Dear Colleagues:

Effective immediately, I am resigning my position as County Commissioner, District 3, Multnomah County. As required by section 6.50(5) of the Multnomah County Charter, I am stepping down from this position so that I may run for the office of Portland City Council Commissioner.

Thank you for all the hard work and help in making my 5 years of service on the Board very gratifying and worthwhile.

Sincerely,

Tanya Collier

DATE: DECEMBER 16, 1997
RE: RESIGNATION FROM BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

I intend to formally resign at the end of the business day on Friday, January 16, 1998, in order to file for the office of City Commissioner being vacated by Commissioner Gretchen Kafoury.

By giving you my resignation date 30 days in advance, it will allow the Board time to declare the vacancy, call for a March election to be held concurrently with the election in District 3, and set a filing deadline for candidates wishing to run for this seat.

I have asked Tom Sponsler to assist me in filing a Board resolution stating my resignation date and meeting all election law requirements. I will file the resolution to be read at the December 30, 1997 Board meeting.
