PUBLIC NOTICE

Criminal Justice Advisory Council Retreat

8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on September 11 and 12, 2007

McMenamins Kennedy School
5736 NE 33rd Avenue, Portland

A quorum of the Multnomah County Board may attend all or portions of the September 11 and 12, 2007 Multnomah County Criminal Justice Advisory Council (CJAC) and invited others two-day retreat. The objectives of the retreat are to finalize the vision and identify desired components of the shared local public safety system. To begin development of a plan for achieving that vision, participants will identify and prioritize potential enhancements to and efficiencies to be found in the existing system. Participants will also receive a briefing on the draft State of the System Report, including information collected to date and work completed to date as part of the Public Safety Planning Process. Special sessions during the retreat will include a town hall-like forum with citizen and service provider representatives on the first day, and a lunch meeting with community opinion leaders on the second day.
