Citizen Involvement Committee Nondepartmental

Description

The Citizen Involvement Committee's mission is to inform residents of Multnomah County of their opportunities and rights in the decision-making process of all aspects of County government, create meaningful citizen involvement opportunities, and integrate citizens in the decision-making processes of their government. It is responsible for ensuring that citizen concerns are heard and accounted for early in the formal decision-making process, and working with citizen boards, commissions, task forces, associations, ad hoc groups and individuals to help elected officials exercise home rule authority.

Action Plan

- Increase public awareness of County issues, services and programs by increasing publications from five to seven and increasing the number of copies distributed by 30%, sponsoring four public hearings, and making two public presentations to community organizations each quarter.
- Include as many citizens as possible in all phases of County decision-making by increasing the number of citizens referred for nomination to County Boards and Committees.

Tax Supervising

Independent Organizations Nondepartmental

Description

The Tax Supervising and Conservation Commission was established to encourage the efficiency and economy of local governments in Multnomah County. It is charged by state statutes to review, coordinate and supervise the budgeting and taxing activities of 43 governments. The TSCC protects and represents the public interest; ensures compliance with Local Budget Law; provides local governments with advice and assistance, and maintains a record of their debt and taxing activities.

Local discretion over the TSCC is limited by ORS 294.605-294.705. Five Commissioners are appointed by the Governor to four year terms. The budget must be provided for in Multnomah County's General Fund in the amount of $230,000 and an office furnished to the agency. The Attorney General is designated by law as legal counsel.

Multnomah Commission On Children and Families

Independent Organizations Nondepartmental

Description

The Multnomah Commission on Children and Families (MCCF) was established by County ordinance on December 16, 1993. The MCCF will provide leadership in promoting a system based on strengths and supporting wellness. For the children, youth and families of Multnomah County, the MCCF will develop a comprehensive, inclusive planning process, develop policy, review and comment on all planning efforts, and advocate on their behalf. The Commission will also oversee implementation of the local plan that is outcome based and consistent with specified benchmarks.

A budget for the MCCF has not appeared separately in the past because the MCCF's predecessor, the Community Children and Youth Services Commission (CCYSC), was displayed in what is now the Community and Families Services. Community and Family Services will be responsible for administering funds previously administered by CCYSC. The Youth Program Office budget is now divided into two, one part to remain with Community and Family Services and the other to become the operating budget for MCCF.

The MCCF must approve budgets for funds that flow directly from the State Commission on Children and Families.

Action Plan

- Develop, by June 30, 1995, a comprehensive plan that will guide deployment of resources for children, youth and their families in order to increase their ability to become healthy, contributing members of society.
- Develop, by June 30, 1995, a policy relative to children, youth and families that will facilitate their access to and receipt of those services most relevant and appropriate to them.
