WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has enacted the National Affordable Housing Act of 1990 and the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 with amendments made by the Housing and Urban-Rural Recovery Act of 1983, and the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, and the Department of Housing and Urban Development has adopted regulations pursuant thereto (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Act"); and
- B. WHEREAS, the Congress has found and declared that the Nation's cities, towns and small urban communities face critical social, economic and environmental problems; and
- C. WHEREAS, the Congress has further found and declared that the future welfare of the Nation and the well-being of its citizens depend on the establishment and maintenance of viable urban communities as social, economic and political entities; and
- D. WHEREAS, the primary objective of the Act is the development of viable urban communities, by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment and expanding economic opportunities principally for persons of low and moderate income.
- E. WHEREAS, consistent with this primary objective, the Federal assistance provided in this Act is for the support of community development activities which are directed toward the following specific objectives:

- (2) The elimination of conditions which are detrimental to health, safety, and public welfare, through code enforcement, demolition, interim rehabilitation assistance, and related activities; and
- (3) The conservation and expansion of the Nation's housing stock in order to provide a decent home and a suitable living environment for all persons, but principally those of low and moderate income; and
- (4) The expansion and improvement of the quantity and quality of community services, principally for persons of low and moderate income, which are essential for sound community development of viable urban communities;
- (5) A more rational utilization of land and other natural resources and the better arrangement of residential, commercial, industrial, recreational, and other needed activity centers; and
- (6) The reduction of the isolation of income groups within communities and geographical areas and the promotion of an increase in the diversity and vitality of neighborhoods through the spatial de-concentration of housing opportunities for persons of lower income and the revitalization of deteriorating or deteriorated neighborhoods to attract persons of higher income; and

- (8) The alleviation of physical and economic distress through the stimulation of private investment and community revitalization in areas with population out-migration or a stagnating or declining tax base; and
- (9) The conservation of the Nation's scarce energy resources, improvement of energy efficiency, and the provision of alternative and renewable energy sources.
