General Information

1. What action are you requesting from the Board?

Adoption of proclamation: proclaiming September 2017 as Recovery Month in Multnomah County.

2. Please provide sufficient background information for the Board and the public to understand this issue. Please note which Program Offer this action affects and how it impacts the results.

Multnomah County observes Recovery Month every September. The annual event raises awareness about recovery from substance use and mental health issues. This year's theme, "Strengthen Families and Communities," highlights the role of family in recovery.

National Recovery month is in its 28th year. Each September, this event shows us that recovery is possible and encourages people experiencing mental and substance use disorders to seek help. Prevention works, treatment is effective, and people can and do recover from behavioral health issues.

3. Explain the fiscal impact (current year and ongoing).
