Will Layng statement for Multnomah County Commission 5-24-18

Good morning Chair Kafoury and members of the Multnomah County Commission. My name is Will Layng, I'm the Executive Director of Portland Jobs With Justice. Jobs With Justice is a coalition of over one hundred community groups and local unions that supports worker rights and quality public services by mobilizing the thousands of community members who have taken the Jobs With Justice pledge to be there five times a year for another worker's struggle.

I am here today to express our frustration and concern with the ongoing union busting and waste of taxpayer resources at Multnomah County's contractor, Volunteers of America. VOA workers voted in September of 2016 by a margin of forty six to three to form their union with AFSCME. During the organizing campaign and the eighteen months of contract negotiations that followed, your contractor, Volunteers of America, spent thousands of dollars, taxpayer money, in legal maneuvers, threats and intimidation of workers, and delaying tactics.

Now, even though both sides are very close to an agreement after so much waste and disgusting union busting tactics from VOA, the employer refuses to agree to basic union protections that are common in union agreements in the public and private sector in our state.

Workers at Volunteers of America do a great job taking care of people in a very difficult transition time in their lives. Their work should be applauded and recognized for the important public service that it is. Instead they are facing union busting and incredible delays from VOA and CEO Kay Toran. It's no wonder that turnover at VOA is so high when leadership does not listen and does not negotiate fairly.

We demand a fair contract now for VOA workers, I ask the County to step up and support front line workers who do amazing work in very tough conditions. Please do everything in your power to ensure that Kay Toran and Volunteers of America settle a fair contract now with their hard working employees. Thank you for your time.
