Additional requirements are knowledge of the Hispanic/Latino culture and beliefs, work experience with diverse cultural communities, and the ability to fluently read, write, and speak Spanish.

An analysis of the Family Intervention Specialist (6305) and Case Manager Senior (6296) classifications was performed before making an allocation decision:

The Family Intervention Specialist (6305) classification provides professional family support using case management practices and program coordination designed to assist families of at-risk students in an elementary school, middle school or housing facility and guide the family to appropriate alcohol and drug and other needed services in the school and community. Incumbents in this classification provide program coordination between schools and social service programs and work collaboratively with school personnel and services coordinators. Minimum qualifications include the equivalent to a Bachelor's degree with major course work in social services or a related field, and two (2) years of professional experience working with at-risk multi-ethnic low income families presenting a broad range of problems, including substance abuse identification, intervention and referrals, maintaining relationships with families, and monitoring ongoing services providing outreach to resistant families. This classification is not a good match as the work has changed significantly and the positions previously performing these duties were eliminated during past staff reductions. The current focus of the work is to provide direct client services and case management duties.

The Case Manager Senior (6296) classification is the advanced journey level class in the series and provides advanced case management duties, in order to determine initial eligibility for services and benefits. Incumbents in this class are assigned the most advanced and complex case management functions requiring a higher level of responsibility, applying advanced subject knowledge and exercising significant independent judgment and initiative. In addition, employees in this classification may provide technical and functional supervision of other case management staff. Minimum qualifications for this classification are equivalent to an Associate's degree with major course work in social science, behavioral science, and four (4) years of case management experience with a minimum of one year of experience at the full performance/journey case management level. This classification is the best fit as the work requires case management duties, subject knowledge expertise for client services, specialized cultural knowledge and skills, and coordination of services in partnership with community agencies. These duties require an advanced level of knowledge that demonstrates independent decision making and initiative in meeting objectives and deadlines.

The duties, responsibilities and qualifications support these positions are allocated to Case Manager Senior (6296).

As a result of past staff reductions and the current reclass requests; no positions are assigned to the Family Intervention Specialist classification. Class/Comp will delimit this classification and remove it from the active class list. This review has determined the purpose, qualifications, duties, and responsibilities as described on the submitted position description are substantially the same as that of the Case Manager Senior. The Case Manager Senior classification is determined to be an Equivalent Classification for the Family Intervention Specialist. With equivalent classifications, the employee's seniority will count toward their seniority in the Case Manager Senior classification and there will be no change to the date.
