TO: Multnomah County Commission

FROM: Laurie P. Sitton LP
Metropolitan Human Rights Commissioner
Chair, City/County Advisory Committee on the Disabled

RE: Metropolitan Human Rights Commission
within the Proposed Budget

As a proud citizen of our greater Portland metro area, member and advocate of the disabled community, and long-time ex-officio Commission member-now-commissioner, I request your continued support of MHRC in realizing an even more diverse and harmonious place for us all to live.

I urge you to maintain the Metropolitan Human Rights Commission budget as currently listed in the proposed budget package.

The Metropolitan Human Rights Commission believes in the dignity and worth of all human beings, and as expressed in the mission statement, we strive to "foster mutual understanding and respect, and to protect the human rights of all persons in the city of Portland and Multnomah county regardless of socio-economic status, religion, ethnicity, race, national origin, disability, age, gender, and sexual orientation."

The Metropolitan Human Rights Commission is organized to help citizens and government in the city of Portland and Multnomah county to achieve the goal of embracing and celebrating diversity, eliminating bigotry, and enhancing a sense of community. In a pro-active role, we endeavor to network and coordinate with other community groups in promoting diversity through education on cultural differences, civil rights and bias crimes.

We live in a time when, left unchecked, hatred, prejudice, intolerance, and bigotry can poison and manipulate the minds and behaviors of unsuspecting people; we have witnessed all too often in our own "back yards" the potential and devastating results of such actions.

But we proceed in our commitment to human rights; we are also dedicated to continue our efforts of public/private collaboration by supplementing the existing funding through grants and donations.

Again, I urge your continued support of MHRC and its mission during this budgetary process.
