County Commissioners:

I feel strongly that Portland needs its own taxing district. This has been a long-standing problem and it's time to detach the library's funding from the county and the city. The last vote lost public support (after the vote) because many didn't realize library services were going to be cut back even tho the measure passed. Though the library is popular, it will not continue to be strongly supported if people feel betrayed ~ through passing measures then cutting funding. The library needs its own district. Now.

Thank you,

Cherry Britta
