Keeps

- Continue to provide statutorily-mandated essential public safety services to Multnomah County: Corrections, Law Enforcement and Court support
- Innovative/New – Trail Rescue Program
- Restructured/Redesign – Lieutenant position for CA Liaison, Corrections Grand Jury, Jail inspections and policy development

Sheriff's Office FY 2014 Proposed Budget

Cuts

- Programs — The Gresham Temporary Hold (GTH) program need remains, but funding is not in the budget.
- FTE
  - In-Jail Gang Deputy
  - Corrections Counselor
- Impacts
  - Mitigation Strategies — MCSO working with East County jurisdictions on their participation in the funding of this needed resource.
  - Risks — Less information for Gang Task Force without In-Jail Gang Intelligence, less effectiveness in the community. Without GTH less patrol resources due to time offline in transport. Less inmate programming without counselor.

State Impacts

- Governors Budget – used for our FY14 revenue assumptions, may be too optimistic
- February Legislative Session – in process, may impact our budget in both positive and negative ways
- Mitigation Strategies – Working with the County and OSSA legislative teams to provide testimony on bills
- Outstanding Issues – Legislative session is still underway

Federal Impacts

- Sequestration effects still in process
- Fewer federal grant funding opportunities available

Sheriff's Office FY 2014 Proposed Budget

Issues, Risks & Challenges

- Policy Issues
  - Number of available Jail beds
  - Implementation of new Kiosk Systems and Phone Contracts
  - School Resource Officers
- Short-Term Concerns
  - Unfunded Post commitments - management
  - Corrections Deputy Hiring
- Long-Term Concerns
  - Public Safety Funding

Other

- Relocation of Hansen operations to East County
- Portage Building repair and lease plan
