

CURRICULUM VITAE

JOSÉ ANTONIO PADÍN

June 2013

Education

| | | |
|-------|------|---|
| Ph.D. | 1998 | Sociology. University of Wisconsin-Madison |
| M.A. | 1989 | Sociology. University of Wisconsin-Madison |
| B.A. | 1985 | Sociology and Anthropology. Haverford College |

Employment

Associate Professor, Department of Sociology, Portland State University, 2004-present
Director, Student Mentors Inspiring Latino Excellence (SMILE), Portland State University, 2008-10
Director, Chicano-Latino Studies Program, Portland State University, 2004-08
Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, Portland State University, 1998-2004
Instructor, Department of Sociology, Portland State University, 1995-1998
Research Assistant, Center on Wisconsin Strategy, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 1994-95
Graduate Lecturer, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 1993-94
Instructor, University of Wisconsin Extension (Wisconsin Community Leadership Development), 1989-1993

Dissertation

Imperialism by Invitation: The Roots of Crisis in the 'Puerto Rican Model' of Development. Directed by Erik Olin Wright.

Refereed Publications

Padín, José Antonio. 2011. "The Normative Mulattoes: Latinos and the Press on the New Immigration Frontier," in Heather M. Dalmage and Barbara Katz Rothman (eds.) Race in an Era of Change. New York: Oxford University Press.

Padín, José A. 2005 "The Normative Mulattoes: Latinos and the Press on the New Immigration Frontier." Sociological Perspectives, vol. 48 (1):49-75.

Padín, José A. and Shelly Smith. 2004. "Death of a Nation: Conservative Talk Radio's Immigration and Race Curriculum," in Peter Phillips (ed.) Censored 2005. New York: Seven Stories.

Padín, José A. 2003 "Puerto Rico in the Post War: Liberalized Development Banking and the Fall of the 'Fifth Tiger.'" World Development 31 (2): 281-301.

Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, Tyrone Foreman, and José A. Padín. 1999. "I Am Not a Racist But...': Mapping White Racial Ideology in the Post Civil Rights Period." Working Papers on Historical Systems, Peoples, and Cultures. No. 3. Bowling Green University.

Padín, José A. 1997. "NAFTA's Future? The Logic of Puerto Rico's Export-led Development." International Journal of Sociology & Social Policy. 17(11-12): 8-47.

Padín, José A. 1996. [Review of] My Music is My Flag: Puerto Rican Musicians and their New York Communities, 1917-1940. Contemporary Sociology 25(1):115-116.

Honors, Grants, and Fellowships

2011-13. Principal Investigator. "Breaking Racial Barriers, Nurturing Adolescent Success: Potential Benefits of Mentoring Relationships Between Adults and Adolescents from Different Racial/Ethnic Backgrounds." Faculty Enhancement Grant, Portland State University. $11,340.

2012. John Eliot Allen Outstanding Teacher Award. College of Letters and Science, Portland State University.

2008-10. Director. Student Mentors Inspiring Latino Excellence: After-school Mentoring for Latino High School and Middle School Students in the Portland Public Schools District. Portland Children's Investment Fund. $292,000

2004-06. Principal Investigator. "Economic Development, and the Need for Foresight in the Incorporation of Immigrant Workers on the Oregon Coast." Oregon Sea Grant. $86,000

2003-04. Principal Investigator. "In Their Own Words: Residents of Racially-Integrated Portland Neighborhoods On the Joys and Challenges of Living in Diverse Neighborhood." Portland State University STRT 2003-04 Incentive Grant. $500

2003-04. Principal Investigator (with Daniel Sullivan). "Neighborhoods and Race: A Pilot Study of Social and Ecological Determinants of Stable Integration" the Provost's Faculty Enhancement Grant, Portland State University. $3,900

2002. John Eliot Allen Outstanding Teacher Award. College of Letters and Science, Portland State University.

University Service

| | |
|--------------|---|
| 2013 | Faculty Senate |
| 2011-present | Graduate Council |
| 2011 | President's Hispanic Affairs Advisory Committee |
| 2010-present | Center for Interdisciplinary Mentoring Research |
| 2005 | Provost's Ad Hoc Committee on Internationalization |
| 2004-08 | Director, Chicano-Latino Studies Program |
| 2004-05 | Steering Committee, Faculty Senate |
| 2003-06 | Faculty Senate |
| 2003-05 | Faculty Search and Screen Committee, Black Studies Department |
| 2003-05 | Institutional Review Board |
| 2003-05 | Executive Board, American Association of University Professors, PSU |
| 2001-03 | Chair, Center for Academic Excellence Advisory Board |
| 1999-2003 | Globalization Research Interest Group |
| 1999-2001 | Faculty Advisory Board, Center for Academic Excellence |
| 1999 | Faculty Search and Screen Committee, Chicano-Latino Studies Program |
| 1998-2000 | Diversity Achievement Scholarship Review Committee |
| 1998 | Laurel Graduate Fellowship Award, Review Committee |

Professionally-related Service

Reviewer for the following journals: Sociological Perspectives, DuBois Review, Ethnic and Racial Studies, Sociological Focus, Social Problems, The Sociological Quarterly, Latino Studies, Race and Social Problems

Memberships in Professional Societies

American Sociological Association, Pacific Sociological Association

Service to the Community

| | |
|--------------|--|
| 2000-Present | Portland Workers' Rights Board |
| 2010-12 | Bridges to Baccalaureate |
| 2010-12 | Site Council, Lincoln High School |
| 2008-10 | Oregon Leadership Institute/Student Mentors Inspiring Latino Excellence. |
| 2004-06 | Oregon Leadership Institute. Oregon Council on Hispanic Advancement. |