General Information

1. What action are you requesting from the Board?

Proclaiming February 2017 as Black History Month, and recognizing Multnomah County employees who are doing work to shape a better future for Black communities

2. Please provide sufficient background information for the Board and the public to understand this issue. Please note which Program Offer this action affects and how it impacts the results.

In the United States, Black History Month is observed in February, a tradition beginning almost 90 years ago declared Negro History Week to celebrate the contributions of Black people to human history and to push back on racial prejudice. While recognizing and celebrating these contributions, it is also paramount that given the racial inequities that still exist for Black communities in Multnomah County and across the country, that we recognize those that are creating a better future state.
