

Elizabeth Steiner Hayward, MD
423 NW Skyline Blvd., Portland, OR 97229
503-201-5967
e.steiner.hayward@gmail.com

Professional Experience

Oregon Health and Science University	Portland, OR
• Associate Professor of Family Medicine	1999 – Present
• Director, Knight Cancer Institute Breast Health Education Program	2006 – Present
• Co-Chair, Institutional Review Board	2007 – 2011
Family Physicians Group	Vancouver, WA
• Medical Director	1996 – 1998
• Partner	1994 – 1998

Professional Service

Oregon Academy of Family Physicians
• President	2011 – Present
• Chair, Public Policy and Legislative Affairs Commission	2002 – 2010
Oregon Medical Association
• Legislative Affairs Committee	2002 – Present
Oregon Department of Human Services
• Cancer Genomics Advisory Committee	2009 – Present
• Breast & Cervical Cancer Program Allocation Committee	2009 – Present
• Co-Chair, Oregon Partnership for Cancer Control Breast Health Task Force	2006 – 2008
• AWARE (Alliance Working for Antibiotic Resistance Education) Advisory Committee	2003 – 2006
• Immunization Policy Advisory Team	1999 – 2001
Annals of Family Medicine, Peer Reviewer	2005 – Present

Selected Scholarly Work & Presentations

Steiner E, Klubert DA, Knutson D. Assessing Breast Cancer Risk in Women, American Family Physician American Family Physician 2008;78(12):1361-1366

Steiner E, Austin DF, Prouser NC. Detection & Description of Small Breast Masses in Residents Trained Using a Standardized Clinical Breast Examination Curriculum. Journal of General Internal Medicine 2008;23(2):129–34

Steiner E, Hayes M, Klubert DA. Does Dietary Fat Intake Affect Breast Cancer Risk? Journal of Family Practice, 2007;56(7):583-4

Knutson D, Steiner E. Screening for Breast Cancer: Current Recommendations and Future Directions, American Family Physician, 2007;75(11):1660-67

Steiner E, Saddler LA, Fagnan LJ, Promoting Appropriate Antibiotic Use: Teaching Doctors, Teaching Patients Cal J Health Promotion 2004;2:Special Issue: Oregon 22-30

Introduction to Human Subjects Protection, videoconference presentation to Menoufia Medical School Faculty, Menoufia, Egypt

Congressional Visit Role-playing: Optimizing Lobbying Visits, American Academy of Family Physicians Family Medicine Congressional Conference, Washington DC

Reducing Breast Cancer Risk, community presentation on breast cancer risk reduction, Rogue Valley Medical Center, Medford, OR

Making Sense of Breast Cancer Screening Guidelines, Oregon Cancer Control Breast Health Task Force Statewide Webinar

Optimizing Breast Cancer Early Detection: The Important Role of Office Staff, Lincoln City Medical Center, Lincoln City, OR; Tillamook General Hospital, Tillamook, OR

Controversies in Breast Cancer Screening, Grand Rounds Presentations, Three Rivers Hospital, Grants Pass, OR; Rogue Valley Medical Center, Medford, OR; Samaritan North Lincoln Hospital, Lincoln City, OR; Tillamook General Hospital, Tillamook, OR; Providence Medford Hospital, Medford, OR

Education

University of Chicago, Bachelor of Arts with General and Special Honors	1985
University of Massachusetts Medical School, MD	1991
Oregon Health and Science University, Family Medicine Residency	1991 – 1994
OHSU, Certificate in Human Investigations	2006
OHSU & PSU, Certificate in Bioethics	2010
OHSU, Lead Mentor Program	2011

Community Involvement

Southwest Community Health Center, Volunteer Physician	2006 – Present
Southwest Community Health Center, Associate Medical Director	2007 – 2009
MS Society Mud Run Team Organizer	2011
Girl Scouts Troop Leader & Day Camp Medical Supervisor	2001 – 2010
University of Chicago Alumni Club of Portland, President	1994 – 1997
Congregation Neveh Shalom, Board Member	2007 – Present
Catlin Gabel School, Board Member	2009 – Present

Political Experience

Led a coalition of healthcare-related organizations on a package of primary care legislation, passing two bills	2011
Organized Oregon Academy of Family Physicians' first legislative day (now biennial event)	2009
Served on multiple workgroups	2005 – Present
Worked with Oregon Women's Health & Wellness Alliance to submit & get passed HB 2498 covering breast exams	2005
Testified on approximately three to five bills/session	2003 – Present
Active volunteer for campaigns for candidates for elected office and ballot measures	1984 – Present