

Mental Health Jail Diversion Feasibility Assessment

Abbey Stamp, Local Public Safety Coordinating Council
Lore Joplin, Lore Joplin Consulting

Commissioner Shiprack's FY15 Budget Note

- Follow up on trip to Bexar County
- $100,000 for LPSCC to facilitate process and convene stakeholders to produce assessment
 - Evaluate current jail diversion programs
 - Estimate number of people in Multnomah County in need of mental health diversion services
 - Evaluate community capacity to sustain new programming
 - Estimate savings

Assessment process

- Selection of Lore Joplin
- Ongoing consultation with Commissioner Shiprack
- Align with other mental health public safety system improvement efforts
- Budget Modification: December 4, 2014

Project Status Update

- Sequential Intercept map
- Grounded in philosophy that values jail diversion
- Interviews
- Preliminary literature review

Project Status Update

- Data
 - Existing service capacity
 - Population numbers and needs
- Timeline
 - Verbal recommendations
 - Assessment completion

Questions?