- Domestic Violence Enhanced Response Team
- Gateway Center for Domestic Violence Services

211/Shelter Crisis Line Pilot Project

Current System:

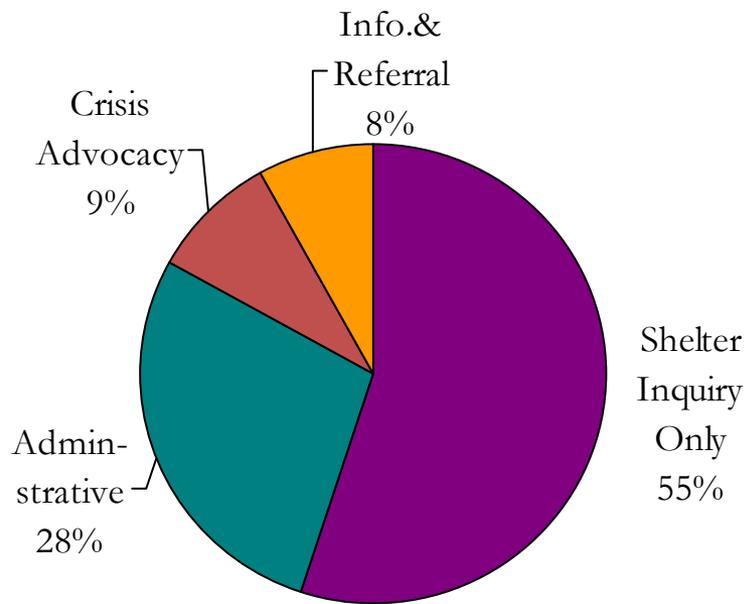

- 6+ DV crisis lines
- 17,245 unmet shelter requests
- Shelter space for 44 households
- Average stay is 53 days
- Openings 1-2 times per week

3 month pilot project with
211 + 2 shelter crisis lines

Goals:

- Free up shelter staff to focus on residents
- Reduce redundant phone calls
- Ensure live response to every crisis call

Pilot Project Findings & Implications

Implications:

- Strategic partnerships
- Technology
- Reframe DV shelter as safety, not housing, resource
- Expand post-shelter options like Rapid Rehousing

Domestic Violence Enhanced Response Team

- Coordinated, multidisciplinary intervention for high-risk, high-lethality cases
- 200+ referrals receive victim support
- 100+ actively coordinated criminal cases
- Nationally recognized collaboration
- Statewide and national training

DVERT Pilot Project

- 1 year pilot project
- 2 Advocates as night/weekend responders
 - Safety planning, crisis support, information, resources, criminal justice information
- Free up officers to collect evidence, write reports, book offenders into jail & respond to new calls

Goals:

- Provide immediate support/safety after incident
- Reach high-risk cases earlier

"I am so glad that Gateway provides all services (legal aid, domestic violence grant and restraining order) in one place. It makes it easier and less stressful than having to go to downtown."

~ November 23, 2010

"This facility is amazing! I didn't know what to do or where to turn and this [place] helped with everything."

~ January 13, 2011

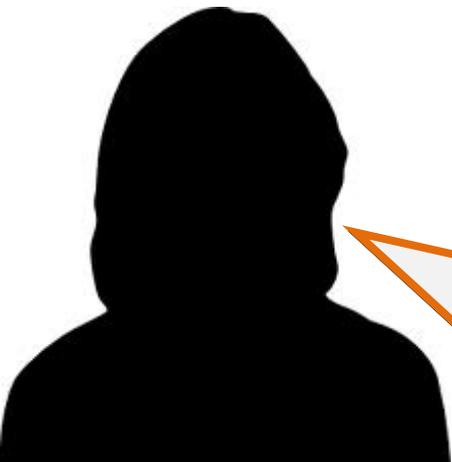

Why does it work?

Restraining Orders

- 557 Restraining Order Applications were filed in the first year (24% of those filed in Multnomah County in same period)
- 90% of Gateway Applications are Ordered by the Judge (compared to 85% of all filed)
- 16% of the Restraining Order Applications are Interpreted (higher than downtown)
- Gateway Center follows up with applicants to notify when orders are served and if hearings are set

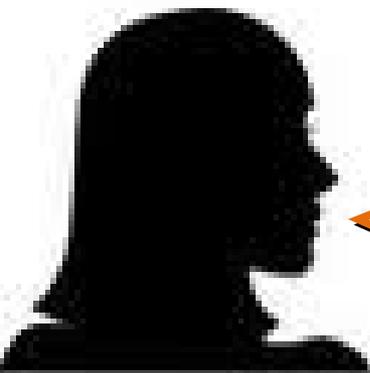

"I got information about what a restraining order does and then I received help to file a restraining order. While I was here everybody was very friendly and nonjudgmental and willing to help me. Thank you." ~ September 30, 2010

"Before I went through a lot to obtain a restraining order. It was much easier today. The staff is so warm and friendly. Thank you so much for your support. I am very grateful." ~ March 18, 2011

"My navigator made me feel relaxed and safe even when filling out a restraining order which is stressful. Thank you." ~ April 7, 2011

Why does it work?

Childcare

- The Child Care is extremely warm and easy to access.
- Mothers are very supported by this feature.
- Funding provided by the Portland Children's Levy makes this critical service possible.

“Thank you. Good visit. It was my children’s first time in child care and they loved it.” ~ November 17, 2010

“I truly appreciate everyone’s understanding and being so caring about my situation. Having the childcare really helped distract my child and made it easier for me to continue with the process.”

~ May 11, 2011
