Office of Citizen Involvement

RE: Citizen Budget Advisory Committee Appointments/Reappointments

The following Multnomah County citizens are recommended for reappointment to their current Citizen Budget Advisory Committee (CBAC): Ruth Jones and Larry Betcher to the Department of Community Justice CBAC, Brenda Ray Scott to the Non Departmental CBAC, and Julie Cieloha and Phyllis Thiemann to the Sheriff's Office CBAC. These 2nd term appointments will end June 30, 2017.

The following Multnomah County citizens are recommended for appoint to a Citizen Budget Advisory Committee (CBAC): Jordan Ritchie and Zoe Wyse to the Department of Community Justice CBAC, Michael Wade to the Non Departmental CBAC; Brian Harvey, Karla Forsythe, Kay Metsger, Carolyn Manke, and Debra Giannini to the Department of Community Services CBAC, Sandy Litt and Cormac Burke to the Department of County Management CBAC, Lisabeth Kaufman and Richard LaDick to the District Attorney's CBAC, and Bob Pung and Dana Fuller to the Sheriff's Office CBAC. These first term appointments will end June 30, 2017.

These candidates meet the appointment and reappointment criteria set forth by the CIC for membership on CBACs. They have all successfully participated in CBAC meetings, discussions, trainings, and field trips. The first term appointments will fill vacancies due to term limits. The 2nd term appointees are eager to continue serving on their particular CBAC. Interest forms are on file in the Office of Citizen Involvement.
