Adoption of the proclamation declaring June 12, 2013 Loving Day in Multnomah County, Oregon.

2. Please provide sufficient background information for the Board and the public to understand this issue. Please note which Program Offer this action affects and how it impacts the results.

Mildred Jeter and Richard Loving fell in love and married in 1958. Because Virginia's law made interracial marriage a felony offense, the Lovings were arrested. Their battle for the right to marry rose to the highest court nearly a decade after their marriage. On June 12, 1967, the Supreme Court overturned laws that banned racially mixed marriages in the case of Loving v. Virginia. Loving Day commemorates the anniversary of the landmark decision every June 12.
