The ADA is one of America's most comprehensive pieces of civil rights legislation. It prohibits discrimination and guarantees that people with disabilities have the same opportunities as everyone else to participate in the mainstream of American life – to enjoy employment opportunities, to purchase goods and services, and to participate in State and local government programs and services.

Multnomah County's employee resource group Abled and disAbled Advocates Partnering Together (AdAPT), focuses on the needs of employees who have disAbilities in addition to allies and advocates for people with disAbilities.
