

01:06:53 Amy Anderson: Someone from the DOJ at the state should be reviewing these deaths

01:14:04 kay: I attended the PDX DOJ hearings at the PDX federal courthouse and testified after my horrible 911 domestic violence call in multnomah county. After that I experienced a horrible independant police review system that didn't work which ended with a new IPR director. I have testified 3x at the city council. I am STILL asking for police body cameras. I have limited confidence in police deescalating I am the police block captain and lead the neighborhood block watch. We are asking for body camera even if expensive. Please.

01:15:31 Amy Anderson: Kay, Body Cams are NOT going to happen in Portland. It has already been settled by PPB and the city

01:15:32 JO ANN HARDESTY: I am totally opposed to body cameras

01:17:30 kay: Citizens will not stop asking and voting for body cameras like many other cities. Jo Ann you have lost my vote to anyone that will push police body cameras as it is the single biggest ASK for many in the community.

01:18:21 JO ANN HARDESTY: How many body cameras have you seen lead to prosecution of police involved?

01:19:07 Amy Anderson: A lot of problems exist at the Failure to Appear levels, hundreds of folks wont come to court so there is always a warrant out for them. We need a night court for those unable to enter the court house.

01:20:22 Amy Anderson: NIGHT COURT for those houseless who are unable to store their stuff to enter the court house. We need a way to make folks appear without judgement.

01:23:46 Ann Kasper: Thank you, Erika.

01:29:45 kay: world wide movement, not nationwide

01:29:50 JO ANN HARDESTY: Still hasn't changes when prisoners make .25$ per hour

01:31:23 Amy Anderson: Oregon statue requires every inmate to work and earn a living, Also, this subject is listed under Environmental Justice , even in the Portland Plan 2035

01:33:04 Amy Anderson: Criminal Justice is managed under Environmental Justice .

01:34:57 kay: "Protests (in the last two) weeks have taken place in around 50 countries and on every continent except Antarctica." wiki list of G. Floyd protests
Police body cameras have raised the awareness of citizens everywhere to unjust police violence.

01:39:27 Ann Kasper: Carl, please remember the issues that Judge Waller brings up, a group that you have forgotten to mention today. People with mental health issues. Black people who have been accused of criminality on top of mental health diagnoses have it very tough. Psychiatry and inpatient treatment (often mandated by courts) were not created well to empower black people and their families to heal.

01:42:58 Amy Anderson: And people with disabilities

01:43:21 Amy Anderson: especially Behavioral health challenges

01:45:23 Amy Anderson: Not happening in this community

01:47:08 Amy Anderson: Go JOANN

01:48:30 kay: Jo Ann - I voted for you as I said to you in person at illena music concert last year. Please know that today you are VERY insulting and polarizing that is not helping.

01:49:06 Amy Anderson: White Fragility is the answer

01:52:03 Amy Anderson: We need to understand how all the policies cross between the county, city and state.

01:54:00 Amy Anderson: This is total truth, go Joann

01:56:07 JO ANN HARDESTY: Thank you

01:57:31 JO ANN HARDESTY: I will be introducing proposals to develop Community Safety

01:57:49 Erika Preuitt: I am wondering if the listening sessions should be facilitated healing sessions. Healing sessions where there is reconciliation. This may be the first step.

01:58:31 Amy Anderson: What is the percentage of the Sheriffs budget in Multnomah county for next year?

02:01:07 Amy Anderson: African American Behavioral Health Coalition needs to come back

02:02:02 Amy Anderson: Go Ebony

02:03:04 JO ANN HARDESTY: Thank you Ebony:)

02:03:59 Ann Kasper: Ebony, thank you, and I hope you heal quickly.

02:05:21 Amy Anderson: A barrier is how medical care is delivered, how housing is no longer funded by the Feds, how our 3 governmental systems interface with each other. Unity is not the right place, MCDC is not the right place, but there are NO places left that accept the most vulnerable.

02:06:09 Amy Anderson: Legislative action is where our work begins

02:07:03 kay: i,l

02:07:59 JO ANN HARDESTY: Thank you Commissioner

02:09:00 JO ANN HARDESTY: Thank you Commissioner Stegman. You are brave

02:09:04 Ebony Clark: Thank you Com. Stegmann

02:09:36 Erika Preuitt: Yes, thank you Commissioner Stegman.

02:10:15 Ebony Clark: Thank you Patricia

02:13:40 Ann Kasper: Gratitude to all today. This has been a powerful meeting with honesty. There is a healing going on.

02:15:18 Commissioner Sharon Meieran: Thank you JoAnn! You're spot on.

02:16:27 kay: survivor not victim of domestic violence is the term i prefer so i have the control and power over my abuser to move forward, Thank you all for listening and letting us have a voice. Jo Ann pls relook at citizens ask for cameras now in light of this new movement. Don't close your mind to video cameras on police now due to the revolution as you call it.
