Work Experience

January 2005 to Present

Personal & Business Banker, Washington Mutual Bank

My position with WaMu started at the bottom, as a teller. Within 6 months I was out in the lobby as a new accounts/customer service agent. I help my personal and business customers make good decisions and help them find financial solutions that fit their needs. This needs to be done while taking care of the everyday needs of customers. Managing appointments, understanding and managing necessary paperwork, explaining restrictions on transactions and accounts, and meeting goals are all a part of a days work.

August 2004 to December 2004

AP/AR, Reception and Office Management, Staffing Solutions Temp Agency

At General Transportation I was fast, thorough, and caught a lot of billing mistakes. At Allen Trust Company it was soon discovered that I was more intelligent than your average receptionist so I was put to work reorganizing and reformatting the company's filing system. While the new system was being implemented I was still carrying out all of my regular duties as receptionist as well, including but not limited to organizing luncheons, taking letters, handling legal documents, and managing the front office.

October 2003 to August 2004

Receptionist, Sunset Fuel

I was hired to answer phones, greet customers, and shuffle mail in and out of the office. As my manager's faith in my capabilities grew so did my responsibilities. I handled all move accounts, balanced checks for A/R, tracked oil records, cancelled plans, designed and sent out marketing, all while continuing regular front office duties.

May 2002 to February 2004

Independent Contractor and Artistic Assistant, Northwest Children's Theater

My responsibilities grew from teaching and house managing to assistant directing main stage shows and designing sets. As Artistic Assistant my job was to keep the Artistic Director on track while producing shows. That meant collaborating with other artists, publishers, actors, writers, keeping track of meetings, obtaining rights to plays, typing up and tracking down contracts, props and scripts, editing publications and pulling files, and reorganizing the Artistic Director's office.

Dear Multnomah County Library Board

I am excited to send you my application for one of your four vacant positions today. I grew up a low-income kid in Tucson, Arizona where my local branch of the Pima County Library played a pivotal role in my life. From the time I could read, I devoured books as fast as I could. (I was one of those kids who would resort to reading the back of the cereal box at breakfast if I had to.)

I can still remember getting my first library card, and how proud I was to have an "official" document with my name on it. The library was where I discovered Matilda, The Witches, and the Babysitter's Club. Later, it's where I met Holden Caulfield and Frodo Baggins for the first time.

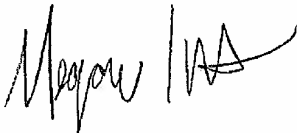

Our weekly trips to the library were a special thing my mom and I did together. Without them, I think my childhood would have been less full, and less magic. I grew up to become a journalist, and then an education advocate. I am not sure I would have developed the skills to walk down either of those paths without the knowledge I gained as I consumed book after book – fiction and nonfiction – from our local library.

As an adult, I am building a career around ensuring that all kids have access to the same kind of education and resources that I believe set me on a path to success, and allowed me to grow into the middle class. In my volunteer life, I am looking for an opportunity to do the same in a way that is personally meaningful and – hopefully – beneficial for the community.

I would be honored to talk with you further about joining your board as a way to combine my passion for reading, with my passion for ensuring all members of our community – regardless of financial background – have access to important resources the county library system has to offer.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Warm regards,
