time to time (the "Noteowners"), the provisions of this Resolution shall be part of the contract of the County with the Noteowners and shall be deemed to be and shall constitute a contract between the County and the Noteowners. The covenants, pledges, representations and warranties contained in this Resolution or in the closing documents executed in connection with the Notes, including without limitation the County's covenants and pledges contained in Section 6 hereof, and the other covenants and agreements herein set forth to be performed by or on behalf of the County shall be contracts for the equal benefit, protection and security of the Noteowners, all of which shall be of equal rank without preference, priority or distinction of any of such Notes over any other thereof, except as expressly provided in or pursuant to this Resolution.

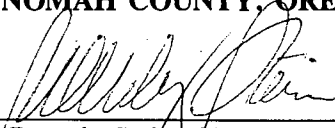

Section 15. Closing of the Sale and Delivery of the Notes. The Authorized Representative is authorized to execute and deliver such additional documents, including a Tax Certificate, and any and all other things or acts necessary for the sale and delivery of the Notes as herein authorized. Such acts of the Authorized Representative are for and on behalf of the County and are authorized by the Board of County Commissioners of the County.

13 legal protection; that the property rights of owners or keepers and nonowners of 14 animals should be protected and that the health; safety and welfare of the 16 an ordinance.

Mr. Thomas Buchholz
109 - 10th Street
Oregon City, OR 97045

Dear Mr. Buchholz:

In your letter of September 5, 1996, you cite to the language in ORS 8.680 which refers to the district attorney's prosecuting for forfeitures. That statute goes on to provide, "...and for which no other mode of prosecution and collection is expressly provided by statute. . . ." Therefore, you must look to the statutes relating specifically to the forfeiture of animals in order to determine who the appropriate parties are.

There are two ORS chapters dealing with impoundment and forfeiture of dogs. ORS 609.090 sets out the criteria for impounding certain dogs and disposing of those dogs.

ORS 167.310 and the statutes following it deal with offenses against animals. ORS 167.345 sets out the circumstances when officers may enter premises to care for an animal and the circumstances under which, with a warrant, they may impound such an animal. ORS 167.347 sets out when a forfeiture hearing can be held while the criminal charges are pending. The statute provides that the county or animal control agency may file that petition. Last, ORS 167.350 provides that the forfeiture may be ordered as part of the sentence for conviction of an animal offense.

I am not familiar with any other provisions related to the forfeiture of dogs.

I do not know the specific facts of your case, which apparently has been litigated, and do not intend by this letter to suggest how that case should have been resolved.

Very truly yours,
